Viet Cong Mortars Hit Airfield At Soc Trang

Saigon, Viet Nam (AP)—Viet Cong mortars opened up on the military airfield at Soc Trang, 100 miles southwest of Saigon, late Thursday night, but damage was reported slight owing to fast evacuation of the field.

The attack came as U.S. military authorities were questioning a wounded captive, identified as a North Vietnamese soldier, about the Viet Cong attack that wrought $5 million damage, killed one American and wounded two at the Da Nang Air Base earlier the same day.

The U.S. 7th Fleet landed new Marine units in South Viet Nam, this time at Qui Nhon. A supply port for the campaign against guerrillas in the central highlands, it is 170 miles south of Da Nang and 270 miles northeast of Saigon.

A spokesman said between 400 and 500 Leathernecks moved in to augment security at Qui Nhon, where a terrorist blast killed 23 Americans Feb. 10, and provided combat support for South Vietnamese armed forces. Other Marines are based up the coast at Chu Lai, Da Nang and Phu Bai.

Reds Ambush Viets

Three battalions of government troops and supporting warplanes battled through an ambush by a reinforced Viet Cong regiment in a mountain valley 60 miles inland from Qui Nhon. The Cheo Reo ambush failed, but casualties were heavy on both sides.

Four Americans and about 50 Vietnamese soldiers were killed. Viet Cong dead littered the slopes, and it was estimated the Red enemy lost up 130 men.

Three American survivors of the ambush were 1st Lt. James Gleason of Boone, Iowa; Maj. William M. Ciccolo of Boston, Mass., and Capt. William R. Foster of Pocatello, Idaho. Ciccolo is senior adviser to the Vietnamese force that went to aid ambushed government troops.

Four dozen or more planes of the U.S. Navy and Air Force staged raid after raid on North Viet Nam.

The prisoner at Da Nang was the one casualty left behind by the Viet Cong detail that hit the air base at 1:30 a.m. Thursday. Search patrols found him along with blood trails indicating some others, wounded or dead, had been carried away.

A U.S. spokesman said the prisoner is Do Xuan Hien, 29, from the North Vietnamese province of Thanh Hoa. He was quoted as saying he infiltrated into South Viet Nam in April with the 3rd Battalion of the 18th Regiment of North Viet Nam's 325th Division.

Eugene Black, special adviser to President Johnson on Southeast Asian economic development, arrived in Saigon for a three-day survey of Viet Nam.

In Washington Sen. Wayne Morse, D-Ore. an outspoken critic of Johnson's Southeast Asian policy, called on the administration for an all-out effort to stop the war in Viet Nam and "to exhaust every possible means of doing so through the United Nations."

CORE Eyes Politics

...FARMER: PRESENT TACTICS DEAD

Durham, N.C. (AP)—The national director of the Congress of Racial Equality, setting a new political course for the civil rights group, Thursday called on CORE members to put u pcandidates in elections.

James Farmer said the group's present political policy of "pressuring and cajoling political units" is dead and no longer applicable to the needs of the movement.

Be Prepared

He urged CORE members to "be prepared to put up candidates" for nomination when necessary "through political vehicles like the Freedom Democratic Movement" and to endorse or oppose candidates for election.

"This is, of course, a new departure in CORE policy," Farmer told the group's national convention meeting in Durham.

"If the need for community organization has been great in the past, it is now, I believe, desperate," he said. "It is now or never. CORE's survival as a valuable and relevant organization depends upon it."

Tool To Build With

Farmer viewed the community organization "as a tool—a tool to build a vehicle. Political organization, then, is the vehicle to take us to the desired objective.

"That objective is an open society free of race discrimination and forced segregation, shorn of poverty and unemployment, with decent housing and high-quality education for all," he said. "The objective, in a word, is a new society, a free and open society."

The objectives CORE seeks, Farmer said, "are political objectives depending upon responses we can exact from political machinery.

"We can no longer rely on pressuring and cajoling political units toward desired action," he said. "We must be in a position of power, a position to change those political units when they are not responsive.

"The only way to achieve political objectives is through power, political power," he said.

Farmer addressed the opening session of the five-day convention which is expected to draw more than 400 CORE members. The convention will be asked to act on his proposals.

The national director noted that many CORE chapters have "made a serious attempt at ghetto involvement and community organization. If we are honest we will admit that most have failed, though a few have had small success ty. Thus the impact of some of our chapters has dwindled."

When neighborhood desires become known, he said, "CORE must be prepared to help the community to get them and to organize around them."

These services, he said, usually "are best provided in a central place, so if a center is desired it should be set up —not in the CORE office for it must belong to the community, not to CORE."

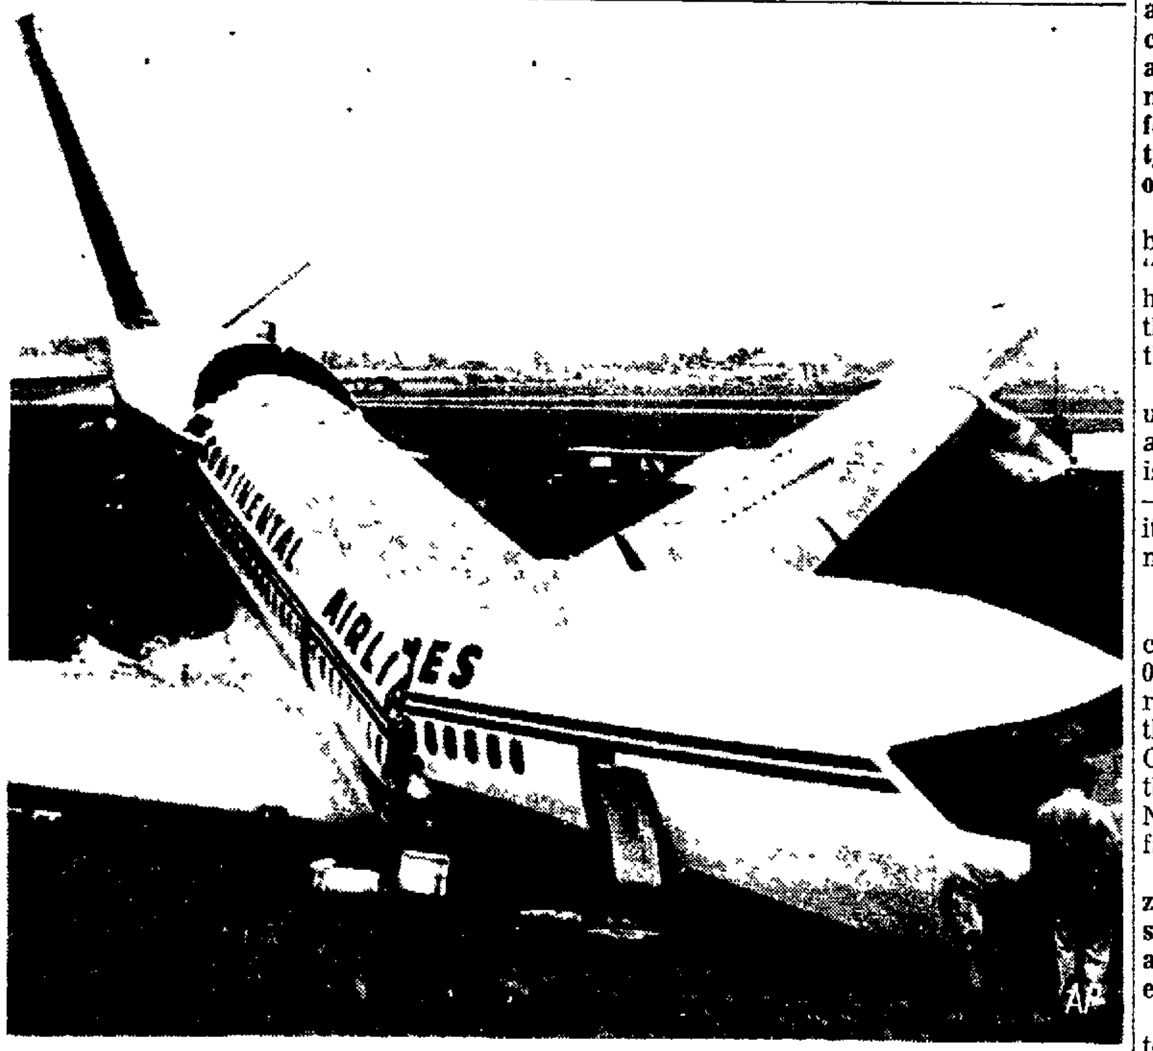
$10,000 Apiece

Farmer estimated each center would cost about $10,000 and urged a crash fund-raising campaign to finance them, also unprecedented in CORE's history. He suggested three centers, one in each Northern region, be opened by fall.

The national CORE organization, Farmer said, is strapped with a $250,000 debt and insufficient funds to cove current operating expenses.

Working through the centers, he said, "we must seek to organize the community politically or more accurately, to reorganize it politically.

"The greatest tragedy of all would be for the existing black vote to remain and the new black vote to be dumped into the general political soup brewed by the machine bosses —black or white," Farmer said.



PLANE RAMS DIKE, BREAKS UP

A Continental Airlines jetliner landing at Kansas City, Mo., Municipal Airport during a thunderstorm Thursday slammed into a dike at the end of the runway and broke into three pieces. Four persons were injured, one seriously. Pilot Lee R. Zerba of Los Angeles said he "couldn't get any braking action, probably because of the heavy water" on the runway, adding, "There was only one way to stop. I threw the plane into a ground loop (a wide U-turn maneuver), and it skidded sideways several hundred feet before stopping near the river levee." The plane, flying nonstop from Los Angeles to Kansas City, carried 59 passengers and a crew of 7.

Committee OKs Funds To Waterproof Capitol

. . . LOWER EXTERIOR SHALING

By VIRGIL FALLOON
Star Staff Writer

A Legislative resolution calling for an $125,000 appropriation to clean, repair and waterproof the lower exterior of the State Capitol was approved 7-0 Thursday by the Legislature's Committee on Government.

However, two of Gov. Frank Morrison's bills—prohibiting distribution of anonymous political material and requiring municipal and school board candidates to report campaign expenses — remained deadlocked in committee after hearing.

LR62, introduced by Sen. Henry F. Pedersen' Jr. of Omaha, proposed an $100,000 appropriation, but the amount was increased by committee amendment.

Necessary

Linus Burr Smith, architect and Capitol Building Commission members, said the proposed work "is absolutely necessary to preserve the building aside from any aesthetic value."

The exterior and courtyards of the lower two floors would be cleaned, waterproofed and stones repaired. No work is needed on the tower at this time, the committee was told.

State Engineer John Hossack said there is "evidence some of the building stone is 'taking water' and freezing action has caused some shaling."

Could Double

Smith said the repair costs, while relatively minor now, could double each year that the maintenance is deferred.

The committee by a 3-3 vote failed to advance LB915, designed to prevent the distribution of anonymous politcal material aimed at issues or candidates.

It would require political material (except that biographical material distributed by the candidate himself) be imprinted with the name and address of the individual or organization distributing it. it. The name and the address of the printer would also be required.

Douglas County Election Commissioner Jerry Hassett said anonymous campaign material attacking both presidential candidates came into Nebraska during the last election, and similar material appeared in the Omaha municipal election.

Hassett said the bill would cover anonymous public forum letters printed in newspapers if they appeared against candidates or voter issues.

Gov. Morrison, appearing in support of the bill introduced at his request, said, "In a democratic society, everyone must accept responsibility for what he says and what he does."

Other Support

Other support came from the Nebraska Fair Campaign Practices Committee and Omaha Councilman Al Veys.

The committee was told 41 states have such legislation.

Opposition to the bill came from Leo N. Bartunek and Mrs. Blanche Peterson of Lincoln on grounds of violation of constitutional rights of free speech.

Survived

LB916, which survived a kill vote on a 3-3 count, would add municipal and school board candidates to the current list of county and state candidates that must report campaign contributions and expenses in excess of $25.

"It doesn't change the candidate expense laws, but merely adds these categories," Hassett said.

He said while school board members receive no compensation, they handle millions of dollars in some districts and the public should know what campaign financial support is involved, if any.

Only 3 Votes

A legislative resolution accusing Nebraska's metropolitan newspapers of having used their powers "in an indiscriminate and irresponsible manner" was defeated by a vote of 2-1, with Sen. Proud the only backer of the measure.

Fair Job Commission's Policy 'No Persecution'

Washington (AP) — The federal government launches Friday its most ambitious—and complicated — effort to end job discrimination.

Franklin D. Roosevelt Jr., chairman of the new Equal Employment Opportunity Commission, said the accent will be on conciliation and persuasion.

"Our policy," he said, "is no persecution.' "

The commission was set up under Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964. This title forbids hiring, firing or promoting on the basis of "race, color, religion, sex, or national origin." The 1964 civil rights bill provided that the commission should start operating one year after the signing of the bill, which was July 2, 1964.

Broad Application

Title VII applies to labor unions, including their apprentice systems, and to employment agencies, as well as to employers.

Beginning Friday, the law applies to employers or unions who have 100 or more workers or members. A year hence this limitation drops to 75, then to 50 in 1967, and finally to 25 in 1968. Employment agencies are covered regardless of size.

The commission has no power to punish anybody, but if an accussed person resisted conciliation and court orders he might find himself — after a lengthy process — fined or jailed for contempt of court.

Among other things it is unlawful for an employer, labor union or employment agency to publish any discriminatory advertising relating to employment. This could lead to changes in the traditional "Help Wanted, Men" and "Help Wanted, Women" ads in nwspapers. However, it would be the advertiser, not the newspaper, that could get into trouble.

Exempt from Title VII are federal and state governments, Indian tribes (which may discriminate in favor of Indian), bona fide private membership clubs, persons employed by a religious educational institution and persons who refuse to employ Communists.

If an employer can show that religion, sex, or nationality are prime requisites for a particular job, he is in the clear. But this exemption does not extend to race or color.

Title VII makes its bow under fire from friends and foes of civil rights legislation.

Dr. Clarence G. Lowe Dies; At NU 37 Years

Dr. Clarence G. Lowe, 68, of 1314 So. 32nd, University of Nebraska professor of classics emeritus and former chairman of the department of classics, died Thursday.

He remained at the University as professor and chairman until 1959 when he retired from administrative duties except for a six-year interval, 1931-37, when he served as librarian of the Gennadeion, American School of Classical Studies in Athens, Greece.

He was a warden of St. Mark's Episcopal Church on the Campus, a member of the American Philological Association, Classical Association of the Middle West and South, Archeological Institute of America; Medieval Academy of America, and American Interprofessional Institute.

Southeast Hit By Tornadoes

Tornadoes dipped down in southeast Nebraska Thursday night, causing damage to a residential area of Nebraska City and to farmsteads in the Unadilla, Syracuse, Palmyra and Elmwood areas.

Several homes in the Kearney Hill section of Nebraska City, along the Missouri River, suffered damage as well as a few business places near the port of entry at the Nebraska City bridge.

At least two fires broke out in Nebraska City and one woman, Mrs. Ruby Sears, was injured in a fall and hospitalized. The city was without power three hours.

6-Block Ares

The six-block area in eastern Nebraska City bearing the brunt of the storm suffered moderate damage to homes and business establishments. A large cave in the area also had heavy damage.

The path of the tornado was from a point seven miles west of Unadilla and south of Highway 2, then to the north of Highway 2 and next to a point west of Nebraska City before the city itself was hit.

Heavy rains and hail accompanied the tornado. Rainfall at Nebraska City was 2.83 inches.

In the Unadilla area the tornado cut a path from seven miles west to three miles east. Two farmsteads on the south side of Highway 2 were damaged, while 10 farmsteads on the north side of the highway were hit.

Two barns were destroyed when a tornado hit five miles southeast of Elmwood. Heavy rains accompanying the storm brought streams in the area out of their banks and covered Highway 1. A trailer house was upset near the junction of Highways 34 and 1.

Road Closed

Weeping Water Creek at Weeping Water was also reported flooding.

An Omaha Public Power District spokenman said the tornado struck the west edge of Syracuse knocking out a 69,000 volt line and darkening the town for about 45 minutes. A number of farms north of Syracuse were without power due to loss of lines.

Near Hospital

The Lincoln Telephone and Telegraph Company reported its warehouse at Nebraska City was destroyed. About 40 Omaha to Nebraska City telephone circuits were out of service.

Wind and rains were hampering repairs to power service halted by the storm. Minus power were Brock, Unadilla, almage, Julian, Dunbar, Otoe and Panama.

Supersonic Airliner Go-Ahead Given

Washington (AP) — President Johnson committed the United States Thursday to the billion-dollar task of developing a supersonic airliner that is safe, superior, and can earn its way.

Johnson took the occasion of the swearing-in of a new administrator of the Federal Aviation Agency to announce the definite decision to proceed with a supersonic transport — popularly known as SST—and to call for an initial funding of $140 million.

Johnson said, at the White House ceremony, that this sum would be required to carry the SST design and development program through an 18-month period, staring about Aug. 1.

'Bozo' Succeeds Najeeb

The occasion was the swearing-in of a retired Air Force general, William F. (Bozo) McKee, as FAA chief, succeeding Najeeb E. Halaby who is resigning.

The same four companies that have engaged in the preliminary design work to date will be asked to continue their work on the SST. They are Boeing Co. and the Lockheed Aircraft Co., builders of the airplane, and the General Electric Co. and Pratt & Whitney Division of United Aircraft Corp., engine manufacturers.

"Bozo McKee is the best man for the important job that I am assigning this morning —the direction of the program to develop a supersonic transport," Johnson said.

Three-Part Goal

The new SST goal, Johnson said, is "to develop a supersonic transport which is first, safe for the passengers; second, superior to any other commercial aircraft; and third, economically profitable to build and operate."

Johnson said an advisory committee which has completed an intensive appraisal of the program has informed him that considerable progress, particularly in recent months, has indicated that a commercially profitable SST can be developed.

Much additional work is necessary before actual start of construction of a prototype aircraft, however, in order to reduce the large financial and development risks, Johnson said.

In testimony before congressional committees, officials have estimated the SST development cost at about $1 billion. More recent cost estimates have been much higher. Estimates of the unit cost of the supersonic airplane have ranged from $22 million to $40 million.

U.S. aircraft industry leaders have been expressing concern lest failure of the administration to make up its mind definitely would put the American plane far behind its European competitors.

Some officials are confident, however, that this nation's great experience with military supersonic aircraft will make up for the lag.

ROCKET-SHOOTING PISTOL DEVELOPED

Development of a handgun that fires miniature rockets was announced Thursday by MB Associates, a San Ramon, Calif., science and engineering firm. The 13mm rocket pistol fires a ½-by-½-inch high-velocity, spin-stabilized rocket with a solid-fuel propellant ignited by a percussion primer. It weighs less than 12 ounces, can be fired underwater, and is virtually recoilless. To clean the pistol you merely slosh it in the water.

JOBLESS RATE UP SLIGHTLY

Washington (AP)—The nation's unemployment rate edged upward slightly in June to 4.7%, the Labor Department reported Thursday.

In May, the rate was 4.6%, the lowest since the fall of 1957.

A Labor Department official said the slight increase in June did not indicate a change in the downward trend which has prevailed for about 18 months.

Women Up; Men Down

The unemployment rate for women advanced while the rate for men went down slightly. There was a slight drop in the high unemployment rate among teen-agers.

Total nonfarm employment advanced to a record 67,459,000.

This was almost 500,000 higher than in May, and about 1.9 million higher than a year ago.

Ag Decline 300,000

Agricultural employment declined some 300,000 on a seasonally adjusted basis. An official said this decline was expected after successive increases in April and May.

The unemployment rate for Negroes swung upward to 8.4% after a decline in May to 7.6. For whites, the rate was 4.3% the same as the previous month.

Unemployment in June totaled 4,287,000.

Gold Supply Drops Sharply

New York (AP) — The U.S. monetary gold supply suffered its sharpest weekly decline in six years, the Federal Reserve System said Thursday.

The drop totaled $359 million through Wednesday, although most of the loss was accounted for by gold switched to the International Monetary Fund (IMF).

Some $100 million of the loss resulted from transfers to the gold stabilization fund to meet foreign government conversions of dollars to gold.

The $100 million loss, therefore, ended a five-week period of growing optimism that the United States might finally have ended the persistent gold drains so far this year. Most of the gold has gone to France and Germany.

The over-all decline dropped the total national monetary supply to $13.9 billion, the lowest since August 1938.

The total loss of gold so far this year has been $1.45 billion.

The IMF is a pool of money made up of a large number of nations. In effect, it is kind of an international currency insurance fund designed to keep nations from falling into economic chaos.

The gold loss during the past week was the largest since 1959 when the United States last made a major gold contribution to the IMF.

Of the total outflow for the week, the IMF, under legislation signed by President Johnson Wednesday, is to get $258,750,000. The remaining $100 million was transferred to the stabilization fund to meet foreign governments' conversions of dollars into gold.

Following usual policy, the Federal Reserve declined to identify what countries will get the gold from the stabilization fund.

In a strict sense the contribution to the IMF is still gold available for U.S. needs.

Gold is important to the U.S. economy because the nation's supply of currency in circulation is geared to the amount of gold stock in vaults.

Crew Picked For 2-Week Gemini Orbit

Space Center, Houston (UPI) — Rookie astronauts Frank Borman and James A. Lovell will fly a Gemini capsule into orbit for as long as two weeks early next year, possibly to try this nation's next "walk" in space, it was announced Thursday.

The federal space agency named Borman, an Air Force major, to pilot the Gemini 7 craft on an ambitious flight that—barring a Russian manned space spectacular between now and then—will easily shatter all world records for astronaut voyages.

Lovell, a Navy lieutenant commander, will ride the righthand seat as copilot of the 7,000-pound spacecraft.

Both spacemen are 37 years old.

The space agency said Edward H. White II, the astronaut who took America's first "spacewalk" as copilot of Gemini 4 last month, will train as Borman's backup pilot. Michael Collins, first of the Apollo moon shot generation astronauts to receive a Gemini crew assignment, will team up as White's copilot in the wings.

10th Tiros Put In Orbit

Cape Kennedy, Fla. (AP) — The 10th Tiros weather observatory satellite rocketed into orbit Thursday night to hunt and study hurricanes and typhoons born in the 1965 season.

The satellite, in concert with the earlier Tiros 7, 8 and 9 payloads, could provide the most extensive photographic coverage yet of a full season of tropical storms.

The electronic weatherman was propeled into space by a three-stage delta rocket which blasted away from Capt Kennedy right on schedule, its flaming exhaust brilliantly lighting the dark Florida sky.

Tiros 10 is the first satellite financed by the Weather Bureau. The previous nine, all successful, were paid for by the space agency.

DROUGHT:

Year Of Big Bad Floods Time Of Great Dryness

By WESLEY G. PIPPERT

Chicago (UPI)—This year of the Mississippi River rampage and the terrible Colorado-Kansas flood may well be remembered as the time of the great drought.

Much of the United States is short of water.

So short, that:

—In New York and Massachusett's restaurants, you have to ask for a glass of water.

—The Cahaba River in Alabama is the lowest in 35 years.

Ranchers, Rainmakers

The floods in the Upper Mississippi Valley and in Kansas and Colorado may be directly related to the droughts which parch Florida's Everglades and inspire at least one New York saloon to lace its ice cubes with rum.

Climatologist L. A. Joos of the U.S. Weather Bureau in Washington said the main reason for the droughts is a shift in the main storm track.

Storms usually move from the natio's midsection up the St. Lawrence Valley and into the Northeast. But, the last several months, the big storms have come out of Colorado and moved towards Hudson Bay.

The same storm systems that dumped tons of snow in the plains and torrents of rain in the Arkansas River valley left the Northeast high and dry.

Complicated By People

The drought in the Northeast is complicated by people. There are so many of them and they use so much water.

City officials believe that if New Yorkers would cut their water consumption down to 50 gallons a day much of the crisis would be solved.

New York Water Commissioner Armand D'Angelo asked the public to fix leaky faucets and pipes, take showers (10 gallons) instead of baths (20 gallons) and not run water while brushing teeth.

Fountains, Pools Shut

Those were requests. New York's water conservation program also includes a ban on glasses of water in restaurants unless requested; shutdown of many ornamental fountains and all but 40 swimming pools; three hours' less air conditioning per day in stores (turn it on hour and a half after the doors open, shut it off 90 minutes before closing time); heavy restrictions on carwashing and lawn watering; and special locks on the summer heat-chaser for countless youngsters—fire hydrants

Smokers were asked not to flush the toilet just to get rid of a cigarette butt.

Usually New York's reservoirs are 92% full at this time of year. This June, the reservoirs had drained to 53%.

Florida Caught, Too

In Alabama, rain along the coastal plain was the sparsest in April since 1915. Moisture at Columbia, S.C., during May was the lowest since 1951.

The groundwater level at Murray, Ky., was the lowest for May in the 18 years of record.

House Approves Time Extention On Wheat Quota

Washington (AP)—The House passed Thursday a bill to give Congress more time to decide whether to continue the voluntary wheat quota plan.

As the law stands now the voluntary plan would expire at the end of this crop year and the secretary of agriculture would be required to call a national wheat referendum this month on the old mandatory plan.

The bill, approved without any objections and sent to the Senate, would permit a referendum to be conducted as late as 30 days after the adjournment of this session of Congress.

Panel Clears Rights Bill For House Debate

From Press Reports

Washington—The way was cleared Thursday for House debate on voting rights legislation to begin Tuesday.

The Rules Committee sent the bill, designed to attack discrimination against Negroes in voting, to the House with provision for 10 hours of debate and unlimited amendments. A special provision allows a vote on a proposed Republican substitute.

House leaders said they intend to call up the measure Tuesday. The debate, including discussion of amendments, may last all week.

The Rules Committee vote was announced as 11-4.

By MATT KRAMER

Eugene, Ore. (AP)—If pavement, engines and people are beginning to wear you down, there is always the wilderness areas of the Far West for a refresher.

Or is there?

Go into a place like Three Sisters Wilderness Area in the high Oregon Cascade Range and what do you find?

"More than 16,000 people were there last year," says Larry Worstell, deputy supervisor of the Willamette National Forest.

Nor was this an isolated example. More than 86,000 persons last year entered the 12 wilderness areas set aside in Oregon and Washington. The problem is even worse in other parts of the country.

"Wilderness use is increasing to the point that it's a problem for both the people who go to those areas for some degree of privacy, and for those of us responsible for maintenance of wilderness environment," Worstell says.

And this in the area set aside presumably to preserve the wilderness for all time. In these areas there may be no roads or motors or hardly any evidence of civilization; man may visit them but not stay.

Corrals, Toilets

Already they are talking about registration so that hikers can keep from trampling each other. They are considering corrals along packtrip routes and toilets at strategic locations.

In areas where man goes to amuse himself, away from regulation, more regulation may be necessary.

Part of the problem is that much of the wilderness area is not high elevations. It is easy to ruin the beauty there. Grass cannot stand much foot traffic. A mountain meadow can disappear under a group of careless people on horses. A damaged tree may take years to come back, if it comes back at all.

Cheyenne Co. Road Damage Hits $127,210

. . . From June Cloudbursts

Sidney (AP)—Road damage, principally to bridges and drainage structures, resulting from cloudbursts in Cheyenne County June 15 and June 24 has reached $127,210, as was reported this week.

Orville Smith, Cheyenne County road commissioner, said this total does not include additional washouts in the Sidney draw damaging partially complete repairs.

40 Bridges Damaged

He estimated that 40 bridges in the county have been heavily damaged by cascading water. At least eight bridges, many of them concrete structures installed by the Air Force on missile site roads, were put out of commission last Thursday when up to five inches of rain hit the Sidney draw area southwest of Sidney.

Smith said a detailed report on damages has been sent to the State Department of Roads at the department's request. He said there is a possibility that flood damage in the area may be included in the Denver flood area and some federal aid may be available.

Kearney Area Crop Loss Set At $1 Million

Kearney (AP)—County Agent Dan Stilwell Thursday estimated crop loss from severe hail, wind and rain storms earlier this week in Buffalo County at $1 million.

Stilwell said major damage was to corn, potatoes, soybeans and some sorghum in an area covering some 50 square miles.

The county was lashed by hail stones ranging up to baseball size both Monday and Tuesday nights. During that time unofficial rainfall measured two to eight inches.

Several county roads and bridges were closed in the eastern part of the county due to flooding of the Wood River.

Guard Doubled After Princess Is Threatened

Stoke-On-Trent, England (AP)—The police guard for Princess Margaret was reinforced during her tour of North Staffordshire Thursday after a telephoned threat.

The story originated in a telephoned message to a newspaper, which at once passed it to police headquarters. A warning was then relayed by radio to security officers with the princess' party and her guard was increased.

Ride Over Rapids Thrills Lincoln Scouts

By JOHN LEE
Outstate Nebraska Bureau

Valentine—For a bunch of city lads, the Boy Scouts of Lincoln's Troop 35 take to the wilds like champions.

They're conquering the remote Niobrara River this week—the third time they've done it—in a flotilla of homemade canoes.

Their tent homes—pretty damp here Tuesday night—and the powdered eggs and milk aren't quite like home, but the 19 boys don't seem to mind.

They look forward all year to the annual river adventure.

"We go just for the fun of it," one pointed out. His fun included walking around in a light rain with wet sneakers which are part of the uniform when the canoes have been beached.

"This is just good camping and scouting," remarked Scoutmaster Bob Marker, noting that the river travelers receive some advancement but no merit badges for the trip.

Marker, who regularly supervises the boys at their meetings sponsored by the Hawthorne School PTA, has been a promoter of outdoor action in scouting some 12 years.

Explore Dugout

Hitting the water Monday southwest of Valentine in their brightly-painted craft—especially constructed for river travel—the Scouts had their afternoon's stop planned for the mouth of the Snake River so they could explore an old trapper's dugout.

Wednesday at Prairie Falls they tramped the hills "to see what we could find," and Thursday scouted the Smith Falls Area, nearly impossible to reach except by canoe or on foot.

Friday they'll put the canoes on the special trailers and head for a rodeo at Mullen before returning to Lincoln Sunday.

This year's trip has been a relatively uneventful performance of J-stoke and back paddling—marred by one hull torn on a rock and one canoe sunk.

"We were running the rapids," Ron explained, "and the friend was too heavy. The waves came over and we started going down.

"I hung to the canoe to keep it up and we dragged it to shore."

"But at least nobody has gone through the rapids backwards like I did last year," he said, concluding that things are in better shape on this trip.

Boys Commended

Marker commended the boys on never having had a serious mishap.

Any disorder signals a stop for all the canoes until it is corrected. Pit stops to repair torn hulls are down to about 30 minutes.

"The most fun is jumping in the water when we hit a sand bar," agreed Mike Chapman and Billy Marker.

Ambassador To NATO Is Resigning

Washington (AP) — President Johnson announced Thursday night the resignation of Thomas K. Finletter as ambassador to the North Atlantic Treaty Organization and said he plans to nominate Hurlan Cleveland, an assistant secretary of state, to succeed him.

Cleveland, who has been assistant secretary of state for international organization affairs, will leave that post.

Johnson said he plans to nominate Joseph J. Sisco, a career Foreign Service office to succeed Cleveland as assistant secretary.

The President announced he was accepting Finletter's resignation "with the greatest reluctance and regret."

Finletter, 71, has been ambassador and American representative to NATO for nearly 4½ years. He will return to private life.

Cleveland, 47, has been assistant secretary for international organization affairs since 1961. Prior to that he served 13 years in the federal government.

Johnson, in accepting Finletter's resignation, said:

"You are among those outstanding Americans who have contributed greatly to the strength and achievement of this country through their dedication to public service."

Fort Hartsuff Youth Corps Project OKd

Grand Island (AP) — Gov. Frank Morrison and State Sen. Rudolph Kokes announced Thursday federal government approval of the Fort Hartsuff Neighborhood Youth Corps project.

The announcement means the Game Commission can proceed with recruitment and selection of enrollees immediately. The contract as signed by the Labor Department will allow the Commission to hire 30 young men between the ages of 16 and 21 in the Valley County area.

The youths will work on restoring historic Fort Hartsuff. In addition to the work experience they will receive counseling, testing, remedial education and job placement under the program.

Fort Hartsuff is located about eight miles north of Ord and a few miles east of Elyria on land owned by Dr. Glen Auble of Ord. The fort was created after the battle of Pebble Creek in 1873. Indians ceased to be a threat after the close of the Sioux War in 1876 and the fort was abandoned in 1881.

All 11 of the original garrison buildings are still standing. Dr. Auble bought the land in 1946 and since has cherished the dream of creating a

$2,400 Contributed For Rebuilding State's 4-H Camp

The $50,000 fund drive to rebuild the state 4-H camp destroyed in the May 5 Nebraska National Forest fire is meeting with success.

W. M. Antes, 4-H leader at the University of Nebraska, said more than $2,400 has been received since June 15. Contributions from organizations and individuals range from $1 to $500.

Antes said the "long haul" is still ahead, but that he is encouraged by offers to help raise money.

The fund drive is keyed to the 3.500 4-H clubs in Nebraska and the sale of goods and services produced by youngsters.

Antes cited the Primrose 4-H club as an example of the drive's backing. He said it is attempting to raise money to reconstruct the camp while also helping the Primrose community get back on its feet from the May tornado damage.

Ride Over Rapids Thrills Lincoln Scouts

By JOHN LEE
Outstate Nebraska Bureau

Valentine—For a bunch of city lads, the Boy Scouts of Lincoln's Troop 35 take to the wilds like champions.

They're conquering the remote Niobrara River this week—the third time they've done it—in a flotilla of homemade canoes.

Their tent homes—pretty damp here Tuesday night—and the powdered eggs and milk aren't quite like home, but the 19 boys don't seem to mind.

They look forward all year to the annual river adventure.

"We go just for the fun of it," one pointed out. His fun included walking around in a light rain with wet sneakers which are part of the uniform when the canoes have been beached.

"This is just good camping and scouting," remarked Scoutmaster Bob Marker, noting that the river travelers receive some advancement but no merit badges for the trip.

Marker, who regularly supervises the boys at their meetings sponsored by the Hawthorne School PTA, has been a promoter of outdoor action in scouting some 12 years.

Explore Dugout

Hitting the water Monday southwest of Valentine in their brightly-painted craft—especially constructed for river travel—the Scouts had their afternoon's stop planned for the mouth of the Snake River so they could explore an old trapper's dugout.

Wednesday at Prairie Falls they tramped the hills "to see what we could find," and Thursday scouted the Smith Falls Area, nearly impossible to reach except by canoe or on foot.

Friday they'll put the canoes on the special trailers and head for a rodeo at Mullen before returning to Lincoln Sunday.

This year's trip has been a relatively uneventful performance of J-stoke and back paddling—marred by one hull torn on a rock and one canoe sunk.

"We were running the rapids," Ron explained, "and the friend was too heavy. The waves came over and we started going down.

"I hung to the canoe to keep it up and we dragged it to shore."

"But at least nobody has gone through the rapids backwards like I did last year," he said, concluding that things are in better shape on this trip.

Boys Commended

Marker commended the boys on never having had a serious mishap.

Any disorder signals a stop for all the canoes until it is corrected. Pit stops to repair torn hulls are down to about 30 minutes.

"The most fun is jumping in the water when we hit a sand bar," agreed Mike Chapman and Billy Marker.

Ambassador To NATO Is Resigning

Washington (AP) — President Johnson announced Thursday night the resignation of Thomas K. Finletter as ambassador to the North Atlantic Treaty Organization and said he plans to nominate Hurlan Cleveland, an assistant secretary of state, to succeed him.

Cleveland, who has been assistant secretary of state for international organization affairs, will leave that post.

Johnson said he plans to nominate Joseph J. Sisco, a career Foreign Service office to succeed Cleveland as assistant secretary.

The President announced he was accepting Finletter's resignation "with the greatest reluctance and regret."

Finletter, 71, has been ambassador and American representative to NATO for nearly 4½ years. He will return to private life.

Cleveland, 47, has been assistant secretary for international organization affairs since 1961. Prior to that he served 13 years in the federal government.

Johnson, in accepting Finletter's resignation, said:

"You are among those outstanding Americans who have contributed greatly to the strength and achievement of this country through their dedication to public service."

Fort Hartsuff Youth Corps Project OKd

The announcement means the Game Commission can proceed with recruitment and selection of enrollees immediately. The contract as signed by the Labor Department will allow the Commission to hire 30 young men between the ages of 16 and 21 in the Valley County area.

The youths will work on restoring historic Fort Hartsuff. In addition to the work experience they will receive counseling, testing, remedial education and job placement under the program.

Fort Hartsuff is located about eight miles north of Ord and a few miles east of Elyria on land owned by Dr. Glen Auble of Ord. The fort was created after the battle of Pebble Creek in 1873. Indians ceased to be a threat after the close of the Sioux War in 1876 and the fort was abandoned in 1881.

All 11 of the original garrison buildings are still standing. Dr. Auble bought the land in 1946 and since has cherished the dream of creating a

$2,400 Contributed For Rebuilding State's 4-H Camp

The $50,000 fund drive to rebuild the state 4-H camp destroyed in the May 5 Nebraska National Forest fire is meeting with success.

W. M. Antes, 4-H leader at the University of Nebraska, said more than $2,400 has been received since June 15. Contributions from organizations and individuals range from $1 to $500.

Antes said the "long haul" is still ahead, but that he is encouraged by offers to help raise money.

The fund drive is keyed to the 3,500 4-H clubs in Nebraska and the sale of goods and services produced by youngsters.

Antes cited the Primrose 4-H club as an example of the drive's backing. He said it is attempting to raise money to reconstruct the camp while also helping the Primrose community get back on its feet from the May tornado damage.

Going To Extremes

By WILLIAM O. DOBLER

When you take a look at the natural environment in which we live, you wonder sometimes if man has just unconsciously adapted to some of its characteristics. On another page of this morning's paper is a story about drought conditions in the United States. It follows a story yesterday in regard to water shortages in various parts of the world.

Too Wet And Too Dry

Yet, we read at the same time of flood conditions in some parts of the land. The State of Nebraska, for instance, has isolated pockets of drought amid areas of plenty. Parts of the Panhandle have been subjected this year to both drought and floods. Lincoln has certainly received more than its share of moisture in recent weeks. And yet, there are places in the world such as Australia where it hasn't rained for a year. The extremes of nature have been a problem to man for all of his existence and will continue to plague us for many years into the future.

The extremes of nature, however, do stimulate man with their challenge and cause him to attempt to live prudently. In sometimes being extreme ourselves, perhaps we make the same kind of gain in our everyday affairs.

Appearing this week before a Senate committee hearing testimony for and against the proposed regulation of sales of firearms, a Nebraska conservationist, Frank Foote of the State Game Commission, said that undue control of firearms would be a mistake. It would inhibit the ability of lawabiding citizens to protect themselves, he said, and contribute nothing to the control of crime.

With the statement by Mr. Foote, we have no argument, at all, except that its relevancy might be questioned. The Nebraska conservationist seems to be talking about extreme controls over firearms and this is not what is proposed. No one advocates that we have laws which prohibit citizens from having any guns whatsoever. No one wants to completely disarm the population. The current controls question centers on the sale of guns by mail-order houses. The proposal now before the Senate would completely eliminate mail-order sales and with this we cannot agree. But it is just as much in error to oppose all controls as it is to propose too stringent controls.

It is hoped that the extremists on both sides will balance each other off and we will end up with a program that is acceptable to the great majority of people and a constructive influence upon the nation. Mail-order business can at least be made a matter of record, both with the mail-order house and in the local community from which the order comes. This would not prohibit buying guns by mail-order but would, in essence, constitute registration of all mail-order guns. There are some who object to this, too, which is their right, but such objections are generally based on fears that appear to be farfetched in view of the times in which we live.

A question of extremes might be involved, too, in the charges of immorality that surround the activities of former Senate aide Bobby Baker. The Baker investigation involved Mrs. Ellen Rometsch of Germany who was described in a Justice Department report as a call girl.

The department did not release its entire file on Mrs. Rometsch because it "would serve to destroy the reputation of several individuals on the basis of allegations which may be false or which are wholly unrelated to the subject matter of the committee's inquiry."

Protection Of Innocent

A minority report by Republican Rules Committee members complained that the Democratic majority had refused to investigate deeply enough allegations about party girls. The reader can take his choice of which way he wants to look at the situation. The Justice Department, however, has sought to protect the names of people who might be unfairly attacked and against whom there is no substantial proof of wrong-doing. That this action might be beneficial to certain Democrats is not of too much importance.

What is important is that the name and character of no one be subjected to unfair attack and unproven charges, be he Demcrat or Republican. The kind of name-calling and character assassination that would be involved with release of the Rometsch report could constitute a serious injustice. We have courts of law established in this land to avoid just that sort of thing, to protect the innocent against unfounded charges that are highly damaging regardless of their truth.

TW3 Off The Air

TW3, the television program designed to introduce satire on public affairs and leadership, couldn't convince the dons of television of its worth. It will not be on the air next year.

Similarly its British prototype which began in such a glow of popularity, is moribund.

The American version was a lively production aided greatly by being presented in color. The increasing number of Americans who are buying color sets know something. They know that they will look at color even if it is a commercial, in preference to anything in black and white. This should insure a substantial rating to any show in color without regard to quality. This makes it curious that TW3 could not survive the ratings.

Perhaps the television industry feared controversy and therefore considered TW3 questionable. Perhaps it finds more comfort in that never-never land soap opera that appears in color every Sunday night under the title of "Bonanza." That one is really a glorification of the early day land baron who in actual life was not an angel, at all, nor even a good father image, but rather a greedy fellow who trampled on human and property rights, made his own law in his own behalf and strenuously resisted all forms of law and order not cut to his liking.

"Bonanza," we understand, is dependable fare for more than 300 million viewers per week in 30 countries and it makes a lot of money.

TW3 was pretty good. It could have been better. But it came much closer to being real and sophisticated entertainment than any of its survivors.

But it raised a hard question whether America or television can any longer live with any sort of criticism. Has satire become un-American, something one must conduct only with himself in a whisper?

Municipal Role In Power

Perhaps with some cause but perhaps, too, without full appreciation of all the circumstances, some members of Lincoln's state legislative delegation have expressed fears of municipal electric power control at the wholesale level. The fear has accompanied legislation aimed at consolidation of the three major wholesale distributors in Nebraska.

The Lincoln group wants assurance that the consolidated wholesale agency cannot continue indefinitely in the retail business and thereby deny cities and towns the right to own and operate their own systems. There is some evidence that Consumers Public Power District, one of the wholesalers, has in the past been reluctant to surrender its municipal operations.

On the other hand, it has not been a one-sided issue. Municipalities, Lincoln included, have tried to obtain their systems earlier than was originally anticipated and without a public vote. One thing Consumers had working for them was the suspicion that many citizens preferred a Consumers to a municipal operation.

Why? Because Consumers was known to have equitable rates, low rates and good service. Many people feared that the city, in the case of Lincoln, would give preferred rates to industry, would be less efficient and more costly and give poorer service. Not all such fears are entirely unfounded when you look at the utility operations of the city over the years.

The question is no longer of great pertinence except that the record should be kept straight. Also, it is a history that should not be forgotten by local public officials as they now assume the electric power controls they have long sought. They have not gotten this control by public mandate but by legislative action and should be keenly aware of the extra responsibility this places upon them.

State Aid To Education

State Senator Jerome Warner of Waverly is husbanding through the Legislature a state-aid-to-education plan he admits has little chance of passage. But he believes in the program and in the theory that continued exposure to it on the part of the public is an educational process in itself that will eventually get the job done.

He is probably correct in his approach. Such a program is one of many considerations. Educational equality is the big argument in its favor. The concept of this nation has been that every child is entitled to equal educational opportunity. Obviously, this cannot be done in its entirety when schools are supported locally. There is too great a difference among localities as to their ability to finance an educational system.

Thus, those with a good tax base and substantial wealth will have the best school systems and those with less wealth, not quite so good a system. Generally, population will be a big factor with more people, providing a larger tax base with which to work as well as a greater demand.

But some of Nebraska's educational problems are not going to be cured with state aid. Such is the case with problems that stem from school districts that are too small. Such is the case with school districts where local responsibility is not what it should be and the willingness to pay for good schools does not exist.

How much sentiment in favor of state aid to education represents an escape from local responsibility? Where do we depart from the point of wisdom in giving the state a financial responsibility it will find difficult to bear and detract, possibly, from the fulfillment of needs in other areas? State aid has its virtues, but like federal aid, it isn't something for nothing.

Bread Cost Profit Bypasses Farmer

WASHINGTON — A lobbying battle of great interest to housewives is now being waged over the future price of bread. It will also affect over a million farmers.

About 50 big baking companies, plus two baking unions, have retained as their lobbyist Maurice Rosenblatt, mainspring of the Committee for an Effective Congress, who has raised thousands of dollars to elect new congressmen. He has helped finance some of the most crusading liberals in Congress. Naturally they feel under obligation to him.

However, Rosenblatt is now working to defeat the Johnson administration's farm bill as a registered lobbyist.

At issue is Rosenblatt's and the big baking companies' claim that the new farm bill will cost the housewife two cents a loaf more for bread. And some congressmen are raising their eyebrows at the political repercussions if they vote to decrease the price of diamonds and the cost of country club dues by removing excise taxes, then turn around and increase the price of bread.

Agricultural officials, however, deny that the farm bill will increase the price of bread more than 7/10 of one cent and claim this can and should be absorbed by the millers and bakers.

The farmer, argues the Department of Agriculture, has been getting it in the neck from the middlemen, in this case the bakers and millers, for years.

In the past 15 to 18 years, the cost of flour on the farm has not increased. Bakers can still buy wheat on the farm for the same price today as they paid in the late 1940's. But over the same period, the cost of a loaf of bread to the housewife has about doubled. It's gone up from 13.5 cents to 21 to 31 cents.

Meanwhile the cost of farm labor has gone up at least 50 per cent while the cost of tractors, other farm machinery has almost doubled.

Accordingly, Secretary of Agriculture Orville Freeman has argued that it's time to loosen up their take and pass a part of their profit on to the farmer. Instead, the big bakers' lobby, headed by Roosenblat wants to pass not merely 7/10 of one cent on to the housewife, but more than double that amount —namely, two cents, on the cost of a loaf of bread.

The new farm bill would give farmers a price of 100 per cent of parity on domestic wheat, through a certificate plan whereby part of the support price would be paid by the millers and wheat users. Hence the howl by the millers and their retention of Lobbyist Rosenblatt.

The bill is geared to help the small family farms, most of which raise about 15 acres of wheat as a small cash crop. If the farm bill fails, more and more family farms will go to the wall and wheat raising will be concentrated in the hands of a few thousand factory-type farms.

Democrats Share Worry Over GOP

WASHINGTON — Republicans as a national party are still not willing to admit what happened to them in the past eight years. In a two-day meeting here, the fundamental reasons for their national committee talked of symptoms and of techniques but at no point dwelt on the feeble minority position in the country as it exists today.

The single ray of realism emanated from National Chairman Ray Bliss. Bliss said he did not expect an automatic increase of party strength in the elections next year.

In their secret sessions, where presumably they were free to fight over fundamental differences in philosophy and how to play for the future, proposals for buying computers and a headquarters building were discussed. These are steps normally taken by going concerns which are financially secure.

As matters stand, the only real argument Republicans can put forward for their continued existence is that a democracy can only flourish in the presence of a strong two-party system. The argument is valid, but Republicans have now to prove that theirs is a reasonably unified, realistic opposition to the Democratic majority.

As a party, Republicans have no majority leadership and no controlling philosophy. Moderates and conservatives alike admitted this. They are still quarreling over the way the party should go, and splinter groups, most of them conservative, are sapping the national sources of financial strength.

For the first time bitter comment about Barry Goldwater was freely expressed. Men who were unwilling to fight him in 1964 are taking the position that he has had his chance and that his Free Society Association is the product of a bad loser who is now willing to endanger the party.

Matters are reaching the point in the opposition where Democrats are sharing the worry. In the absence of a strong minority more or less united behind a party philosophy, history suggests that the top-heavy majority will split into factions dominated by prima donnas who trouble the President and confuse the public.

It does not now seem that President Johnson has lost control of his party. His strong and successful leadership on the domestic front is indisputable, but there is no question that critics of his foreign policy are mainly Democrats.

This would be true if the late President Kennedy had had no brothers. The President is not taking the line of recent Democratic presidents in foreign policy, as the Republican applause for his nationalistic ways proves. So far a kind of rough balance exists on the majority side in Johnson's favor, but it is far from secure.

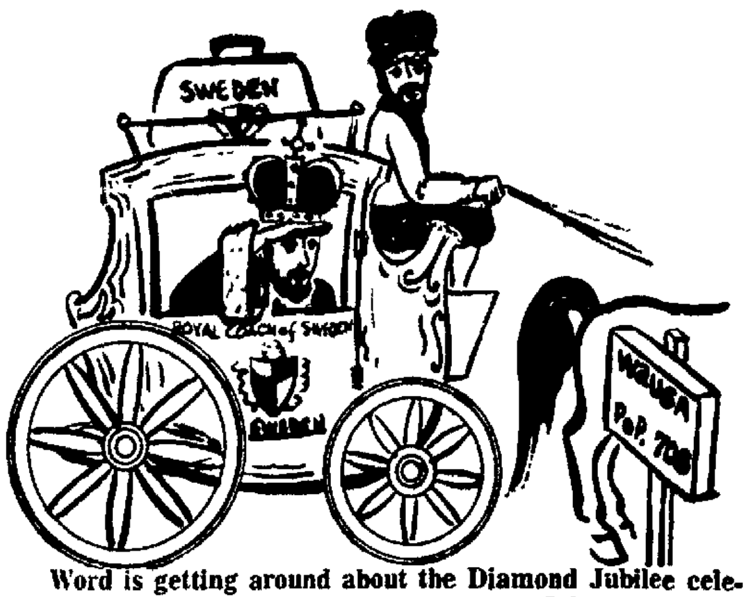
Coffee-Drinking Serious Matter

By MONA B. PARKER



Word is getting around about the Diamond Jubilee celebration that Wausa is going to stage, come July 23 and the two days following. Apparently, also, are the invitations. Many distinguished guests will be present, but among the missing will be the King of Sweden. He has sent his royal regrets, along with special good wishes for success in the observance. The Gazette was inclined to feel just a little sorry for the monarch or any monarch, that the press of burdens of state should dictate missing such fun and festivities.

The Laurel Advocate notes that it isn't often one hears people around that part of the country complaining about rain. "But that's what happened."

With hay down, farmers have become concerned. Another problem is cultivating cornfields "which have begun to look like pastures."

Some residents of Syracuse have recently returned from a trip, and M. E. Wilkins of the Journal-Democrat had it first-hand that "there will be little planting of crops in Minnesota this year.

Record snowfall there caused subsequent flooding this past spring, and this has been supplemented by unusually heavy rains.

Eleanor Seberger, columnist for the Dawson County Herald in Lexington, went a touring with her family into mountain country. Hairpin curves set both the family car and her nerves on edge, and while the youngsters thoroughly enjoyed that part of the drive, she says she finds it hard to describe the chill of terror which turns her spine to jelly at such moments . . .

One thing about displaced prairie people that we have always found, and ourselves included, they are always glad to get back home . . .

"Guess I should be extra glad we live in a valley where the biggest hill for five miles is the bank of our irrigation ditch."

Sounding a good bit like a husband, Ken Newcomb told a story in the Paxton Times that "needed to be told."

"She did a good job, covering even the wide place in the rose bed where we'd removed a row of old iris. A result is that we'll be the only people in Paxton this year with lilliput zinnias spaced at nothing less than four-foot intervals."

If Mrs. Newcomb has a rebuttal, or some interesting little tidbit about the editor's experience with cooking or sewing or such, we will be glad to give her equal space. In fact, we think it "needs to be told."

The coffee-drinkers of Pawnee City are dedicated to their pursuit, and completely undaunted when it comes to procuring their morning and afternoon cups, even if it means brewing it themselves right out in the middle of the sidewalk . . .

And that is precisely what happened recently when both cafes were closed for the day. Things looked bleak and dry for awhile, but the Republican explained that, compared to the local java sippers, mailmen are pikers with their motto about nothing stopping them . . . rain, fire, hail or high water . . .

One toper got his gas camp stove, another brought cups, another procured the fixin's —water, coffee, cream, sugar and cookies—and soon the aroma of the bean was wafting on the morning air to all sections of town. And coffee drinkers began to follow their noses, converging from all four directions at the corner of the local bank.

One spoon was used by all, and reported to be still intact after the impromptu party. Also, it was reported that several early-morning tourists driving by on Highway 50 did a double-take at the sight of what appeared to be a downtown picnic.

Three big potsful of coffee disappeared in a two-hour interval. And while there was no profit to figure, "there were lots of customers."

Soviets Sidestep Disarmament Issue

NEW YORK — Although the subject of disarmament is dull as dishwater and a bore to most people, the sad fact is that the lack of progress among the East-West powers in ridding themselves of some weapons and halting the nuclear arms race is costing governments in the world an average of $400 million per day. That comes close to $150 billion a year. Each of those dollars must come out of the pockets of taxpayers, be that in the United States, Luxembourg or Siberia.

In 20 years since U.N. was given the job of curtailing the hardware of war, the Soviet Union has stood on adamant demands that all the world disarm down to national police forces, leaving every country to accept on trust Moscow's pledge to molest or attack nobody. Western insistence that there must be ironclad guarantees against clandestine arming and surprise attacks were met with furious retorts from Moscow spokesmen that the imperialist powers and their "aggressive war circles" plotted to prevent disarmament because it might ruin their war industries.

The flood of words served up in disarmament commissions and committee in Geneva and at U.N. headquarters has failed to move the Russians from dead center in the past 20 years. Proposals have been offered from every angle by the U.S. and Britain, to no avail. The very latest situation is presented here by an old hand at military tactics, Canada's chief spokesman at U.N. disarmament meetings. He is Ambassador General E. L. M. Burns, in past years in command of U.N. peace-keeping troops in the Palestine Gaza strip.

General Burns sized up the disarmament outlook as follows:

"Both the U.S. and the USSR have proposed, though in different forms, the destruction of certain important means of nuclear weapons delivery to the target. Among the measures the President of the U.S. proposed to the 18-nation disarmament committee in 1964 was that certain types of medium range bombers—specialized for the delivery of nuclear weapons—should be destroyed in equal numbers by the U.S. and the USSR. This proposal has been nicknamed 'The Bomber Bonfire.'

"It would have the advantage that the control over its execution would not have presented any threat to the security of either side. It also would have shown the world that the great powers were serious in their intention to eliminate some of the most dangerous weapons.

"The Soviet Union countered this proposal by insisting that not only certain selected types of bombers would be destroyed—but all bombers. Naturally this is too drastic for the U.S. and for all of us. The U.S. delegate nevertheless said they were ready to continue discussion as to the possibility of the balanced destruction of certain types of nuclear weapons vehicles. It must also be pointed out that the destruction of some bombers or other means of delivering nuclear weapons is not going to be significant if they are to be replaced with other and perhaps more modern and powerful means of delivery."

General Burns obviously had in mind here the delivery on target of nuclear warheads riding on intercontinental missiles. Consequently he pointed to the necessity of extending the "Bomber Bonfire" plan to include a "freeze" or prohibition of these more potent delivery weapons.

The Canadian military expert and diplomat added:

"President Johnson's proposals included such a freeze. The verification required for this could be of a character widespread intrusive inspection, fear of which gave rise to objections on the customary espionage grounds by the Soviet Union.

"This group of three proposals — non-dissemination, destruction of some of the means of nuclear weapons delivery, and a freeze on the production of replacement—if agreed upon and implemented, could make a really significant start on the process of disarmament.

"Then there is the clamor for extending the present nuclear test ban treaty to include the prohibition of underground testing. Here again the difficulty is on verification of compliance. The U.S. position is that while it would be possible in the majority of cases to distinguish an underground test from an earthquake, there is still a significant gap in accurately assessing by scientific and seismological instruments whether an earthquake or nuclear underground explosion has taken place. But the Soviet Union stands on a contrary position, obviously to avoid commitment to impartial inspection teams. The Moscow delegates have consistently refused to demonstrate to our scientists how their seismographic identification system operates to substantiate their claims that margin for error is minimum."

Going To Extremes

By WILLIAM O. DOBLER

When you take a look at the natural environment in which we live, you wonder sometimes if man has just unconsciously adapted to some of its characteristics. On another page of this morning's paper is a story about drought conditions in the United States. It follows a story yesterday in regard to water shortages in various parts of the world.

Too Wet And Too Dry

Yet, we read at the same time of flood conditions in some parts of the land. The State of Nebraska, for instance, has isolated pockets of drought amid areas of plenty. Parts of the Panhandle have been subjected this year to both drought and floods. Lincoln has certainly received more than its share of moisture in recent weeks. And yet, there are places in the world such as Australia where it hasn't rained for a year. The extremes of nature have been a problem to man for all of his existence and will continue to plague us for many years into the future.

The extremes of nature, however, do stimulate man with their challenge and cause him to attempt to live prudently. In sometimes being extreme ourselves, perhaps we make the same kind of gain in our everyday affairs.

Appearing this week before a Senate committee hearing testimony for and against the proposed regulation of sales of firearms, a Nebraska conservationist, Frank Foote of the State Game Commission, said that undue control of firearms would be a mistake. It would inhibit the ability of lawabiding citizens to protect themselves, he said, and contribute nothing to the control of crime.

With the statement by Mr. Foote, we have no argument, at all, except that its relevancy might be questioned. The Nebraska conservationist seems to be talking about extreme controls over firearms and this is not what is proposed. No one advocates that we have laws which prohibit citizens from having any guns whatsoever. No one wants to completely disarm the population. The current controls question centers on the sale of guns by mail-order houses. The proposal now before the Senate would completely eliminate mail-order sales and with this we cannot agree. But it is just as much in error to oppose all controls as it is to propose too stringent controls.

It is hoped that the extremists on both sides will balance each other off and we will end up with a program that is acceptable to the great majority of people and a constructive influence upon the nation. Mail-order business can at least be made a matter of record, both with the mail-order house and in the local community from which the order comes. This would not prohibit buying guns by mail-order but would, in essence, constitute registration of all mail-order guns. There are some who object to this, too, which is their right, but such objections are generally based on fears that appear to be farfetched in view of the times in which we live.

A question of extremes might be involved, too, in the charges of immorality that surround the activities of former Senate aide Bobby Baker. The Baker investigation involved Mrs. Ellen Rometsch of Germany who was described in a Justice Department report as a call girl.

The department did not release its entire file on Mrs. Rometsch because it "would serve to destroy the reputation of several individuals on the basis of allegations which may be false or which are wholly unrelated to the subject matter of the committee's inquiry."

Protection Of Innocent

A minority report by Republican Rules Committee members complained that the Democratic majority had refused to investigate deeply enough allegations about party girls. The reader can take his choice of which way he wants to look at the situation. The Justice Department, however, has sought to protect the names of people who might be unfairly attacked and against whom there is no substantial proof of wrong-doing. That this action might be beneficial to certain Democrats is not of too much importance.

What is important is that the name and character of no one be subjected to unfair attack and unproven charges, be he Demcrat or Republican. The kind of name-calling and character assassination that would be involved with release of the Rometsch report could constitute a serious injustice. We have courts of law established in this land to avoid just that sort of thing, to protect the innocent against unfounded charges that are highly damaging regardless of their truth.

TW3 Off The Air

TW3, the television program designed to introduce satire on public affairs and leadership, couldn't convince the dons of television of its worth. It will not be on the air next year.

Similarly its British prototype which began in such a glow of popularity, is moribund.

The American version was a lively production aided greatly by being presented in color. The increasing number of Americans who are buying color sets know something. They know that they will look at color even if it is a commercial, in preference to anything in black and white. This should insure a substantial rating to any show in color without regard to quality. This makes it curious that TW3 could not survive the ratings.

Perhaps the television industry feared controversy and therefore considered TW3 questionable. Perhaps it finds more comfort in that never-never land soap opera that appears in color every Sunday night under the title of "Bonanza." That one is really a glorification of the early day land baron who in actual life was not an angel, at all, nor even a good father image, but rather a greedy fellow who trampled on human and property rights, made his own law in his own behalf and strenuously resisted all forms of law and order not cut to his liking.

"Bonanza," we understand, is dependable fare for more than 300 million viewers per week in 30 countries and it makes a lot of money.

TW3 was pretty good. It could have been better. But it came much closer to being real and sophisticated entertainment than any of its survivors.

But it raised a hard question whether America or television can any longer live with any sort of criticism. Has satire become un-American, something one must conduct only with himself in a whisper?

Municipal Role In Power

Perhaps with some cause but perhaps, too, without full appreciation of all the circumstances, some members of Lincoln's state legislative delegation have expressed fears of municipal electric power control at the wholesale level. The fear has accompanied legislation aimed at consolidation of the three major wholesale distributors in Nebraska.

The Lincoln group wants assurance that this consolidated wholesale agency cannot continue indefinitely in the retail business and thereby deny cities and towns the right to own and operate their own systems. There is some evidence that Consumers Public Power District, one of the wholesalers, has in the past been reluctant to surrender its municipal operations.

On the other hand, it has not been a one-sided issue. Municipalities, Lincoln included, have tried to obtain their systems earlier than was originally anticipated and without a public vote. One thing Consumers had working for them was the suspicion that many citizens preferred a Consumers to a municipal operation.

Why? Because Consumers was known to have equitable rates, low rates and good service. Many people feared that the city, in the case of Lincoln, would give preferred rates to industry, would be less efficient and more costly and give poorer service. Not all such fears are entirely unfounded when you look at the utility operations of the city over the years.

The question is no longer of great pertinence except that the record should be kept straight. Also, it is a history that should not be forgotten by local public officials as they now assume the electric power controls they have long sought. They have not gotten this control by public mandate but by legislative action and should be keenly aware of the extra responsibility this places upon them.

State Aid To Education

State Senator Jerome Warner of Waverly is husbanding through the Legislature a state-aid-to-education plan he admits has little chance of passage. But he believes in the program and in the theory that continued exposure to it on the part of the public is an educational process in itself that will eventually get the job done.

He is probably correct in his approach. Such a program is one of many considerations. Educational equality is the big argument in its favor. The concept of this nation has been that every child is entitled to equal educational opportunity. Obviously, this cannot be done in its entirety when schools are supported locally. There is too great a difference among localities as to their ability to finance an educational system.

Thus, those with a good tax base and substantial wealth will have the best school systems and those with less wealth, not quite so good a system. Generally, population will be a big factor with more people, providing a larger tax base with which to work as well as a greater demand.

But some of Nebraska's educational problems are not going to be cured with state aid. Such is the case with problems that stem from school districts that are too small. Such is the case with school districts where local responsibility is not what it should be and the willingness to pay for good schools does not exist.

How much sentiment in favor of state aid to education represents an escape from local responsibility? Where do we depart from the point of wisdom in giving the state a financial responsibility it will find difficult to bear and detract, possibly, from the fulfillment of needs in other areas? State aid has its virtues, but like federal aid, it isn't something for nothing.

Bread Cost Profit Bypasses Farmer

WASHINGTON — A lobbying battle of great interest to housewives is now being waged over the future price of bread. It will also affect over a million farmers.

About 50 big baking companies, plus two baking unions, have retained as their lobbyist Maurice Rosenblatt, mainspring of the Committee for an Effective Congress, who has raised thousands of dollars to elect new congressmen. He has helped finance some of the most crusading liberals in Congress. Naturally they feel under obligation to him.

However, Rosenblatt is now working to defeat the Johnson administration's farm bill as a registered lobbyist.

At issue is Rosenblatt's and the big baking companies' claim that the new farm bill will cost the housewife two cents a loaf more for bread. And some congressmen are raising their eyebrows at the political repercussions if they vote to decrease the price of diamonds and the cost of country club dues by removing excise taxes, then turn around and increase the price of bread.

Agricultural officials, however, deny that the farm bill will increase the price of bread more than 7/10 of one cent and claim this can and should be absorbed by the millers and bakers.

The farmer, argues the Department of Agriculture, has been getting it in the neck from the middlemen, in this case the bakers and millers, for years.

In the past 15 to 18 years, the cost of flour on the farm has not increased. Bakers can still buy wheat on the farm for the same price today as they paid in the late 1940's. But over the same period, the cost of a loaf of bread to the housewife has about doubled. It's gone up from 13.5 cents to 21 to 31 cents.

Meanwhile the cost of farm labor has gone up at least 50 per cent while the cost of tractors, other farm machinery has almost doubled.

Accordingly, Secretary of Agriculture Orville Freeman has argued that it's time to loosen up their take and pass a part of their profit on to the farmer. Instead, the big bakers' lobby, headed by Roosenblat wants to pass not merely 7/10 of one cent on to the housewife, but more than double that amount—namely, two cents, on the cost of a loaf of bread.

The new farm bill would give farmers a price of 100 per cent of parity on domestic wheat, through a certificate plan whereby part of the support price would be paid by the millers and wheat users. Hence the howl by the millers and their retention of Lobbyist Rosenblatt.

The bill is geared to help the small family farms, most of which raise about 15 acres of wheat as a small cash crop. If the farm bill fails, more and more family farms will go to the wall and wheat raising will be concentrated in the hands of a few thousand factory-type farms.

Democrats Share Worry Over GOP

WASHINGTON — Republicans as a national party are still not willing to admit what happened to them in the past eight years. In a two-day meeting here, the fundamental reasons for their national committee talked of symptoms and of techniques but at no point dwelt on the feeble minority position in the country as it exists today.

The single ray of realism emanated from National Chairman Ray Bliss. Bliss said he did not expect an automatic increase of party strength in the elections next year.

In their secret sessions, where presumably they were free to fight over fundamental differences in philosophy and how to play for the future, proposals for buying computers and a headquarters building were discussed. These are steps normally taken by going concerns which are financially secure.

As matters stand, the only real argument Republicans can put forward for their continued existence is that a democracy can only flourish in the presence of a strong two-party system. The argument is valid, but Republicans have now to prove that theirs is a reasonably unified, realistic opposition to the Democratic majority.

As a party, Republicans have no majority leadership and no controlling philosophy. Moderates and conservatives alike admitted this. They are still quarreling over the way the party should go, and splinter groups, most of them conservative, are sapping the national sources of financial strength.

For the first time bitter comment about Barry Goldwater was freely expressed. Men who were unwilling to fight him in 1964 are taking the position that he has had his chance and that his Free Society Association is the product of a bad loser who is now willing to endanger the party.

Matters are reaching the point in the opposition where Democrats are sharing the worry. In the absence of a strong minority more or less united behind a party philosophy, history suggests that the top-heavy majority will split into factions dominated by prima donnas who trouble the President and confuse the public.

It does not now seem that President Johnson has lost control of his party. His strong and successful leadership on the domestic front is indisputable, but there is no question that critics of his foreign policy are mainly Democrats.

This would be true if the late President Kennedy had had no brothers. The President is not taking the line of recent Democratic presidents in foreign policy, as the Republican applause for his nationalistic ways proves. So far a kind of rough balance exists on the majority side in Johnson's favor, but it is far from secure.

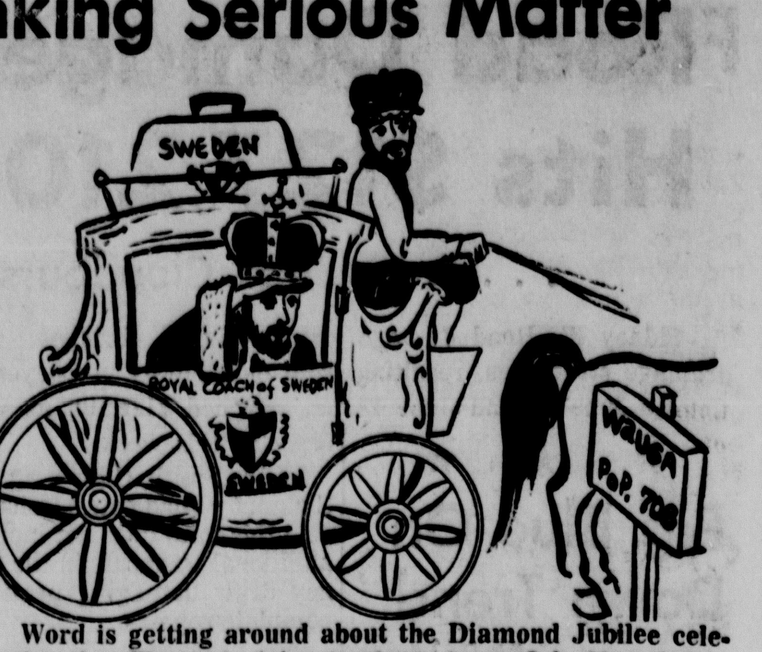
Coffee-Drinking Serious Matter

By MONA B. PARKER



Word is getting around about the Diamond Jubilee celebration that Wausa is going to stage, come July 23 and the two days following. Apparently, also, are the invitations. Many distinguished guests will be present, but among the missing will be the King of Sweden. He has sent his royal regrets, along with special good wishes for success in the observance. The Gazette was inclined to feel just a little sorry for the monarch or any monarch, that the press of burdens of state should dictate missing such fun and festivities.

The Laurel Advocate notes that it isn't often one hears people around that part of the country complaining about rain. "But that's what happened."

With hay down, farmers have become concerned. Another problem is cultivating cornfields "which have begun to look like pastures."

Some residents of Syracuse have recently returned from a trip, and M. E. Wilkins of the Journal-Democrat had it first-hand that "there will be little planting of crops in Minnesota this year.

Record snowfall there caused subsequent flooding this past spring, and this has been supplemented by unusually heavy rains.

Eleanor Seberger, columnist for the Dawson County Herald in Lexington, went a touring with her family into mountain country. Hairpin curves set both the family car and her nerves on edge, and while the youngsters thoroughly enjoyed that part of the drive, she says she finds it hard to describe the chill of terror which turns her spine to jelly at such moments . . .

One thing about displaced prairie people that we have always found, and ourselves included, they are always glad to get back home . . .

"Guess I should be extra glad we live in a valley where the biggest hill for five miles is the bank of our irrigation ditch."

☆ ☆ ☆

Sounding a good bit like a husband, Ken Newcomb told a story in the Paxton Times that "needed to be told."

"She did a good job, covering even the wide place in the rose bed where we'd removed a row of old iris. A result is that we'll be the only people in Paxton this year with lilliput zinnias spaced at nothing less than four-foot intervals."

If Mrs. Newcomb has a rebuttal, or some interesting little tidbit about the editor's experience with cooking or sewing or such, we will be glad to give her equal space. In fact, we think it "needs to be told."

The coffee-drinkers of Pawnee City are dedicated to their pursuit, and completely undaunted when it comes to procuring their morning and afternoon cups, even if it means brewing it themselves right out in the middle of the sidewalk . . .

And that is precisely what happened recently when both cafes were closed for the day. Things looked bleak and dry for awhile, but the Republican explained that, compared to the local java sippers, mailmen are pikers with their motto about nothing stopping them . . . rain, fire, hail or high water . . .

One toper got his gas camp stove, another brought cups, another procured the fixin's—water, coffee, cream, sugar and cookies—and soon the aroma of the bean was wafting on the morning air to all sections of town. And coffee drinkers began to follow their noses, converging from all four directions at the corner of the local bank.

One spoon was used by all, and reported to be still intact after the impromptu party. Also, it was reported that several early-morning tourists driving by on Highway 50 did a double-take at the sight of what appeared to be a downtown picnic.

Three big potsful of coffee disappeared in a two-hour interval. And while there was no profit to figure, "there were lots of customers."

Soviets Sidestep Disarmament Issue

NEW YORK — Although the subject of disarmament is dull as dishwater and a bore to most people, the sad fact is that the lack of progress among the East-West powers in ridding themselves of some weapons and halting the nuclear arms race is costing governments in the world an average of $400 million per day. That comes close to $150 billion a year. Each of those dollars must come out of the pockets of taxpayers, be that in the United States, Luxembourg or Siberia.

In 20 years since U.N. was given the job of curtailing the hardware of war, the Soviet Union has stood on adamant demands that all the world disarm down to national police forces, leaving every country to accept on trust Moscow's pledge to molest or attack nobody. Western insistence that there must be ironclad guarantees against clandestine arming and surprise attacks were met with furious retorts from Moscow spokesmen that the imperialist powers and their "aggressive war circles" plotted to prevent disarmament because it might ruin their war industries.

The flood of words served up in disarmament commissions and committee in Geneva and at U.N. headquarters has failed to move the Russians from dead center in the past 20 years. Proposals have been offered from every angle by the U.S. and Britain, to no avail. The very latest situation is presented here by an old hand at military tactics, Canada's chief spokesman at U.N. disarmament meetings. He is Ambassador General E. L. M. Educator Favors Facing Aggression

"We must meet aggression where it occurs," a New Zealand educator and authority on developing nations in the Pacific, told those attending a World Affairs Preview at the University of Nebraska Thursday afternoon.

Walter B. Harris cited acts of aggression which were not challenged, but later developed into World Wars I and II and the Korean War.

"If we should pull out of Viet Nam, all of Southeast Asia would be lost to communism," he said.

Last weekend he attended the 20th birthday party for the United Nations in San Francisco where he noted "unwarranted sadness."

"The United Nations has actually achieved a great deal in terms of saving lives, helping nations gain independence, enhancing economic development, and increasing educational opportunities," Harris said.

While citing accomplishments of the United Nations, Harris said that the "biggest problem in developing nations in the Pacific and many other areas of the world as well, is the rapid growth of population. We have achieved death control through medicine. Should we also have birth control?

The populaton problem has grown to the point where it overshadows religious, and other considerations and has become a practical, political question," Harris said.

Claim Of Blind Woman OKd

The Legislature Thursday approved a $1,020 claim by Luna M. Hamilton of Omaha, a visually impaired woman who for some years prior to 1964 operated a vending stand at the Omaha City Hall.

The claim was approved by amendment offered by Sen. Eugene Mahoney of Omaha to LB905, the miscellaneous claims bill awaiting final passage in the Unicameral.

The claim grew out of a state contention that Mrs. Hamilton had been overpaid in advance payments on profits from operation of the stand. The state is involved in operation of such enterprises designed to help the blind earn a living.

Mrs. Hamilton had visited with Gov. Frank Morrison about her problem, and also had brought it up at one of the meetings held by Sen. Henry F. Pedersen Jr. of Omaha with constituents in his legislative district.

Sen. Pedersen said the incident demonstrates that the individual citizen does have a voice and representation in the Unicameral.

TWO NAMED BOYS' NATION DELEGATES

Randall Reeves of Omaha and Terry Petrzelka of Prague will attend Boys' Nation July 16-23.

Reeves and Petrzelka were selected by the Nebraska American Legion from among the 396 high school students who attended Cornhusker Boys' State, an annual mock exercise in government, which was held in Lincoln last month.

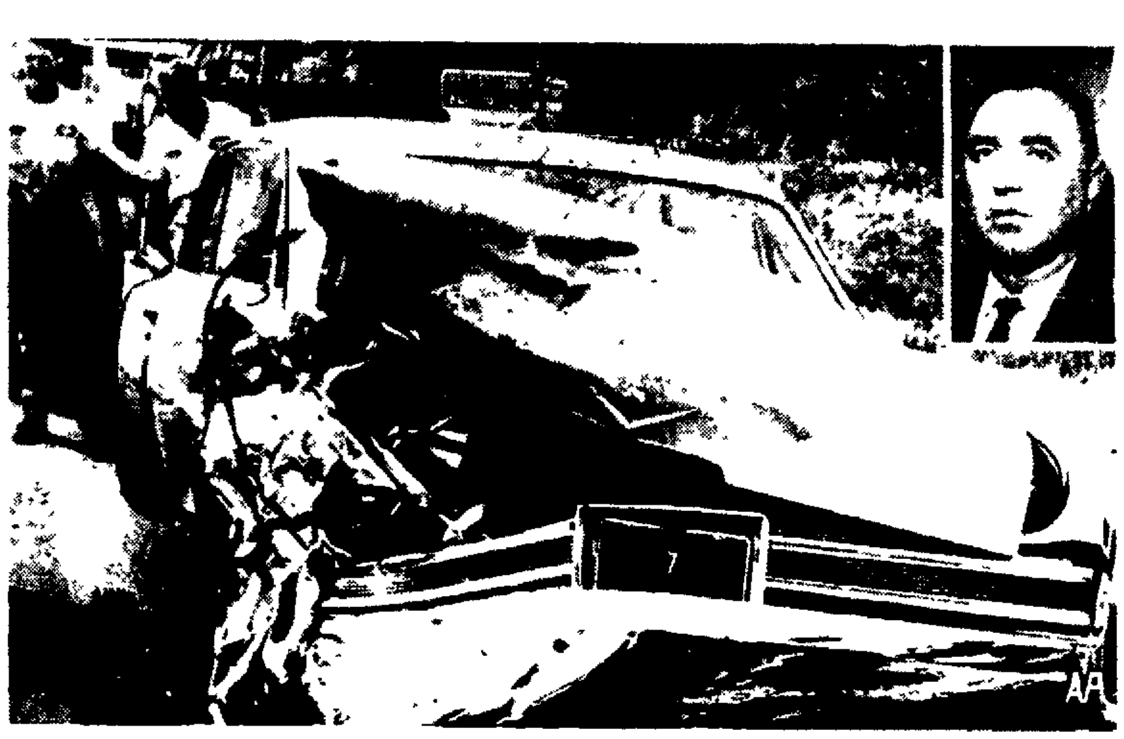
Reeves scored a 90 in the test on government and was elected governor of Cornhusker Boys' State. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold L. Reeves of Omaha. Petrzelka, son of Mr and Mrs. Frank J. Petrzelka Jr. of Prague, was elected lieutenant governor at Boys' State.

Grant To Finance Recreation Study

The Lincoln Foundation has presented a $6,500 grant to the Lincoln Community Council to sponsor a comprehensive recreation study of Lincoln city recreation services.

As a result of the Community Centers Study two years ago, the Lincoln Community Council has felt there needs to be an up-dating of the 1948 City Recreation study conducted by the National Recreation Association (NRA).

Beginning September 14, 1965, the official survey, conducted by the NRA, will begin. Factors which the NRA will include in their comprehensive survey will be the recreation areas and facilities, recreation personnel, budget, program evaluation, managing authority for recreation, school-recreation relationships, and community analysis.



CONGRESSMAN KILLED IN CRASH

U.S. Rep T Ashton Thompson, D-La, was killed Thursday in a three-vehicle wreck on Interstate 85 at Gastonia, N C. Thompson, 45, was outside the car talking with a safety patrolman who had stopped him for allegedly exceeding the speed limit when a tractor-trailer struck him, knocking him over the car. Thompson, a congressman since 1952, was accompanied by his wife, two children and a maid. The party was en route to the family home in Ville Platte, La, for the July 4th weekend. The truck driver, patrolman and Thompson party were injured slightly.

State Taxpayers Taxed Too Much

Nebraskans apparently paid some $1 3 million more in state property taxes than was needed to meet appropriation commitments during the fiscal year which ended Wednesday.

The state treasurer's office reported collections totaling $22,600.927 during the 12-month period.

When the State Board of Equalization a year ago set the present 9.14 mills state levy, it counted on the tax to finance $21,234,554 in expenditures.

The state board had estimated that some $24.7 million would accrue to the general general fund from miscellaneous sources — cigarette taxes, pari mutuel racing taxes and assorted others. An over-estimate here could eat up the surplus Information on revenue from these sources won't be available for another 10 days to two weeks.

The fact the state had a 1963-64 property tax levy of 9 795 mills and several months of revenue from this levy slopped over into the recently ended fiscal year is the basic reason for the ostensible property tax cushion.

Exploding Bottle Injures 2 Boys

Two 11-year-old boys received minor injuries when a capped bottle which had smoking cap sticks in it blew up.

One of the older boys handed the bottle with the firework in it lighted to one of the 11-year-olds and before he could throw the bottle away it exploded.

Historical Society Building Receives Millionth Visitor

The Nebraska State Historical Society building in Lincoln has received its one millionth visitor

The distinction fell to Mrs. Gary Shepherd of Pierce City Mo.

Mrs. Shepherd, her husband and their three children were making their first visit to Lincoln.

"We went to see the Capitol and someone over there referred us here," explained Shepherd.

Historical Society Director Marvin Kivett met the family as they entered the building and presented the family a History of Nebraska, two society publications, a University of Nebraska School of Journalism magazine on Nebraska beauty, and membership in the society.

The society moved its headquarters from the Capitol to present quarters at 15th and R Sts. in September of 1953.

Newly Merged Power Firms Plan Lincoln Headquarters

The merger of the Western Power and Gas Company and the Western Light and Telephone Company Inc., forming the Western Power and Gas Company Inc. was announced here Thursday.

The merger was completed in Chicago

Headquarters and general offices will be in Lincoln, according to Robert Smith, company spokesman here.

Smith said it was not anticipated there will be a great increase in personnel employed in Lincoln.

Western Light and Telephone is a telephone and electrical utility in Kansas in which Lincoln leadership such as Bennett Martin has been prominent in financing

As a result of the merger the company will have assets in excess of $400 million and total annual revenue approaching $120 million.

Educator Favors Facing Aggression

"We must meet aggression where it occurs," a New Zealand educator and authority on developing nations in the Pacific, told those attending a World Affairs Preview at the University of Nebraska Thursday afternoon.

Walter B. Harris cited acts of aggression which were not challenged, but later developed into World Wars I and II and the Korean War.

"If we should pull out of Viet Nam, all of Southeast Asia would be lost to communism," he said.

Last weekend he attended the 20th birthday party for the United Nations in San Francisco where he noted "unwarranted sadness."

"The United Nations has actually achieved a great deal in terms of saving lives, helping nations gain independence, enhancing economic development, and increasing educational opportunities," Harris said.

While citing accomplishments of the United Nations, Harris said that the "biggest problem in developing nations in the Pacific and many other areas of the world as well, is the rapid growth of population. We have achieved death control through medicine. Should we also have birth control?

The populaton problem has grown to the point where it overshadows religious, and other considerations and has become a practical, political question," Harris said.

Claim Of Blind Woman OKd

The Legislature Thursday approved a $1,020 claim by Luna M. Hamilton of Omaha, a visually impaired woman who for some years prior to 1964 operated a vending stand at the Omaha City Hall.

The claim was approved by amendment offered by Sen. Eugene Mahoney of Omaha to LB905, the miscellaneous claims bill awaiting final passage in the Unicameral.

The claim grew out of a state contention that Mrs. Hamilton had been overpaid in advance payments on profits from operation of the stand. The state is involved in operation of such enterprises designed to help the blind earn a living.

Mrs. Hamilton had visited with Gov. Frank Morrison about her problem, and also had brought it up at one of the meetings held by Sen. Henry F. Pedersen Jr. of Omaha with constituents in his legislative district.

Sen. Pedersen said the incident demonstrates that the individual citizen does have a voice and representation in the Unicameral.

TWO NAMED BOYS' NATION DELEGATES

Randall Reeves of Omaha and Terry Petrzelka of Prague will attend Boys' Nation July 16-23.

Reeves and Petrzelka were selected by the Nebraska American Legion from among the 396 high school students who attended Cornhusker Boys' State, an annual mock exercise in government, which was held in Lincoln last month.

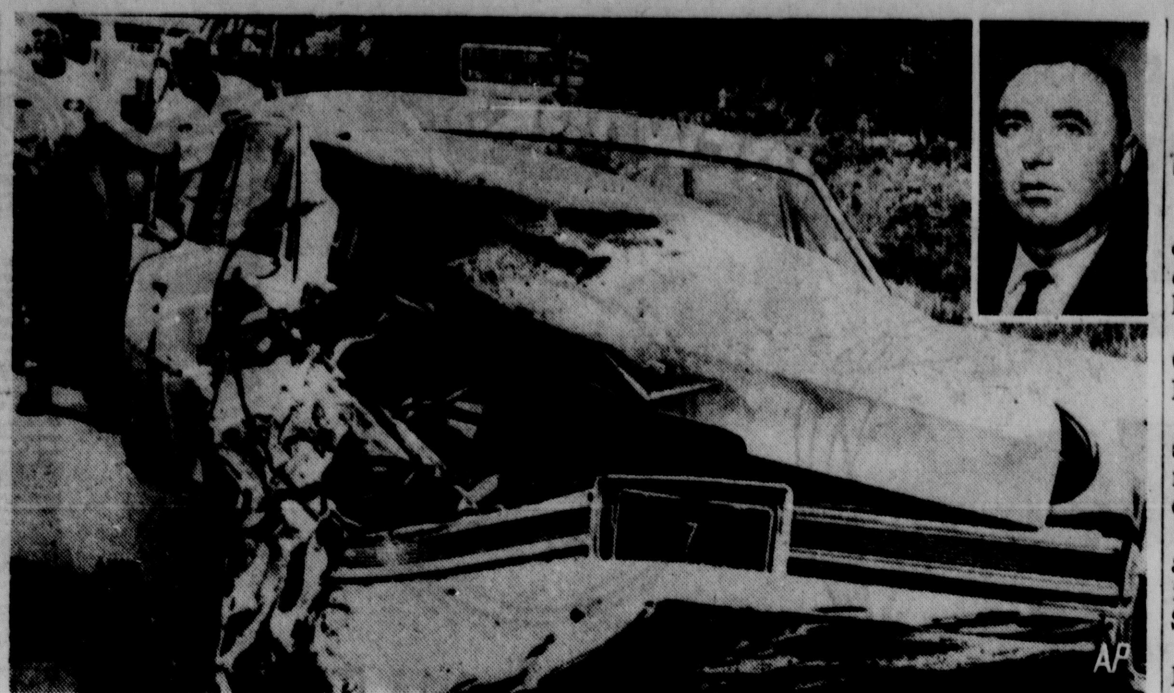
Reeves scored a 90 in the test on government and was elected governor of Cornhusker Boys' State. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold L. Reeves of Omaha. Petrzelka, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank J. Petrzelka Jr. of Prague, was elected lieutenant governor at Boys' State.

Grant To Finance Recreation Study

The Lincoln Foundation has presented a $6,500 grant to the Lincoln Community Council to sponsor a comprehensive recreation study of Lincoln city recreation services.

As a result of the Community Centers Study two years ago, the Lincoln Community Council has felt there needs to be an up-dating of the 1948 City Recreation study conducted by the National Recreation Association (NRA).

Beginning September 14, 1965, the official survey, conducted by the NRA, will begin. Factors which the NRA will include in their comprehensive survey will be the recreation areas and facilities, recreation personnel, budget, program evaluation, managing authority for recreation, school-recreation relationships, and community analysis.



CONGRESSMAN KILLED IN CRASH

U.S. Rep. T. Ashton Thompson, D-La., was killed Thursday in a three-vehicle wreck on Interstate 85 at Gastonia, N.C. Thompson, 45, was outside the car talking with a safety patrolman who had stopped him for allegedly exceeding the speed limit when a tractor-trailer struck him, knocking him over the car. Thompson, a congressman since 1952, was accompanied by his wife, two children and a maid. The party was en route to the family home in Ville Platte, La., for the July 4th weekend. The truck driver, patrolman and Thompson party were injured slightly.

State Taxpayers Taxed Too Much

Nebraskans apparently paid some $1.3 million more in state property taxes than was needed to meet appropriation commitments during the fiscal year which ended Wednesday.

The state treasurer's office reported collections totaling $22,600,927 during the 12-month period.

When the State Board of Equalization a year ago set the present 9.14 mills state levy, it counted on the tax to finance $21,234,554 in expenditures.

The state board had estimated that some $24.7 million would accrue to the general general fund from miscellaneous sources — cigarette taxes, pari mutuel racing taxes and assorted others. An over-estimate here could eat up the surplus. Information on revenue from these sources won't be available for another 10 days to two weeks.

The fact the state had a 1963-64 property tax levy of 9.795 mills and several months of revenue from this levy slopped over into the recently ended fiscal year is the basic reason for the ostensible property tax cushion.

Exploding Bottle Injures 2 Boys

Two 11-year-old boys received minor injuries when a capped bottle which had smoking cap sticks in it blew up.

Historical Society Building Receives Millionth Visitor

The distinction fell to Mrs. Gary Shepherd of Pierce City Mo.

Mrs. Shepherd, her husband and their three children were making their first visit to Lincoln.

"We went to see the Capitol and someone over there referred us here," explained Shepherd.

Historical Society Director Marvin Kivett met the family as they entered the building and presented the family a History of Nebraska, two society publications, a University of Nebraska School of Journalism magazine on Nebraska beauty, and membership in the society.

The society moved its headquarters from the Capitol to present quarters at 15th and R Sts. in September of 1953.

Newly Merged Power Firms Plan Lincoln Headquarters

The merger of the Western Power and Gas Company and the Western Light and Telephone Company Inc., forming the Western Power and Gas Company Inc. was announced here Thursday.

The merger was completed in Chicago.

Headquarters and general offices will be in Lincoln, according to Robert Smith, company spokesman here.

Smith said it was not anticipated there will be a great increase in personnel employed in Lincoln.

Western Light and Telephone is a telephone and electrical utility in Kansas in which Lincoln leadership such as Bennett Martin has been prominent in financing.

As a result of the merger the company will have assets in excess of $400 million and total annual revenue approaching $120 million.

50 High Schools File Claims For Federal Voc-Ed Funds

Fifty Nebraska high schools filed claims for federal vocational education matching funds before the June 30 deadline, a State Education Department official said Thursday.

However, Glenn Strain, vocational-technical coordinator said, it would be 10 days before it is known how much of the available $837,977 was finally dispursed.

Largest chunk was a $413,388.97 grant to the Lincoln Public Schools for the area vocational education facility in the new $5 million East High School put under construction this week.

The 50-50 grant was for 48,209 square feet of vocational training area plus 4,960 square feet of mechanical plant service area.

After 50% reimbursement on equipment claims of 50 schools is made, Strain said remaining funds will be used wherever possible in increased reimbursement (up to 50%) on existing vocational programs.

The federal allocation was received last month, and state officials made every effort to obtain maximum use of the funds by the fiscal deadline last Wednesday.

Nebraska expects to receive $1,255,000 under the act during this fiscal year, and another $1,592,000 for each fiscal year after that.

Strain said the funds provided by the act should spur development of trade courses in the state's high schools once the program gets into high gear.

Gage County Bankers Hit Bank Charter Application

Three Gage County banks Thursday protested an application by W. W. Cook, Sr., for a state banking charter for a new Beatrice bank.

The hearing was held before State Banking Director Henry Ley, who will rule on the application in about five weeks.

Cook said another Beatrice bank was needed because of expanding population in Beatrice, recent industrial developments in the county and the proposed Beatrice college.

Harold Deitemeyer, president of the First National Bank, told Ley that granting the application would give Cook control over 50% of deposits, in violation of the Sherman Anti-Trust Act.

Deitemeyer said Cook already has controlling interests in the Pickrell Bank and the Beatrice National Bank.

The application was also protested by I. W. Hedge, president of the Filley Bank, and by the Blue Springs State Bank.

34 Communities Seek Sewage Aid

The State Health Department said Thursday 34 Nebraska communities have applied for $1,751,319 in federal funds for aid in building sewage treatment facilities.

Thursday was the deadline for submitting applications.

The State Water Pollution Control Council will apportion Nebraska's federal funds after Congress makes its allocations to the states later this month or in August. Last fiscal year's allocation was $1,280,000 for the state.

Viet Policy Supported

Governor Urges State Conference On Federal Act

A state-wide conference to acquaint Nebraskans with the provisions of the federal Economic Opportunity Act was proposed Thursday by Gov. Frank Morrison.

Morrison said the conference, tentatively set for Lincoln, will include professionals and citizens from all over the state.

While he has been "pleased with state activity under the act," Morrison said, "I feel this activity could be increased and accelerated through greater public understanding."

Ron Jensen, State Technical Assistance Agency director, has been designed to work out conference details with conference chairman and date to be announced later.

Morrison said the act "with cooperative effort of public officials and private citizens from both urban and rural areas can help solve many of our state problems—not just those of low-income families."

First National Earns More During First Half

The First National Bank and Trust Company reports net earnings for the first six months of 1965, including the Building Corporation, of $531,000. This compares with first six months earnings for 1964 of $483,000.

Finigan Reveals Interstate Permit Refunds Ruling

State Agriculture Director Pearle Finigan announced Thursday an attorney general's ruling regarding cash refunds for permit holders under the Interstate program.

Finigan was advised persons entitled to refunds during the 1963-65 biennium, although there was no appropriation for this period, may receive refunds if the claims are presented to the state auditor's office within two years after such claims have been accrued.

Since the motor fuel tax alternate program has been in operation less than two years, Finigan said, the two-year limitation should be sufficient to cover most operators entitled to refund if they are prompt in presenting them after the new appropriation.

Claimants would be well advised to present their claims as soon as possible after the appropriation is passed, he said.

FOUR STATE COLLEGES SET CLASS MARKS

Dr. Freeman Decker, Nebraska Normal Board coordinator, reported Thursday that the four state colleges recorded record highs during the last school year in the number of hours carried by students.

A tabulation released by Decker showed the number of hours increased 14.93% over the previous school year. The total for 1964-65 was 168,347 hours.

The colleges' enrollment increases were 15% over the 1963-64 school year.

Two Killed Bills Filed, Laid Over By Legislature

Motions to revive two bills killed in the Education Committee were filed and laid over on the Legislative floor Thursday.

Sen. Richard Marvel of Hastings moved to revive his LB452, a school district reorganization measure providing for the formation of federations of school districts.

Waverly Sen. Jerome Warner moved to revive his LB484, a bill providing that non-resident free high school tuition rates be based on the actual cost of educating pupils.

Hastings Hospital Re-Evaluation Is Supported

State Institutions Director George Morris Thursday said he hopes the Hastings State Hospital will be re-visited by the joint commission on accreditation of hospitals by the end of the year.

The Hastings State Hospital lost its accreditation Aug. 11, 1964.

Morris said the Hastings State Hospital has requested that the commission re-evaluate the hospital.

The institutions director said the basis of the 18 complaints listed by the commission in 1964 have been remedied.

All the foreign doctors at the hospital have now passed the Educational Council for Foreign Medical Graduates test, Morris said.

Recruiting efforts are under way for additional qualified staff and some individuals have indicated they will come to Hastings, he said.

"The admission rate at Hastings has been reduced to the point where doctors will be able to submit required material for medical records which constituted a number of points for which the hospital lost accreditation," Morris said.

Additionally, a remodeling program has been financed by the legislature which will bring the buildings up to adequate standards.

He said funds were appropriated for the renovation of six Hastings State Hospital buildings in the 1965-67 biennium.

50 High Schools File Claims For Federal Voc-Ed Funds

Fifty Nebraska high schools filed claims for federal vocational education matching funds before the June 30 deadline, a State Education Department official said Thursday.

However, Glenn Strain, vocational-technical coordinator said, it would be 10 days before it is known how much of the available $837,977 was finally dispursed.

Largest chunk was a $413,388.97 grant to the Lincoln Public Schools for the area vocational education facility in the new $5 million East High School put under construction this week.

• The 50-50 grant was for 48,209 square feet of vocational training area plus 4,960 square feet of mechanical plant service area.

After 50% reimbursement on equipment claims of 50 schools is made, Strain said remaining funds will be used wherever possible in increased reimbursement (up to 50%) on existing vocational programs.

The federal allocation was received last month, and state officials made every effort to obtain maximum use of the funds by the fiscal deadline last Wednesday.

Nebraska expects to receive $1,255,000 under the act during this fiscal year, and another $1,592,000 for each fiscal year after that.

Strain said the funds provided by the act should spur development of trade courses in the state's high schools once the program gets into high gear.

Gage County Bankers Hit Bank Charter Application

Three Gage County banks Thursday protested an application by W. W. Cook, Sr., for a state banking charter for a new Beatrice bank.

The hearing was held before State Banking Director Henry Ley, who will rule on the application in about five weeks.

Cook said another Beatrice bank was needed because of expanding population in Beatrice, recent industrial developments in the county and the proposed Beatrice college.

Harold Deitemeyer, president of the First National Bank, told Ley that granting the application would give Cook control over 50% of deposits, in violation of the Sherman Anti-Trust Act.

Deitemeyer said Cook already has controlling interests in the Pickrell Bank and the Beatrice National Bank.

The application was also protested by I. W. Hedge, president of the Filley Bank, and by the Blue Springs State Bank.

Governor Urges State Conference On Federal Act

A state-wide conference to acquaint Nebraskans with the provisions of the federal Economic Opportunity Act was proposed Thursday by Gov. Frank Morrison.

Morrison said the conference, tentatively set for Lincoln, will include professionals and citizens from all over the state.

While he has been "pleased with state activity under the act," Morrison said, "I feel this activity could be increased and accelerated through greater public understanding."

Ron Jensen, State Technical Assistance Agency director, has been designed to work out conference details with conference chairman and date to be announced later.

Morrison said the act "with cooperative effort of public officials and private citizens from both urban and rural areas can help solve many of our state problems—not just those of low-income families."

34 Communities Seek Sewage Aid

The State Health Department said Thursday 34 Nebraska communities have applied for $1,751,319 in federal funds for aid in building sewage treatment facilities.

Thursday was the deadline for submitting applications.

The State Water Pollution Control Council will apportion Nebraska's federal funds after Congress makes its allocations to the states later this month or in August. Last fiscal year's allocation was $1,280,000 for the state.

Viet Policy Supported

First National Earns More During First Half

The First National Bank and Trust Company reports net earnings for the first six months of 1965, including the Building Corporation, of $531,000. This compares with first six months earnings for 1964 of $483,000.

Finigan Reveals Interstate Permit Refunds Ruling

State Agriculture Director Pearle Finigan announced Thursday an attorney general's ruling regarding cash refunds for permit holders under the Interstate program.

Finigan was advised persons entitled to refunds during the 1963-65 biennium, although there was no appropriation for this period, may receive refunds if the claims are presented to the state auditor's office within two years after such claims have been accrued.

Since the motor fuel tax alternate program has been in operation less than two years, Finigan said, the two-year limitation should be sufficient to cover most operators entitled to refund if they are prompt in presenting them after the new appropriation.

Claimants would be well advised to present their claims as soon as possible after the appropriation is passed, he said.

FOUR STATE COLLEGES SET CLASS MARKS

Dr. Freeman Decker, Nebraska Normal Board coordinator, reported Thursday that the four state colleges recorded record highs during the last school year in the number of hours carried by students.

A tabulation released by Decker showed the number of hours increased 14.93% over the previous school year. The total for 1964-65 was 168,347 hours.

The colleges' enrollment increases were 15% over the 1963-64 school year.

Two Killed Bills Filed, Laid Over By Legislature

Motions to revive two bills killed in the Education Committee were filed and laid over on the Legislative floor Thursday.

Sen. Richard Marvel of Hastings moved to revive his LB452, a school district reorganization measure providing for the formation of federations of school districts.

Waverly Sen. Jerome Warner moved to revive his LB484, a bill providing that non-resident free high school tuition rates be based on the actual cost of educating pupils.

Hastings Hospital Re-Evaluation Is Supported

State Institutions Director George Morris Thursday said he hopes the Hastings State Hospital will be re-visited by the joint commission on accreditation of hospitals by the end of the year.

The Hastings State Hospital lost its accreditation Aug. 11, 1964.

Morris said the Hastings State Hospital has requested that the commission re-evaluate the hospital.

The institutions director said the basis of the 18 complaints listed by the commission in 1964 have been remedied.

All the foreign doctors at the hospital have now passed the Educational Council for Foreign Medical Graduates test, Morris said.

Recruiting efforts are under way for additional qualified staff and some individuals have indicated they will come to Hastings, he said.

"The admission rate at Hastings has been reduced to the point where doctors will be able to submit required material for medical records which constituted a number of points for which the hospital lost accreditation," Morris said.

Additionally, a remodeling program has been financed by the legislature which will bring the buildings up to adequate standards.

He said funds were appropriated for the renovation of six Hastings State Hospital buildings in the 1965-67 biennium.

Proud Is Sole Supporter Of Resolution Criticizing Papers

By DON WALTON
Star Staff Writer

Only Sen. Richard Proud of Omaha Thursday voted for his legislative resolution criticizing Nebraska's metropolitan daily newspapers and reminding them of their obligation to tell the truth.

Vote on the resolution, No. 65, was 1-2, with Sens. Terry Carpenter of Scottsbluff and Frank Nelson of O'Neill dissenting.

All other senators ignored the resolution by declining to vote on it.

Nelson's vote broke a 1-1 tie which developed when only two lights were ignited on the darkened voting board.

Earlier, Carpenter won voice vote approval for an amendment to the resolution providing that "those who vote for the resolution request that their names be stricken from all news media so they will not be taken advantage of."

Terrific Power

Proud said that, by voting against his proposal, senators "will only demonstrate the terrific power of the press."

The press and the University of Nebraska are Nebraska's two sacred cows which "you must never criticize." Proud declared.

The resolution suggested that, in recent months, the power of large metropolitan dailies "has been sometimes used in an indiscriminate and irresponsible manner."

It proposed that the Legislature remind news media "that with freedom goes responsibility. and that the most certain way to lose that freedom is to use it flagrantly and without regard to the one fundamental and basic tenet which should, in a free society, guide us all.

"That basic tenet was, is and ever will be — the truth."

Slight Slap

Proud said enactment of the resolution would be "a slight slap on the fingers to some of the press."

Large daily newspapers have been guilty of "distortion of fact with some regularity in the past few months," he said.

Proud specifically cited The Lincoln Star and the Omaha World-Herald, the former for an editorial which criticized legislative action killing an implied consent bill, and the latter for allegedly criticizing legislative spending without regard to needs.

Objectivity on the state income tax issue was "cast to the winds" by one newspaper, he said.

Proud suggested that editors of both Lincoln newspapers and the World-Herald "get their feet wet" and come to the Capitol and visit with senators.

Instead of "tagging us as spenders," those who do so should "come down here and see the needs," he suggested.

Not From Tower

Let them criticize with a knowledge of the facts, "not from your ivory tower," Proud said.

Sen. Sam Klaver of Omaha suggested that Proud "will have to get toughened up a little more" and accept criticism.

Newspaper reporting of the legislative session has been "as close to perfect as humanly possible," Klaver said. Proud said "over-all reporting" has been factual.

Sen. Cecil Craft of North Platte said certain elements of the press are attempting to "discredit" governmental bodies throughout the nation.

But, "to attempt to fight a newspaper is folly," he declared. "You talk to 50 people, and it talks to 50,000."

College Aid Bill Revival Is Rejected

An attempt to revive a bill calling for state financial aid to junior colleges and the University of Omaha failed in the Legislature Thursday.

Lincoln Sen. John E. Knight's request that lawmakers reverse their earlier killing of the bill failed on a 22-22 vote, with 25 affirmative votes needed to pump new life into the measure.

The bill, LB785, introduced by Scottsbluff Sen. Terry Carpenter and nine others, would have allowed $150 in state aid per student each year.

Junior Colleges at Fairbury, Norfolk, McCook and Scottsbluff, and subsequent junior colleges like the one to open this fall at North Platte, would have been eligible. The University of Omaha would have received the state aid for its freshman and sophomore classes.

The bill was orginally killed on a 23-21 vote in May when it appeared on general file, its first floor stop.

"This is more than just a local problem," said Sen. Knight in support of his revival motion. "The state must live up to its obligations."

He promised to offer amendments cutting the size of the state-aid program in half — to $37.50 per student per semester — if lawmakers would revive the measure.

Vote on the motion to reconsider:

BRIDE

at evening wedding

At an 8:30 o'clock ceremony, solemnized on Wednesday evening, June 30, the marriage of Miss Paula Warner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kermit E. Warner of Columbus, to Lt. James C. Seacrest, took place at the home of Lt. Seacrest's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph W. Seacrest. Dr. Alan Pickering, director of the United Campus Christian Fellowship at the University of Nebraska, read the lines of the service in the presence of only the immediate members of the families. The wedding music was played by Ernest Bedell, organist.

Mrs. Joseph R. Seacrest was the matron of honor, and her long-skirted frock of Wedgewood blue satin was designed in the sheath mode. She completed her ensemble with a pillbox hat which reflected the tone of her frock, and she carried a bouquet of pink roses and stephanotis.

BRIDGE

B. JAY BECKER

QUIZ

Partner bids One Spade, next player passes, both sides are vulnerable and you have a part score of 40. What would you bid now with each hand following five hands?

1. ♠K9853 ♥AQJ42 ♦J5 ♣9
2. ♠Q52 ♥KQ74 ♦AJ6 ♣AQ3
3. ♠A94 ♥KQ6 ♦K3 ♣AK982
4. ♠Q873 ♥AQ983 ♦Q5 ♣J7
5. ♠K962 ♥Q75 ♦AK963 ♣4

1. Three spades. A spade slam is distinctly possible and we should encourage partner to investigate it by jumping to three spades. This is not the bid we would make if there were no part score—in that case, the response would be two hearts—but we dare not bid two hearts with a part score of 40, since partner might pass, a game contract having been reached.

Partner is permitted to pass three spades; all we are doing by overbidding the score is suggesting a slam if the opening bid is better than minimum. It must be borne in mind, when a side has a part score, that the meanings of certain bids change—so much so, that forcing bids frequently become non-forcing, while non-forcing bids sometimes become forcing.

2. Three notrump. This is just about right with the part-score situation. Ordinarily, you would have only 16 or 17 points for a jump to three notrump, but with the 40 part score. the range is 17 or 18.

3. Three clubs. This response, being a jump-shift, is unconditionally forcing. The intention is to carry on to a slam with this 19-point hand, even if partner keeps signing off, but what the final contract will eventually be is at this point uncertain.

4. Two spades. Obviously, this bid could not be made without the part score, but with it, no other call can seriously be considered. Thus, it would be wrong to respond two hearts, which is not forcing and tends to deny spade support. Also, a jump to three spades does not quite make the grade, since there should be little interest in a slam unless partner is able to bid voluntarily over two spades.

5. Two diamonds. This response is forcing, a game contract not yet having been reached. The intention is to make a slam try later, depending on partner's rebid. Thus if his rebid is two hearts or two spades, we plan to bid three spades, which is invitational to a slam, though not, of course, forcing.

Conference

Attending a national training program of the YWCA, being held at Ferry Hall, Lake Forest, Ill., June 28 to July 10, is Miss Elaine Gibbs, teenage program director of the Lincoln YWCA.

The two-week session, which will emphasize leadership training, is being conducted by Miss Janet Kydd, national YW director of personnel and training.

LATIN IS A LIVING LANGUAGE

It is the language used by doctors and registered pharmacists to specify medicines and compounds. It is not a "dead language" at all. Quite to the contrary, it is used to prescribe health and, sometimes, life itself. Whether you know anything about Latin is not important, so long as you count on your physician—and Gilmour-Danielson. They know their Latin—and lots about your health.

ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: I am a teen-age girl, old enough to go with boys, but I've never had a real date. I am sure it's because of my teeth. I have a space between my two front teeth big enough for another tooth to fit into. I attract boys, but when I give them a smile, they are gone. My parents say as long as I can chew okay and my teeth don't ache I don't need a dentist, as they can't afford it right now. Everyone calls me the girl with her teeth parted in the middle. I know other people have worse problems, but what can I do about mine?

SELF-CONSCIOUS

DEAR SELF: I understand your plea for a pretty smile, and agree with it. Ask your parents, to let you find a good dentist with a "time-payment" plan. As a girl's face can be her fortune, her smile can be the "interest."

☆ ☆ ☆

DEAR ABBY: I read your column every day, but never thought I'd be writing to you. I have a wonderful husband in every respect, except for one. He smokes his cigarettes down until they are about a quarter of an inch long. That is no lie. He has to drop it from his mouth into an ash tray because he can't get hold of it with his fingers. He has bought many cigarette holders, but the plastic ones melt and the metal ones have to have the remains dug out. Once the butt stuck to his lips and I had to use a pair of tweezers to get it off. I've tried telling him about it in private, and even making fun of him in public, but I just can't win.

HAVE HAD IT

DEAR HAVE: If you've tried telling him in private and teasing him in public, and haven't been able to win, the only solution is for you to become a better loser. Sorry, but there is no teaching a man who doesn't care to learn.

GUEST greeted at informal courtesy

Miss Lisa Woodward of Seattle, Wash., who is the guest of her grandparents, Dr. and Mrs. J. M. Woodward, was welcomed by a group of her Lincoln contemporaries when the six young ladies met at the Lincoln Country Club for lunch and swimming on Wednesday.

ABBY

ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: I am a teen-age girl, old enough to go with boys, but I've never had a real date. I am sure it's because of my teeth. I have a space between my two front teeth big enough for another tooth to fit into. I attract boys, but when I give them a smile, they are gone. My parents say as long as I can chew okay and my teeth don't ache I don't need a dentist, as they can't afford it right now. Everyone calls me the girl with her teeth parted in the middle. I know other people have worse problems, but what can I do about mine?

SELF-CONSCIOUS

DEAR SELF: I understand your plea for a pretty smile, and agree with it. Ask your parents to let you find a good dentist with a "time-payment" plan. As a girl's face can be her fortune, her smile can be the "interest."

☆ ☆ ☆

DEAR ABBY: I read your column every day, but never thought I'd be writing to you. I have a wonderful husband in every respect, except for one. He smokes his cigarettes down until they are about a quarter of an inch long. That is no lie. He has to drop it from his mouth into an ash tray because he can't get hold of it with his fingers. He has bought many cigarette holders, but the plastic ones melt and the metal ones have to have the remains dug out. Once the butt stuck to his lips and I had to use a pair of tweezers to get it off. I've tried telling him about it in private, and even making fun of him in public, but I just can't win.

HAVE HAD IT

DEAR HAVE: If you've tried telling him in private and teasing him in public, and haven't been able to win, the only solution is for you to become a better loser. Sorry, but there is no teaching a man who doesn't care to learn.

Bridal Showers

Entertaining recently for a July bride-to-be was Mrs. Herbert E. Schamp who was hostess at her home in courtesy to Miss Patricia Weaver.

A one-gift shower was presented to the honoree, and included among the 10 guests was Miss Weaver's mother, Mrs. John A. Weaver of Nashville, Tenn.

The wedding of Miss Weaver and Richard Kowalchuk of Tacoma, Wash., will take place on Saturday, July 3, at St. John's Church.

A July bride-elect, Miss Sandra Lynn Smith, and her mother, Mrs. Don D. Smith, will be hostesses at their home next Wednesday evening when they will entertain family members and neighbors at a trousseau party.

Miss Smith, who will become the bride of Larry Johnston on Sunday, July 11, will share honors with her fiance on Saturday evening, July 10, when Mr. Johnston's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Johnston, will be host and hostess at dinner.

The dinner, to which members of the family and bridal party have been invited, will be held at the Legion Club following the wedding rehearsal at St. James Methodist Church.

BRIDGE

B. JAY BECKER

QUIZ

Partner bids One Spade, next player passes, both sides are vulnerable and you have a part score of 40. What would you bid now with each hand following five hands?

1. ♠K9853 ♥AQJ42 ♦J5 ♣9
2. ♠Q52 ♥KQ74 ♦AJ6 ♣AQ3
3. ♠A94 ♥KQ6 ♦K3 ♣AK982
4. ♠Q873 ♥AQ983 ♦Q5 ♣J7
5. ♠K962 ♥Q75 ♦AK963 ♣4

1. Three spades. A spade slam is distinctly possible and we should encourage partner to investigate it by jumping to three spades. This is not the bid we would make if there were no part score—in that case, the response would be two hearts—but we dare not bid two hearts with a part score of 40, since partner might pass, a game contract having been reached.

Partner is permitted to pass three spades; all we are doing by overbidding the score is suggesting a slam if the opening bid is better than minimum. It must be borne in mind, when a side has a part score, that the meanings of certain bids change—so much so, that forcing bids frequently become non-forcing, while non-forcing bids sometimes become forcing.

2. Three notrump. This is just about right with the part-score situation. Ordinarily, you would have only 16 or 17 points for a jump to three notrump, but with the 40 part score, the range is 17 or 18.

3. Three clubs. This response, being a jump-shift, is unconditionally forcing. The intention is to carry on to a slam with this 19-point hand, even if partner keeps signing off, but what the final contract will eventually be is at this point uncertain.

4. Two spades. Obviously, this bid could not be made without the part score, but with it, no other call can seriously be considered. Thus, it would be wrong to respond two hearts, which is not forcing and tends to deny spade support. Also, a jump to three spades does not quite make the grade, since there should be little interest in a slam unless partner is able to bid voluntarily over two spades.

5. Two diamonds. This response is forcing, a game contract not yet having been reached. The intention is to make a slam try later, depending on partner's rebid. Thus if his rebid is two hearts or two spades, we plan to bid three spades, which is invitational to a slam, though not, of course, forcing.

Conference

Attending a national training program of the YWCA, being held at Ferry Hall, Lake Forest, Ill., June 28 to July 10, is Miss Elaine Gibbs, teenage program director of the Lincoln YWCA.

The two-week session, which will emphasize leadership training, is being conducted by Miss Janet Kydd, national YW director of personnel and training.

LATIN IS A LIVING LANGUAGE

It is the language used by doctors and registered pharmacists to specify medicines and compounds. It is not a "dead language" at all. Quite to the contrary, it is used to prescribe health and, sometimes, life itself. Whether you know anything about Latin is not important, so long as you count on your physician—and Gilmour-Danielson. They know their Latin—and lots about your health.

Here is a practical little game that will give you a message every day. It is a numerical puzzle designed to spell out your fortune. Count the letters in your first name. If the number of letters is 6 or more, subtract 4. If the number is less than 6, add three. The result is your key number. Start at the upper left-hand corner of the rectangle and check every one of your key numbers left to right. Then read the message the letters under the checked figures given you. Here is a practical little game that will give you a message every day. It is a numerical puzzle designed to spell out your fortune. Count the letters in your first name. If the number of letters is 6 or more, subtract 4. If the number is less than 6, add three. The result is your key number. Start at the upper left-hand corner of the rectangle and check every one of your key numbers left to right. Then read the message the letters under the checked figures gives you. More Recreation Facilities Needed

By BARRY BURKHART
Star Sports Writer

"There is a crying need for additional playgrounds, and we need more recreational centers," Mayor Dean Petersen said Thursday following a tour of Lincoln recreational facilities.

Besides Petersen, Councilman Del Tyrrell, City Personnel Director Walt Mitchell and Acting Park and Recreation Director Jim Ager also participated in the tour, sponsored by the city Department of Recreation and overseen by Robert Dula, city superintendent of recreation.

Petersen also disclosed that one of his "pet peeves" is the fact that no good land is allocated for recreational purposes when new housing areas are developed. "We should use the plan of one playground within six blocks of any given house as a measuring stick," Petersen said.

But, according to Petersen, with the consolidation of certain Lincoln fire stations, the old buildings may be put to use as recreational centers, easing some of the crowded situations.

The tour began in the recreation offices at Pershing Auditorium. The officials were shown the arts and crafts department, and Dula commented that besides needing another playground in northeast Lincoln, the city needs more space for the Recreation Department.

Petersen later said that he, in effect, agreed with Dula and was thinking about a different recreational headquarters — one with more space so the different departments could have better "coordination and efficiency."

The next stop was Peter Pan Park, where the officials met some of the 225 summer employes of the Department of Recreation.

The officials watched youngsters participating in box hockey, tetherball and ping pong, and were introduced to Jerry Trimble, director of the city tennis program, who told them of the approximately 400 people participating in the program.

The dignitaries were taken to Woods Pool and Muny Pool, the newest and oldest swimming pools in Lincoln, respectively, and were shown the pools' equipment.

Mayor Petersen commented that he was "very proud of installations like Woods, but we need to improve Muny."

After a brief stop at Muny diamond to hear an explanation of the city's baseball program by Bu Grosscup, supervisor of city league baseball, the group completed the tour with a stop at St. Paul Methodist Church to see the city's recreation program for senior citizens in action.

Seeing approximately 40 older people participating in various card games, Mayor Petersen commented that "this program should do nothing but expand." He said the number of older people is rapidly increasing and expansion is necessary.

Dula concluded the tour by saying the city could have a more complete recreational program if the public schools could also be utilized in the winter.

Texan Cards 66 For Opening Round Margin

. . . IN WESTERN OPEN GOLF

Chicago (AP) — Texan Rex Baxter, winner of only one tourney in seven years as a golf pro, drove and putted brilliantly for a five-under-par 66 and a one-stroke lead in the opening round of the $70,000 Western Open Thursday.

Baxter, 1957 NCAA champion as a University of Houston star, led a blistering attack on Tam O'Shanter's 6,686-yard, par 71 layout to finish one stroke ahead of defending champion Chi Chi Rodriguez.

Thirty-one of the 130 pros seeking the $11,000 first prize, and two of nine amateurs shot 70 or better, with six pros scoring 68 to share third-place. They were Frank Wharton, Joe Campbell, Fred Hawkins, Sonny Methvin, Bill Garett and Tommy Aaron.

Rodriguez carded a 67.

Baxter had seven one-putt greens in his 33-33 round. In bagging six birdies, he rolled in two 20-foot putts and one 12 footer.

Rodriguez, also among the early finishers in the field of 130 pros shooting for a first prize of $11,000, had a 34-33 round with a crisp and accurate approach game.

His longest putt was 12 feet for a birdie two on the 159-yard 11th.

Miami Likely For AFL's Ninth Club

Miami, Fla. (AP) — The prospects grew stronger Thursday that the American Football League, beaten in the battle for Atlanta, would settle on Miami as its ninth member.

Commissioner Joe Foss and members of the AFL expansion committee were to meet Thursday night with the Miami City Commission to develop terms for use of the Orange Bowl stadium.

The Miami News said the city has assured the AFL that its franchise holder could have the Orange Bowl under a years-long contract that would exclude all other pro football promoters.

Plans already have been made for improvements at the 76,000-seat stadium, including a big expansion of parking facilities.

Miami has been strongly interested in the AFL and several groups have offered to buy the franchise.

Dodgers Fall, But Hold Lead

By Associated Press

The National League-leading Los Angeles Dodgers took a 6-3 licking from Chicago Thursday, but retained a two-game bulge atop the standings when the New York Mets bashed second-place Cincinnati 5-1.

Ed Kranepool's two-run homer and a two-run triple by Ron Swoboda were the big blows for the Mets, who won their fourth in five starts. Al Jackson breezed in to his fourth victory on a seven-hitter.

Glenn Beckert drove in four runs with his second and third homers of the season for the Cubs. The first came off loser Johnny Podres. Maury Wills collected his 48th stolen base of the season for the Dodgers.

Detroit edged Boston 2-1 on a pinch hitter's speed in the only other day game. Gates Brown beat out a potential double play grounder as the winning run crossed in the top of the ninth.

Cleveland increased its lead in the AL to one game over the idle Minnesota Twins and two games over the idle Chicago White Sox by defeating Washington 7-2. Sonny Siebert fanned 11 in winning his ninth against three defeats and was helped by a four-run uprising in the fifth during which Leon Wagner hit a two-run homer.

Baltimore scored four runs early off Whitey Ford and went on to beat the New York Yankees 4-3 in the other scheduled AL night game. Rookie Roger Repoz hit a two-run homer for the Yankees in the ninth. Curt Blefary, a former Yankee farm hand, hit a homer and triple for the Orioles.

Philadelphia won its fifth straight and took over fourth place in the NL by defeating Milwaukee 2-1. Ray Culp pitched a three-hitter for the Phillies and scored the winning run in the eighth on John Callison's single.

St. Louis, behind 4-0, tied the score in the eighth on one hit, four walks and two hit batsmen, then came up with three runs in the ninth to defeat Pittsburgh 7-6 in the other scheduled NL game.

Plans Made For City's Skating Event

A total of 1,800 roller skaters—survivors of an original field of more than 20,000—will compete at Pershing Auditorium in Lincoln July 22-31 in the 27th annual North American Roller Skating Championships.

Plans for the meet were announced in New York by Victor J. Brown, chairman of the advisory committee of the Roller Skating Rink Operators Association of America (RSROA), sponsors of the event.

The skaters from every section of the nation, including hockey teams from both Hawaii and Alaska, will compete on a clear skating surface of hardwood maple and 84 by 181 feet in the auditorium.

In addition to a hockey tournament, a prelude to the championship proper, the North Americans will include competition in men's and women's singles, pairs, free dance and speedskating. The festivities will be highlighted by the "skating spectacular of 1965," staged under the direction of professional Mrs. Lynn Anselmi of Pontiac, Mich., and by the election of a roller skating queen representative of the teenagers who skate regularly in the nation's 5,000 rinks.

Defending champions in the competition will include women's singles queen Sylvia Haffke of Chicopee Falls, Mass.; dance champions Adolph Wacker and Linda Mottice of Akron, Ohio; and pairs champions David Tassinari and Diane Karn of Norwood, Mass.

Bueno, Smith Reach Finals

. . . AT WIMBLEDON

Wimbledon, England (AP) — Defending champion Maria Bueno out-generaled Billie Jean Moffitt and Margaret Smith pulverized Christine Truman Thursday to make both the 1965 Wimbledon singles finals "here we are again" affairs.

Maria from Brazil, the top seed, beat little Miss Moffitt of Long Beach, Calif., seeded fifth, 6-4, 5-7, 6-3. Big Marge from Australia strode imperiously over even bigger Christine Truman of Britain in 39 minutes, 6-4, 6-0.

Miss Bueno and Miss Smith meet Saturday in a repeat of last year's women's final, won by the elegant Brazilian girl. Its the fourth Wimbledon final in seven years for Maria, who won in 1959, 1960 and 1964. Miss Smith is a finalist for the third straight year. She beat Miss Moffitt in 1963 but lost to Maria last year.

Friday a pair of Australian buddies, Roy Emerson and Fred Stolle, play a repeat of the 1964 men's final, which Emerson won in four sets. Stolle also was runner-up in 1963, losing to Chuck McKinley.

Statisticians combed the record books and decided this was the first time in Wimbledon history that both singles finals turned out repeats of the previous year. Back in 1927-28-29 France's Jean Borotra and Henri Cochet waged three men's final battles, but the same years America's Helen Wills beat three different rivals for the women's title.

The battle of the Amazons between Miss Smith and the unseeded Miss Truman, a gallery favorite, hardly generated enough excitement to rustle a program after the first few minutes. The gallery of 16,000 packed around center court showed some enthusiasm when Christine won the first two games and took the first set to 4-4.

Then Margaret moved in behind a powerful service and superb ground strokes for the kill. Miss Smith's service was working so well she could come straight in for the kill and she was fast enough to take Christine's serves early and be at the net to pounce on whatever the tall English girl sent back.

The Moffitt-Bueno match didn't reach the heights, either. But there was some drama in Maria's power and stylish shotmaking and in Billie Jean's second set comeback.

Miss Moffitt was uncertain and off form at the start. Maria reeled off five games to lead 5-1 before she settled down and the closest Billie Jean could come in the first set was 4-5.

The second set saw Billie Jean playing a different, more confident game. She went to the net eagerly and although her volleys let her down in the third game, she volleyed and lobbed her way into a 5-2 lead. Maria leveled it at 5-5 with some scorching service returns.

Then in the 11th game she fell heavily going after a volley. That put her temporarily off stride and Billie Jean volleyed a couple of shots beyond her reach and made one magnificant cross-court shot to break through and win 7-5.

Miss Bueno made two fine backhand service returns and broke Miss Moffitt's service in the first game of the third set and went on to lead 4-1. Miss Moffitt won two games in a final effort. Then her dashes at the net failed and she double-faulted at deuce.

Grelle, Burleson 1-2 In Helsinki

Helsinki, Finland (AP)—Americans Jim Grelle and Dyrol Burleson finished one-two, beating Olympic champion Peter Snell of New Zealand, in a 1,500 meter race of the World Games in the Olympic Stadium Thursday night. Snell finished fifth.

The two Oregonians came from behind with a strong burst in the final 200 meters to pass pace-setting John Davies, another New Zealander, in the run to the tape.

Grelle was clocked in the comparatively slow time of 3:40.8 in the tactical race. Burleson was timed in 3:41.4 and Davies in 3:42.2. Poland's Witold Baran was fourth in 3:43.7, and Snell, the Olympic 800 and 1,500 meter champion, fifth in 3:34.7.

More Recreation Facilities Needed

By BARRY BURKHART
Star Sports Writer

"There is a crying need for additional playgrounds, and we need more recreational centers," Mayor Dean Petersen said Thursday following a tour of Lincoln recreational facilities..

Besides Petersen, Councilman Del Tyrrell, City Personnel Director Walt Mitchell and Acting Park and Recreation Director Jim Ager also participated in the tour, sponsored by the city Department of Recreation and overseen by Robert Dula, city superintendent of recreation.

Petersen also disclosed that one of his "pet peeves" is the fact that no good land is allocated for recreational purposes when new housing areas are developed. "We should use the plan of one playground within six blocks of any given house as a measuring stick," Petersen said.

But, according to Petersen, with the consolidation of certain Lincoln fire stations, the old buildings may be put to use as recreational centers, easing some of the crowded situations.

The tour began in the recreation offices at Pershing Auditorium. The officials were shown the arts and crafts department, and Dula commented that besides needing another playground in northeast Lincoln, the city needs more space for the Recreation Department.

Petersen later said that he, in effect, agreed with Dula and was thinking about a different recreational headquarters — one with more space so the different departments could have better "coordination and efficiency."

The next stop was Peter Pan Park, where the officials met some of the 225 summer employes of the Department of Recreation.

The officials watched youngsters participating in box hockey, tetherball and ping pong, and were introduced to Jerry Trimble, director of the city tennis program, who told them of the approximately 400 people participating in the program.

The dignitaries were taken to Woods Pool and Muny Pool, the newest and oldest swimming pools in Lincoln, respectively, and were shown the pools' equipment.

Mayor Petersen commented that he was "very proud of installations like Woods, but we need to improve Muny."

After a brief stop at Muny diamond to hear an explanation of the city's baseball program by Bu Grosscup, supervisor of city league baseball, the group completed the tour with a stop at St. Paul Methodist Church to see the city's recreation program for senior citizens in action.

Seeing approximately 40 older people participating in various card games, Mayor Petersen commented that "this program should do nothing but expand." He said the number of older people is rapidly increasing and expansion is necessary.

Dula concluded the tour by saying the city could have a more complete recreational program if the public schools could also be utilized in the winter.

Texan Cards 66 For Opening Round Margin

. . . IN WESTERN OPEN GOLF

Chicago (AP) — Texan Rex Baxter, winner of only one tourney in seven years as a golf pro, drove and putted brilliantly for a five-under-par 66 and a one-stroke lead in the opening round of the $70,000 Western Open Thursday.

Baxter, 1957 NCAA champion as a University of Houston star, led a blistering attack on Tam O'Shanter's 6,686-yard, par 71 layout to finish one stroke ahead of defending champion Chi Chi Rodriguez.

Thirty-one of the 130 pros seeking the $11,000 first prize, and two of nine amateurs shot 70 or better, with six pros scoring 68 to share third-place. They were Frank Wharton, Joe Campbell, Fred Hawkins, Sonny Methvin, Bill Garett and Tommy Aaron.

Rodriguez carded a 67.

Baxter had seven one-putt greens in his 33-33 round. In bagging six birdies, he rolled in two 20-foot putts and one 12 footer.

Rodriguez, also among the early finishers in the field of 130 pros shooting for a first prize of $11,000, had a 34-33 round with a crisp and accurate approach game.

His longest putt was 12 feet for a birdie two on the 159-yard 11th.

Miami Likely For AFL's Ninth Club

Miami, Fla. (AP) — The prospects grew stronger Thursday that the American Football League, beaten in the battle for Atlanta, would settle on Miami as its ninth member.

Commissioner Joe Foss and members of the AFL expansion committee were to meet Thursday night with the Miami City Commission to develop terms for use of the Orange Bowl stadium.

The Miami News said the city has assured the AFL that its franchise holder could have the Orange Bowl under a years-long contract that would exclude all other pro football promoters.

Plans already have been made for improvements at the 76,000-seat stadium, including a big expansion of parking facilities.

Miami has been strongly interested in the AFL and several groups have offered to buy the franchise.

Beattie Granted Leave

Boulder, Colo. (AP) — Bob Beattie was granted a one-year leave of absence as University of Colorado ski coach Thursday to take a similar post with the national alpine team for the U.S. Ski association.

Out-Of-State Recruits

Two of the four quarterbacks of Wyoming's 1965 football team come from Michigan. They are Chuck Shelton of Detroit and Dan Prevo of Livonia.

Plans Made For City's Skating Event

A total of 1,800 roller skaters—survivors of an original field of more than 20,000—will compete at Pershing Auditorium in Lincoln July 22-31 in the 27th annual North American Roller Skating Championships.

Plans for the meet were announced in New York by Victor J. Brown, chairman of the advisory committee of the Roller Skating Rink Operators Association of America (RSROA), sponsors of the event.

The skaters from every section of the nation, including hockey teams from both Hawaii and Alaska, will compete on a clear skating surface of hardwood maple and 84 by 181 feet in the auditorium.

In addition to a hockey tournament, a prelude to the championship proper, the North Americans will include competition in men's and women's singles, pairs, free dance and speedskating. The festivities will be highlighted by the "skating spectacular of 1965," staged under the direction of professional Mrs. Lynn Anselmi of Pontiac, Mich., and by the election of a roller skating queen representative of the teenagers who skate regularly in the nation's 5,000 rinks.

Defending champions in the competition will include women's singles queen Sylvia Haffke of Chicopee Falls, Mass.; dance champions Adolph Wacker and Linda Mottice of Akron, Ohio; and pairs champions David Tassinari and Diane Karn of Norwood, Mass.

Dodgers Fall, But Hold Lead

By Associated Press

The National League-leading Los Angeles Dodgers took a 6-3 licking from Chicago Thursday, but retained a two-game bulge atop the standings when the New York Mets bashed second-place Cincinnati 5-1.

Ed Kranepool's two-run homer and a two-run triple by Ron Swoboda were the big blows for the Mets, who won their fourth in five starts. Al Jackson breezed in to his fourth victory on a seven-hitter.

Glenn Beckert drove in four runs with his second and third homers of the season for the Cubs. The first came off loser Johnny Podres. Maury Wills collected his 48th stolen base of the season for the Dodgers.

Detroit edged Boston 2-1 on a pinch hitter's speed in the only other day game. Gates Brown beat out a potential double play grounder as the winning run crossed in the top of the ninth.

Cleveland increased its lead in the AL to one game over the idle Minnesota Twins and two games over the idle Chicago White Sox by defeating Washington 7-2. Sonny Siebert fanned 11 in winning his ninth against three defeats and was helped by a four-run uprising in the fifth during which Leon Wagner hit a two-run homer.

Baltimore scored four runs early off Whitey Ford and went on to beat the New York Yankees 4-3 in the other scheduled AL night game. Rookie Roger Repoz hit a two-run homer for the Yankees in the ninth. Curt Blefary, a former Yankee farm hand, hit a homer and triple for the Orioles.

Philadelphia won its fifth straight and took over fourth place in the NL by defeating Milwaukee 2-1. Ray Culp pitched a three-hitter for the Phillies and scored the winning run in the eighth on John Callison's single.

St. Louis, behind 4-0, tied the score in the eighth on one hit, four walks and two hit batsmen, then came up with three runs in the ninth to defeat Pittsburgh 7-6 in the other scheduled NL game.

Bueno, Smith Reach Finals

. . . AT WIMBLEDON

Wimbledon, England (AP) — Defending champion Maria Bueno out-generaled Billie Jean Moffitt and Margaret Smith pulverized Christine Truman Thursday to make both the 1965 Wimbledon singles finals "here we are again" affairs.

Maria from Brazil, the top seed, beat little Miss Moffitt of Long Beach, Calif., seeded fifth, 6-4, 5-7, 6-3. Big Marge from Australia strode imperiously over even bigger Christine Truman of Britain in 39 minutes, 6-4, 6-0.

Miss Bueno and Miss Smith meet Saturday in a repeat of last year's women's final, won by the elegant Brazilian girl. Its the fourth Wimbledon final in seven years for Maria, who won in 1959, 1960 and 1964. Miss Smith is a finalist for the third straight year. She beat Miss Moffitt in 1963 but lost to Maria last year.

Friday a pair of Australian buddies, Roy Emerson and Fred Stolle, play a repeat of the 1964 men's final, which Emerson won in four sets. Stolle also was runner-up in 1963, losing to Chuck McKinley.

Statisticians combed the record books and decided this was the first time in Wimbledon history that both singles finals turned out repeats of the previous year. Back in 1927-28-29 France's Jean Borotra and Henri Cochet waged three men's final battles, but the same years America's Helen Wills beat three different rivals for the women's title.

The battle of the Amazons between Miss Smith and the unseeded Miss Truman, a gallery favorite, hardly generated enough excitement to rustle a program after the first few minutes. The gallery of 16,000 packed around center court showed some enthusiasm when Christine won the first two games and took the first set to 4-4.

Then Margaret moved in behind a powerful service and superb ground strokes for the kill. Miss Smith's service was working so well she could come straight in for the kill and she was fast enough to take Christine's serves early and be at the net to pounce on whatever the tall English girl sent back.

The Moffitt-Bueno match didn't reach the heights, either. But there was some drama in Maria's power and stylish shotmaking and in Billie Jean's second set comeback.

Miss Moffitt was uncertain and off form at the start. Maria reeled off five games to lead 5-1 before she settled down and the closest Billie Jean could come in the first set was 4-5.

The second set saw Billie Jean playing a different, more confident game. She went to the net eagerly and although her volleys let her down in the third game, she volleyed and lobbed her way into a 5-2 lead. Maria leveled it at 5-5 with some scorching service returns.

Then in the 11th game she fell heavily going after a volley. That put her temporarily off stride and Billie Jean volleyed a couple of shots beyond her reach and made one magnificant cross-court shot to break through and win 7-5.

Miss Bueno made two fine backhand service returns and broke Miss Moffitt's service in the first game of the third set and went on to lead 4-1. Miss Moffitt won two games in a final effort. Then her dashes at the net failed and she double-faulted at deuce.

Grelle, Burleson 1-2 In Helsinki

Helsinki, Finland (AP)—Americans Jim Grelle and Dyrol Burleson finished one-two, beating Olympic champion Peter Snell of New Zealand, in a 1,500 meter race of the World Games in the Olympic Stadium Thursday night. Snell finished fifth.

The two Oregonians came from behind with a strong burst in the final 200 meters to pass pace-setting John Davies, another New Zealander, in the run to the tape.

Grelle was clocked in the comparatively slow time of 3:40.8 in the tactical race. Burleson was timed in 3:41.4 and Davies in 3:42.2. Poland's Witold Baran was fourth in 3:43.7, and Snell, the Olympic 800 and 1,500 meter champion, fifth in 3:34.7.

Vesper Boat Club Posts New Record

. . . IN WHIPPING HARVARD

Henley-on-Thames, England (AP)—The Vesper Boat Club of Philadelphia, with four of the oarsmen who won the Olympic gold medal last year, became a strong favorite to win the Grand Challenge Cup Thursday as Harvard's winning run came to an end in the Henley Royal Regatta.

Vesper was the winner by two-thirds of a length in the fastest, and perhaps the greatest, race ever rowed on the River Thames. The Olympic champions rocketed over the one-mile, 550-yards course in 6:18, smashing every record in sight.

The time was five seconds under the record set by Russia's Club Zjalghris Viljnjus in last year's Grand and it equalled or bettered intermediate times all along the river.

The Harvard varsity, unbeaten in college competition this year, also was under the old record by at least three seconds although it was not officially timed.

The duel between two fine American crews in the first round of the regatta's main event, the Grand Challenge Cup, overshadowed everything else that has happened in two days of rowing. It was set up by the chance of the draw, as no crew is seeded for Henley

Two American crews, Cornell's lightweights and Eliot House of Harvard, qualified for the quarter-finals of the Thames Challenge Cup, Henley's No. 2 event for eight-oared crews, and two U.S. schoolboy eights reached the quarter-finals of the Princess Elizabeth Cup.

Cornell's lightweights, unbeaten in two years, came out one-half length ahead of the Northeastern University varsity, which outweighed the Cornellians 20 pounds per man. Eliot House outdistanced the Garda Siochane Boat Club of Ireland.

Phillips Academy of Andover, Mass., easily beat England's Nautical College, Pangbourne, and Tabor Academy of Marion, Mass., gained an even easier victory over the Leys School of England in the schoolboy races.

Vesper won because it was heavier than Harvard—12½ pounds per man—and more experienced. Harvard jumped into the lead in a very fast start but by the half mile mark Vesper had edged a few feet ahead. Then the Philadelphians spurted into a one-length lead in a few hundred yards. Harvard, rowing with grim determination, cut that lead in half but never got any closer.

Afterwards Vesper Coach Allen Rosenberg, a 33-year-old Philadelphia attorney who rebuilt the Olympic crew this year with oarsmen recruited from other clubs, had this to say:

"As of today, Harvard is not the greatest. Nor for that matter would I say my crew was the greatest.

"I think some news media did the Harvard boys a disservice. They were under tremendous pressure to win. Their clippings depended on the race."

Four former Yale oarsmen, now Oxford students but rowing for Britain's Leander Club, turned in one of the day's most impressive feats. Ed Trippe, Duncan Spencer, Bill Fink and Harry Howells won a heat in the Prince Philip Cup for coxed fours by 50 yards from England's Hollingsworth Lake Rowing Club.

In another coxed four race, St. Mark's School of Southborough, Mass., was eliminated by a heavier four from England's Thames Rowing Club.

Peter Virsis and Francis Sulger of the New York A.C. were knocked out of the double sculls by a speedy German pair, Manfred Haake and Joachim Bruckhandler from East Berlin. Another East German pair, Oeter Gorny and Ginter Bergau, clipped 10 seconds off the Henley record when they won their heat in the Silver Goblets for paired oars in 7:35.

440 Record Set In Gal's AAU Meet

Columbus, Ohio (AP)—Cleveland's Madeline Manning breezed to a U.S. girls' record in the 440-yard run in preliminaries of the National AAU Outdoor Girls' and Women's Track and Field Championships Thursday night.

The Ohio teen-ager, running for the Cleveland Recreation Division, was clocked in :56.8. The old marks were :57.9 for the U.S. girls under 17 standard by Charlotte Cook and :58.5 for the AAU meet by Shirley Wilson.

Both Charlotte and Shirley were members of the 1964 champion Compton, Calif., Track Club, but had to forego the 1965 meet because of "an unfortunate situation," as West Coast sources put it.

The Compton club was dissolved due to reported internal dissension.

N 3—

Barbara Ferrell of the Los Angeles Mercurettes and Jenda Jones of Phoenix, Ariz., were outstanding in the dash trials. Barbara posted the best times in the 50-yard dash with :05.9 and the 220 with :25.1. Jenda won her heats in all three dashes—the 50 in :06.0, the 100 in a meet record matching :10.9, and the 220 in :25.3.

Susie Byersdorfer of the Sacramento, Calif., Will's Spikettes paced the 880-yard run qualifiers with a 2:20.6. Lynn Graham of the L.A. Mercurettes led discus preliminaries with a 136-7½ heave.

Women's trials are Friday night and Saturday morning, with finals Saturday night determining United States representation in the women's portion of the U.S.-Soviet Union meet in Kiev opening July 31.

Longshot Pays Off In Trot

Not only did the big bay owned by Kenneth Owen of Houtson, Tex., manage to collar all his rivals, he also streaked to a national season's record for gait, age and sex on a half-mile track of 2:02 2-5.

Noble Victory, who has lost just one race—a dash of the Castleton farm Stake last fall—raced on the outside all the way and took the lead midway in the stretch. He won by two lengths.

Cornelius Shoots 71, Takes Lead

Northfield, N.J. (AP)—Cathy Cornelius of Rancho Santa Fe, Calif., putted her way to a one-under-par 71 Thursday for a one stroke lead over Marlene Bauer Hagge in the first round of the Women's National Open Golf Championship.

It was the only under par round over the 6,220-yard, par 72 Atlantic City County Club course, which was buffeted by 30 miles per hour winds and harrassed by sun-basking turtles and hungry sea gulls.

Mrs. Cornelius, 32, wife of a professional and 1956 winner of this title, blasted out of traps, chipped and putted brilliantly in setting a competitive course record for women.

She had seven one-putt greens, coming out of traps to save pars on three holes.

She chipped to within inches on the second hole, almost holed out her tee shot on the short eighth and ran in a 30-foot putt from the fringe on the 11th for her birdies.

Mrs. Hagge rallied after taking a pair of sixes on the front nine and shot an incoming 3-under-par 32 for 72.

She had two strokes on the three-time National Women's Amateur winner, Mrs. Anne Quast Welts of Mt. Vernon, Wash., who birdied the first and last holes and sank two long putts for a 74.

The wind blew directly into the faces of the players on the 10th, 13th, 14th and 15th holes and caused collapses among some of the leading contenders

Also at 79 and faced with a struggle to survive the Friday cutoff reducing the field to the low 40 and ties, were Patty Berg, Phyllis Pruess, and Barbara Romack, and the popular French girl Catherine Lacoste.

Louise Suggs three-putted the fourth hole when a turtle meandered across her putting path and she finished with 76.

She was bracketed with Mary Mills of Handsboro, Miss., 1963 winner; Sandra Palmer of Fort Worth, Tex.; July Torluemke of North Key Largo, Fla., and amateur Mrs. Maxon Beger, the former Cookie Swift, of Eggertsville, N.Y.

Mrs. Cornelius, who said she plans to quit the tour after this year to help her husband and to give more time to their 11-year-old daughter, called her round the best ever for her in the Open.

"I never putted better," she said.

—A DUFFER'S DELIGHT—

New Golf Ball Can't Be Cut

New York (AP)—The man said he had a new golf ball which wouldn't cut, would keep its shape, would maintain its resiliency and would meet all the necessary standards.

"Yes, indeed," the man replied. "I'll send you the ball and a hammer so you can test it."

Well, the ball and a sharp-pointed hammer arrived Thursday and we tested it, surrounded by unbelieving duffers in the office.

The man who created this ball, called Long Play and which now is being marketed in leading department stores, is a non-golfer, researcher Harry L. Landes.

He now is president of Lander Products, Inc., of Trenton, N.J., which is manufacturing the chemically-produced ball.

How did a non-golfer come up with what he calls an indestructible ball?

"If one of my associates had not been a golfer," said Landers, "the ball never would have been discovered. The thought never would have entered my mind."

Landers was experimenting in rubber chemistry to produce, in a special vulcanization process utilizing the Philipps elastomers, a material which could withstand great pressures in a saline conversion unit he is developing.

In order to test the material's resiliency on the device he had at hand, it was necessary to shape the substance into a ball approximately the size of a golf ball. It was at this point, said Landers, that an associate said "why not a golf ball?"

Landers said it took many months of intense laboratory experimentation to meet the required standards of the U.S. Golf Association for size, weight and degree of resiliency.

"Most golfers consider themselves lucky to get two or three complete rounds out of the conventional ball," said Landers. "The LP has been tested for hundreds of rounds without losing any of its original characteristics."

That is unless you hit one in the water or over a fence.

Softball Game Sets Record For Longevity

Wayne, N.J. (AP)—"They're crazy, but at least we know where they were last night."

That was the judgment of one of the mothers of a group of Wayne High School students after they finished 170 innings of softball Wednesday.

The 18 teen-agers claimed a new marathon softball world record, upsetting up 2½ hours the standard set 10 days earlier by a group of seniors from Ridge High School, Basking Ridge. The Basking Ridge bunch had smashed a 240-hour record set last year at Portland (Ore.) College.

The local youngsters played from 9 a.m. Tuesday to noon Wednesday. They quit and headed for bed just as rain began to fall.

Speedy Scot, 7 Others In International

Westbury, N.Y. (AP)—Speedy Scot, the barrel-chested Castleton Farm 5-year-old, and seven other seasoned performers seek prestige, $25,000 and the right to represent the United States in Roosevelt's International when they clash in the 1¼ miles of the $50,000 American Trotting Championship at Roosevelt Raceway Friday night.

Only prestige and money will be on the line for the odds-on-favorite Speedy Scot. He's already in the July 10 renewal of the $100,000 International by virtue of his 1964 victory in the classic.

The others, however, need to win the Trotting Championship to qualify to meet seven foreign trotters in the 1¼ miles of the International. A year ago Scottie won both races, setting a world record of 2:31 2-5 in the Trotting Championship.

Speedy Scot's lone fault is that he breaks stride, especially when starting from an inside post position. He has No. 1 for the Trotting Championship.

In 53 career starts, Speedy Scot has been beaten only 11 times and in each of those setbacks he broke stride. His bank roll totals $608,409.

Su Mac Lad, the 11-year-old gelding who tops harness racing's money list with earnings of $835,699, will be after his first victory of the year after three seconds and two thirds in five outings. The Trotting Championship will be Sumie's 143rd lifetime start. He has won 67 times, been second in 40 other starts and third in 15.

The field will be rounded out by Speedy Count, Speedy Rodney, Big John, Express Rodney, Dream High and Martini II.

Aoki Retains Title

Rifle Permits Gone

All rifle antelope permits in the Banner unit have now been taken, the game commission reported Thursday. This leaves only Cheyenne open with 119 permits. Rifle deer permits remain in 15 units.

Vesper Boat Club Posts New Record

. . . IN WHIPPING HARVARD

Henley-on-Thames, England (AP)—The Vesper Boat Club of Philadelphia, with four of the oarsmen who won the Olympic gold medal last year, became a strong favorite to win the Grand Challenge Cup Thursday as Harvard's winning run came to an end in the Henley Royal Regatta.

Vesper was the winner by two-thirds of a length in the fastest, and perhaps the greatest, race ever rowed on the River Thames. The Olympic champions rocketed over the one-mile, 550-yards course in 6:18, smashing every record in sight.

The time was five seconds under the record set by Russia's Club Zjalghris Viljnjus in last year's Grand and it equalled or bettered intermediate times all along the river.

The Harvard varsity, unbeaten in college competition this year, also was under the old record by at least three seconds although it was not officially timed.

The duel between two fine American crews in the first round of the regatta's main event, the Grand Challenge Cup, overshadowed everything else that has happened in two days of rowing. It was set up by the chance of the draw, as no crew is seeded for Henley.

Two American crews, Cornell's lightweights and Eliot House of Harvard, qualified for the quarter-finals of the Thames Challenge Cup, Henley's No. 2 event for eight-oared crews, and two U.S. schoolboy eights reached the quarter-finals of the Princess Elizabeth Cup.

Cornell's lightweights, unbeaten in two years, came out one-half length ahead of the Northeastern University varsity, which outweighed the Cornellians 20 pounds per man. Eliot House outdistanced the Garda Siochane Boat Club of Ireland.

Phillips Academy of Andover, Mass., easily beat England's Nautical College, Pangbourne, and Tabor Academy of Marion, Mass., gained an even easier victory over the Leys School of England in the schoolboy races.

Vesper won because it was heavier than Harvard—12½ pounds per man—and more experienced. Harvard jumped into the lead in a very fast start but by the half mile mark Vesper had edged a few feet ahead. Then the Philadelphians spurted into a one-length lead in a few hundred yards. Harvard, rowing with grim determination, cut that lead in half but never got any closer.

Afterwards Vesper Coach Allen Rosenberg, a 33-year-old Philadelphia attorney who rebuilt the Olympic crew this year with oarsmen recruited from other clubs, had this to say:

"As of today, Harvard is not the greatest. Nor for that matter would I say my crew was the greatest.

"I think some news media did the Harvard boys a disservice. They were under tremendous pressure to win. Their clippings depended on the race."

Four former Yale oarsmen, now Oxford students but rowing for Britain's Leander Club, turned in one of the day's most impressive feats. Ed Trippe, Duncan Spencer, Bill Fink and Harry Howells won a heat in the Prince Philip Cup for coxed fours by 50 yards from England's Hollingsworth Lake Rowing Club.

In another coxed four race, St. Mark's School of Southborough, Mass., was eliminated by a heavier four from England's Thames Rowing Club.

Peter Virsis and Francis Sulger of the New York A.C. were knocked out of the double sculls by a speedy German pair, Manfred Haake and Joachim Bruckhandler from East Berlin. Another East German pair, Oeter Gorny and Ginter Bergau, clipped 10 seconds off the Henley record when they won their heat in the Silver Goblets for paired oars in 7:35.

440 Record Set In Gal's AAU Meet

Columbus, Ohio (AP)—Cleveland's Madeline Manning breezed to a U.S. girls' record in the 440-yard run in preliminaries of the National AAU Outdoor Girls' and Women's Track and Field Championships Thursday night.

The Ohio teen-ager, running for the Cleveland Recreation Division, was clocked in :56.8. The old marks were :57.9 for the U.S. girls under 17 standard by Charlotte Cook and :58.5 for the AAU meet by Shirley Wilson.

Both Charlotte and Shirley were members of the 1964 champion Compton, Calif., Track Club, but had to forego the 1965 meet because of "an unfortunate situation," as West Coast sources put it.

The Compton club was dissolved due to reported internal dissension.

In an ther feature of the opening night in the girls' division preliminaries Tammy Davis of Frederick, Md., equalled her own national and AAU record of :06.6 for the 50-yard hurdles.

N 3—

Barbara Ferrell of the Los Angeles Mercurettes and Jenda Jones of Phoenix, Ariz., were outstanding in the dash trials. Barbara posted the best times in the 50-yard dash with :05.9 and the 220 with :25.1. Jenda won her heats in all three dashes—the 50 in :06.0, the 100 in a meet record matching :10.9, and the 220 in :25.3.

Susie Byersdorfer of the Sacramento, Calif., Will's Spikettes paced the 880-yard run qualifiers with a 2:20.6. Lynn Graham of the L.A. Mercurettes led discus preliminaries with a 136-7½ heave.

Women's trials are Friday night and Saturday morning, with finals Saturday night determining United States representation in the women's portion of the U.S.-Soviet Union meet in Kiev opening July 31.

Longshot Pays Off In Trot

Not only did the big bay owned by Kenneth Owen of Houtson, Tex., manage to collar all his rivals, he also streaked to a national season's record for gait, age and sex on a half-mile track of 2:02 2-5.

Noble Victory, who has lost just one race—a dash of the Castleton farm Stake last fall—raced on the outside all the way and took the lead midway in the stretch. He won by two lengths.

Cornelius Shoots 71, Takes Lead

Northfield, N.J. (AP)—Cathy Cornelius of Rancho Santa Fe, Calif., putted her way to a one-under-par 71 Thursday for a one stroke lead over Marlene Bauer Hagge in the first round of the Women's National Open Golf Championship.

It was the only under par round over the 6,220-yard, par 72 Atlantic City County Club course, which was buffeted by 30 miles per hour winds and harrassed by sun-basking turtles and hungry sea gulls.

Mrs. Cornelius, 32, wife of a professional and 1956 winner of this title, blasted out of traps, chipped and putted brilliantly in setting a competitive course record for women.

She had seven one-putt greens, coming out of traps to save pars on three holes.

She chipped to within inches on the second hole, almost holed out her tee shot on the short eighth and ran in a 30-foot putt from the fringe on the 11th for her birdies.

Mrs. Hagge rallied after taking a pair of sixes on the front nine and shot an incoming 3-under-par 32 for 72.

She had two strokes on the three-time National Women's Amateur winner, Mrs. Anne Quast Welts of Mt. Vernon, Wash., who birdied the first and last holes and sank two long putts for a 74.

The wind blew directly into the faces of the players on the 10th, 13th, 14th and 15th holes and caused collapses among some of the leading contenders

Also at 79 and faced with a struggle to survive the Friday cutoff reducing the field to the low 40 and ties, were Patty Berg, Phyllis Pruess, and Barbara Romack, and the popular French girl Catherine Lacoste.

Louise Suggs three-putted the fourth hole when a turtle meandered across her putting path and she finished with 76.

She was bracketed with Mary Mills of Handsboro, Miss., 1963 winner; Sandra Palmer of Fort Worth, Tex.; July Torluemke of North Key Largo, Fla., and amateur Mrs. Maxon Beger, the former Cookie Swift, of Eggertsville, N.Y.

Mrs. Cornelius, who said she plans to quit the tour after this year to help her husband and to give more time to their 11-year-old daughter, called her round the best ever for her in the Open.

"I never putted better," she said.

—A DUFFER'S DELIGHT—

New Golf Ball Can't Be Cut

New York (AP)—The man said he had a new golf ball which wouldn't cut, would keep its shape, would maintain its resiliency and would meet all the necessary standards.

"Yes, indeed," the man replied. "I'll send you the ball and a hammer so you can test it."

Well, the ball and a sharp-pointed hammer arrived Thursday and we tested it, surrounded by unbelieving duffers in the office.

The man who created this ball, called Long Play and which now is being marketed in leading department stores, is a non-golfer, researcher Harry L. Landes.

He now is president of Lander Products, Inc., of Trenton, N.J., which is manufacturing the chemically-produced ball.

How did a non-golfer come up with what he calls an indestructible ball?

"If one of my associates had not been a golfer," said Landers, "the ball never would have been discovered. The thought never would have entered my mind."

Landers was experimenting in rubber chemistry to produce, in a special vulcanization process utilizing the Philipps elastomers, a material which could withstand great pressures in a saline conversion unit he is developing.

In order to test the material's resiliency on the device he had at hand, it was necessary to shape the substance into a ball approximately the size of a golf ball. It was at this point, said Landers, that an associate said "why not a golf ball?"

Landers said it took many months of intense laboratory experimentation to meet the required standards of the U.S. Golf Association for size, weight and degree of resiliency.

"Most golfers consider themselves lucky to get two or three complete rounds out of the conventional ball," said Landers. "The LP has been tested for hundreds of rounds without losing any of its original characteristics."

That is unless you hit one in the water or over a fence.

Softball Game Sets Record For Longevity

Wayne, N.J. (AP)—"They're crazy, but at least we know where they were last night."

That was the judgment of one of the mothers of a group of Wayne High School students after they finished 170 innings of softball Wednesday.

The 18 teen-agers claimed a new marathon softball world record, upsetting up 2½ hours the standard set 10 days earlier by a group of seniors from Ridge High School, Basking Ridge. The Basking Ridge bunch had smashed a 240-hour record set last year at Portland (Ore.) College.

The local youngsters played from 9 a.m. Tuesday to noon Wednesday. They quit and headed for bed just as rain began to fall.

Speedy Scot, 7 Others In International

Westbury, N.Y. (AP) — Speedy Scot, the barrel-chested Castleton Farm 5-year-old, and seven other seasoned performers seek prestige, $25,000 and the right to represent the United States in Roosevelt's International when they clash in the 1¼ miles of the $50,000 American Trotting Championship at Roosevelt Raceway Friday night.

Only prestige and money will be on the line for the odds-on-favorite Speedy Scot. He's already in the July 10 renewal of the $100,000 International by virtue of his 1964 victory in the classic.

The others, however, need to win the Trotting Championship to qualify to meet seven foreign trotters in the 1¼ miles of the International. A year ago Scottie won both races, setting a world record of 2:31 2-5 in the Trotting Championship.

Speedy Scot's lone fault is that he breaks stride, especially when starting from an inside post position. He has No. 1 for the Trotting Championship.

In 53 career starts, Speedy Scot has been beaten only 11 times and in each of those setbacks he broke stride. His bank roll totals $608,409.

Su Mac Lad, the 11-year-old gelding who tops harness racing's money list with earnings of $835,699, will be after his first victory of the year after three seconds and two thirds in five outings. The Trotting Championship will be Sumie's 143rd lifetime start. He has won 67 times, been second in 40 other starts and third in 15.

The field will be rounded out by Speedy Count, Speedy Rodney, Big John, Express Rodney, Dream High and Martini II.

Aoki Retains Title

Legislature Moves To Shorten Holiday

The Legislature Thursday cut short its 4th of July holiday vacation plans in hopes of heading off a possible financial crisis.

The lawmakers agreed to return next Wednesday after adjourning Friday noon. Originally, a seven-day break was approved.

The action came after Budget Committee Chairman Richard D. Marvel of Hastings explained some state agencies could face a dollar dilemma unless the Legislature passes the supplemental appropriations bill before the end of the month.

He successfully moved to expedite 33 bills calling for expenditures. They must be passed by July 27, he added, or the state will be in fiscal trouble.

Causing the pinch is the statutory requirement that the state property tax levy must be certified to the 93 counties by the state board of equalization no later than Aug. 2.

The board, headed by Gov. Frank Morrison, bases the levy, in part, on legislative appropriations.

It was agreed that if all money bills are not completed in time, legislation should be passed promptly to permit the state board to extend the levy deadline.

"Every bill with fiscal impact must pass by July 27, though, or we've had it," warned Marvel. He added that some state employes would face pay delays among other problems.

Marvel noted the Legislature passed the major portion of the omnibus budget package Wednesday, but said this covered only the University of Nebraska, state colleges and the departments of welfare, education and institutions. More than 40 other state departments and agencies are still awaiting their allocations.

Roads Department Building Site South Of Lincoln Likely

The Legislature Thursday cleared the way for the State Roads Department to construct a new headquarters building south of Lincoln.

Lawmakers approved an amendment to LB891 which had the effect of reversing an earlier legislative decision that the Roads Department would be housed in the proposed state office building complex to be constructed near the capitol.

The new amendment permits the Department of Roads to use $1.2 million for construction of a new building at 14th and Burnham, and reallocates $600,000 originally appropriated to the department to the state office building fund.

The .20 mill levy will raise an estimated $2.9 million. In addition to the $600,000 from the Department of Roads, another $600,000 from the State Game Commission will be added to the fund.

LB891 provides that $650,000 will be used to construct a state laboratories building at the University of Nebraska College of Agriculture campus.

Thus, $3,450,000 will be available for the new central office building.

The amendment, proposed by Sen. Maurice Kremer of Aurora, will save the state about $1 million in construction costs and architect fees, Kremer said.

Sen. Lester Harsh of Bartley said he will later offer an amendment proposing to name the new structure the Centennial Office Building as a monument to the state's 1967 centennial celebration.

Sally White New Alumnus Editor

Sally White of Lincoln was announced Thursday as the new editor of the Nebraska Alumnus Magazine published by the University of Nebraska Alumni Association.

BOOSTERS OF INCOME TAX UNITE

Lincoln Sen. Hal Bauer said Thursday, a state-wide group is forming to boost support for the state income tax in the face of an effort to have the issue placed on the November, 1966, general election ballot.

Bauer said the organization represents a solid cross section of population and economic interests.

"This group includes working people, school people, farmers, organized labor, ranchers, merchants and others," he said.

Main function of the group, he said, is to "fairly and accurately inform the people of the provisions and impact of LB797 and the basic reasons for the bill in the first place.

"These are property tax relief and a revenue system based more on the ability to pay."

The announcement followed a meeting of anti-income tax forces Wednesday evening that was attended by 13 of the 23 state senators who voted against the income tax.

This group announced that each Nebraska county would be organized to get enough petition signatures to get the income tax on the ballot.

Legislature Puts Off Department's Effective Date

The Legislature provided Thursday that the bill creating a proposed new Department of Administrative Services would become effective Oct. 1.

In another amendment adopted on select file, the Legislature provided that the director of the department will "review" all state contracts, rather than "approve" them.

Science Grants To NU And NWU

Washington (AP) — Rep. Clair Callan, D-Neb., announced Thursday that the National Science Foundation has awarded grants to the University of Nebraska and Nebraska Wesleyan University.

The grant to the University of Nebraska is for $25,464, that to Nebraska Wesleyan for $7,286.

Callan said the grants were awarded on application of the schools to be used for science education or research.

Negligence Is Claimed Against Truck Line

Evelyn Sinton filed a $26,000 damage suit in Lancaster District Court Thursday against Rigsby Truck Lines in connection with an Oct. 29, 1961, accidet.

Mrs. Sinton alleges negligence on the part of the trucking firm when one of its vehicles was in collision with the rear of a car in which she was a passenger on U.S. highway 30 approximately 68 miles west of Rawlings, Wyo.

Change In System Of Paying Bounties Tentatively Okayed

Nebraska's Legislature tentatively approved 30-6 Thursday a major departure from Nebraska's county-level system of paying bounties for the destruction of predatory animals.

First round approval was given Waverly Sen. Jerome Warner's LB538 under which federal, state and county governments would in effect join hands to control predators that need control.

Sen. Eric Rasmussen of Fairmont said that under the present program, bounty payments are costing the counties $50,000 to $60,000 per year, and increasing constantly.

LB538 puts the program under the State Agriculture Department. It calls for utilization of U.S. Interior Department resources, and sets up a "predator and rodent fund" to which counties would contribute on the basis of the population or value of cattle, hogs, sheep, chickens and turkeys in each county.

Sen. Rasmussen said Nebraska has 32 lady county clerks, with most of the deputy clerks also being women. He deplored the situation under which these women are required to count, tag and destroy such remains of predators as green coyote scalps, especially when weather gets hot and the remains become pungent.

Sen. Rasmussen asked permission to withdraw his LB612, which would have repealed county bounty laws altogether, but action was deferred in line with Unicameral rules requiring a one day layover.

Approved 29-2 on general file was LB650, authorizing the State Game Commission to spend up to $650,000 to build a warehouse and storage building in Lincoln.

Cut off by late afternoon adjournment was general file floor discussion of LB642, authorizing the establishment of retirement systems for county employes.

Sen. Warner Will Urge Unicameral Appeal Of Redistricting Decision

Sen. Jerome Warner of Waverly said Thursday he will ask the Legislature to appeal from the federal district court decision holdings the latest redistricting law invalid.

He said the purpose will be to decide the question before additional time and money is spent preparing two proposed reapportionment bills.

"There's no use in wasting our time and money processing these bills if in the end the lawmakers want to appeal the order anyway," Warner said. "I think we should decide that matter before we get started."

Earlier this week the 13-member Committee on Committees agreed to draft two reapportionment bills — one crossing county lines and one adhering to them. The bills have not been presented for introduction yet.

Legislature Moves To Shorten Holiday

The Legislature Thursday cut short its 4th of July holiday vacation plans in hopes of heading off a possible financial crisis.

The lawmakers agreed to return next Wednesday after adjourning Friday noon. Originally, a seven-day break was approved.

The action came after Budget Committee Chairman Richard D. Marvel of Hastings explained some state agencies could face a dollar dilemma unless the Legislature passes the supplemental appropriations bill before the end of the month.

He successfully moved to expedite 33 bills calling for expenditures. They must be passed by July 27, he added, or the state will be in fiscal trouble.

Causing the pinch is the statutory requirement that the state property tax levy must be certified to the 93 counties by the state board of equalization no later than Aug. 2.

The board, headed by Gov. Frank Morrison, bases the levy, in part, on legislative appropriations.

It was agreed that if all money bills are not completed in time, legislation should be passed promptly to permit the state board to extend the levy deadline.

"Every bill with fiscal impact must pass by July 27, though, or we've had it," warned Marvel. He added that some state employes would face pay delays among other problems.

Marvel noted the Legislature passed the major portion of the omnibus budget package Wednesday, but said this covered only the University of Nebraska, state colleges and the departments of welfare, education and institutions. More than 40 other state departments and agencies are still awaiting their allocations.

Roads Department Building Site South Of Lincoln Likely

The Legislature Thursday cleared the way for the State Roads Department to construct a new headquarters building south of Lincoln.

Lawmakers approved an amendment to LB891 which had the effect of reversing an earlier legislative decision that the Roads Department would be housed in the proposed state office building complex to be constructed near the capitol.

The new amendment permits the Department of Roads to use $1.2 million for construction of a new building at 14th and Burnham, and reallocates $600,000 originally appropriated to the department to the state office building fund.

The .20 mill levy will raise an estimated $2.9 million. In addition to the $600,000 from the Department of Roads, another $600,000 from the State Game Commission will be added to the fund.

LB891 provides that $650,000 will be used to construct a state laboratories building at the University of Nebraska College of Agriculture campus.

Thus, $3,450,000 will be available for the new central office building.

The amendment, proposed by Sen. Maurice Kremer of Aurora, will save the state about $1 million in construction costs and architect fees, Kremer said.

Sen. Lester Harsh of Bartley said he will later offer an amendment proposing to name the new structure the Centennial Office Building as a monument to the state's 1967 centennial celebration.

This group announced that each Nebraska county would be organized to get enough petition signatures to get the income tax on the ballot.

Legislature Puts Off Department's Effective Date

The Legislature provided Thursday that the bill creating a proposed new Department of Administrative Services would become effective Oct. 1.

The bill, LB173, had originally provided for an effective date of July 1.

In another amendment adopted on select file, the Legislature provided that the director of the department will "review" all state contracts, rather than "approve" them.

Fair Housing Act Revival Try Fails

By DON WALTON
Star Staff Writer

The bill, LB661, had died in the Miscellaneous Subjects Committee upon legislative approval of a motion axing all bills still resting in committees as of last Wednesday.

Efforts to move the bill from committee had deadlocked on several occasions.

Only 12 Backers

Sen. Edward Danner's motion to raise the measure failed on a 12-19 count. Twenty-five affirmative votes were required.

Danner said LB661 would "allow all Nebraskans to obtain housing according to their needs" and pointed particularly to Negro housing problems in Omaha.

Sen. Clifton Batchelder of Omaha said the proposal is "absolutely unconstitutional," and suggested that the effort to revive was based "on proposed urban renewal being contemplated by the new city administration in Omaha."

Shabby Order'

Sen. Eric Rasmussen of Fairmont, chairman of the committee in which the bill died, said he agrees with the proposal in theory, but the mechanics of the measure are "in shabby order."

The committee considered two separate drafts of the housing act, including one lifted from Colorado statutes. The governor's office helped draft the second offering.

The bill triggered a civil rights demonstration at the Statehouse last March, when several hundred persons marched in 10-degree weather and sat in on the Legislature's morning session.

Prohibited

Fair Housing Act Revival Try Fails

By DON WALTON
Star Staff Writer

The bill, LB661, had died in the Miscellaneous Subjects Committee upon legislative approval of a motion axing all bills still resting in committees as of last Wednesday.

Efforts to move the bill from committee had deadlocked on several occasions.

Only 12 Backers

Sen. Edward Danner's motion to raise the measure failed on a 12-19 count. Twenty-five affirmative votes were required.

Danner said LB661 would "allow all Nebraskans to obtain housing according to their needs" and pointed particularly to Negro housing problems in Omaha.

Sen. Clifton Batchelder of Omaha said the proposal is "absolutely unconstitutional," and suggested that the effort to revive was based "on proposed urban renewal being contemplated by the new city administration in Omaha."

Shabby Order'

Sen. Eric Rasmussen of Fairmont, chairman of the committee in which the bill died, said he agrees with the proposal in theory, but the mechanics of the measure are "in shabby order."

The committee considered two separate drafts of the housing act, including one lifted from Colorado statutes. The governor's office helped draft the second offering.

The bill triggered a civil rights demonstration at the Statehouse last March, when several hundred persons marched in 10-degree weather and sat in on the Legislature's morning session.

Prohibited

Voting to revive were Senators Danner, Sam Klaver, Eugene Mahoney, Harold Moylan and William Skarda, all of Omaha; Hal Bauer, John Knight and Fern Hubbard Orme, all of Lincoln, and Terry Carpenter of Scottsbluff, Albert Kjar of Lexington, Maurice Kremer of Aurora, and Harold Stryker of Rising City.

BE IT ORDAINED BY THE CITY COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF LINCOLN, NEBRASKA:

SECTION 1. FINDINGS AND DETERMINATIONS. The Council of the City of Lincoln, Nebraska hereby finds and determines:

The Lincoln General Hospital is a city hospital, the governing board of which is appointed by the Council of the City of Lincoln, Nebraska, which city is a city of the primary class. It is necessary and desirable for the general welfare and the promotion and protection of the health of the inhabitants of the City of Lincoln that additional hospital facilities be provided by the improvement and extension of the Lincoln General Hospital, the cost of which improvements and extensions and the furnishing and equipping thereof is presently estimated at $6,725,000, and in any event will be not less than $4,425,000. In order to pay part of such cost the City of Lincoln has levied for several years past an annual mill tax to provide a building fund therefor, and application for Hill-Burton funds has been made under appropriate federal and state laws. The Lincoln Hospital Association, a non-profit corporation, the governing board of which is appointed by the Council of the City of Lincoln and the general nature of the business of which is, in substance, to provide hospital facilities for said City, has available certain moneys to pay part of such cost, and has proposed verbally to the City through its governing board that if said City shall authorize by an ordinance substantially in the form of this Ordinance, the issuance of not less than $3,600,000 principal amount of revenue bonds of said City for the purpose of paying the cost of the aforesaid improvements, extensions, furnishings and equippings and shall sell such bonds, said Association (a) would agree, assuming such consent by it were required therefor, to the application by said City of all revenues derived from the operation of the Lincoln General Hospital, both as now existing and as so improved and extended, to the payment of the principal and interest of said bonds and of any completion bonds and additional bonds issued under said ordinance, the establishment and maintenance of reserves therefor, the payment of the costs of operation and maintenance of said hospital and the carrying out of the provisions of such ordinance; (b) would assign to the City all the right, title and interest, if any, of the Lincoln Hospital Association in and to the revenues of the Lincoln General Hospital; (c) would pay over to the City all moneys held by the Lincoln Hospital Association for the development of said hospital available for the payment of the cost of the aforesaid improvements, extensions, furnishings and equippings; (d) would covenant that, in the event the revenues derived from the Lincoln General Hospital as improved and extended shall be insufficient, together with any other moneys of the City lawfully applied thereto, to pay the principal and interest of such revenue bonds and the costs of operation and maintenance of the hospital, said Association will pay over to the City for the purposes of such payment all moneys and funds, if any, then held or possessed by the Lincoln Hospital Association, or to which it may then be entitled, to the extent of such insufficiency and to the extent that such moneys and funds may lawfully be so paid over for such purposes; and (e) would execute such contracts, agreements, assignments, leases and other instruments that may be deemed necessary by the City Attorney in order to evidence, confirm, effectuate or carry out said proposal. Said Association has further verbally provided through its governing board that the foregoing proposal shall be deemed to have been accepted by said City when the City shall have authorized the issuance of the aforesaid bonds in an amount not less than $3,600,000 for the aforesaid purposes and that said proposal shall be for the benefit of said Association, the City of Lincoln and the holders of all Bonds (including Completion Bonds and Additional Bonds) issued under the aforesaid ordinance, as their interests made appear.

The Council of the City of Lincoln hereby further finds and determines that in order to pay the costs of the aforesaid improvements, extensions, furnishings and equippings, it is necessary that the City of Lincoln authorize the issuance and sale of its revenue bonds in the principal amount of $3,600,000.

SECTION 6. PAYMENT OF 1965 BONDS, COMPLETION BONDS AND ADDITIONAL BONDS; HOSPITAL FUND AND ACCOUNTS THEREIN; FLOW OF MONEYS. The 1965 Bonds, any Completion Bonds and any Additional Bonds, together with the interest thereon, shall be payable in such coin or currency of the United States of America which at the time of such payment is legal tender for the payment of public and private debts solely from the gross revenues of the Lincoln General Hospital, which revenues shall be and hereby are pledged to the punctual payment of the principal of and interest on said Bonds and to the security thereof in accordance with the provisions of this Ordinance. Said Bonds shall not in any event be a debt of said City within the meaning of any constitutional, statutory, or charter limitation upon the creation of general obligation indebtedness of the City, nor shall they impose any general liability upon the City, and the City shall not be liable for the payment thereof out of any funds of the City other than the gross revenues of the Lincoln General Hospital and the Lincoln General Hospital Fund hereinafter in this section created, into which fund such revenues shall be deposited.

The foregoing pledge shall be valid and binding from the time of the enactment of this Ordinance, and the moneys representing the aforesaid gross revenues shall be immediately subject to said pledge upon receipt thereof by the City (including by the Lincoln General Hospital) without any physical delivery or further act. The holders of the 1965 Bonds, any Completion Bonds and any Additional Bonds shall have a lien on said gross revenues subject to the provisions and conditions of this Ordinance.

The Lincoln General Hospital shall be operated on a fiscal year basis, which fiscal year shall be the same as the fiscal year established from time to time for the government of the City. From and after the delivery of the 1965 Bonds, all the gross revenues of the Lincoln General Hospital shall be collected daily and shall be set aside as collected and deposited in a separate fund of the City hereby created, to be designated as the "Lincon General Hospital Fund" (herein called the "Hospital Fund"), which fund shall be maintained hereafter and shall be held by the Treasurer of the City, who shall not commingle any of the moneys in said fund with any other moneys under his control. The Hospital Fund and the moneys deposited therein shall be used and applied only in the manner and for the purposes hereinafter provided in this section, and said moneys shall be withdrawn from said fund for such purposes only in accordance with such procedures as is provided by law.

There are hereby created five separate special accounts in the Hospital Fund, such separate special accounts to be designated severally as the "Bond and Interest Account," "Reserve Account," "Operation and Maintenance Account," "Extraordinary Repairs and Replacement Account," and "Surplus Account," into which there shall be credited on the first business day of each month from the moneys then held in the Hospital Fund, the following amounts in accordance with the following provisions and in the following order:

FIRST: There are hereby created three sub-accounts in the Bond and Interest Account, to be designated the "Interest Account" (the "Serial Bond Principal Account" and the "Term Bond Sinking Fund Account" (the latter being herein referred to as the "Sinking Fund Account"), into which sub-accounts credits shall be made as follows:

(A). For the purpose of paying the interest on the 1965 Bonds, commencing with the first business day of the month following the month in which the 1965 Bonds have been delivered, and on the first business day of each month thereafter, there shall be credited to the Interest Account an amount such that, if the same amount were so credited to this sub-account on the first business day of each succeeding month thereafter prior to the next date upon which an installment of interest falls due on the 1965 Bonds, the aggregate of the amounts so credited to this sub-account will on such interest payment date be equal to the installment of intrest falling due on such date on the 1965 Bonds. In the event of the issuance of Completion Bonds and Additional Bonds, commencing with the first business day of the month following the month in which such Cmpletion Bonds or Additional Bonds, as the case may be, are delivered, and on the first business day of each month thereafter, the monthly credits required by the preceding sentence shall be increased by that amount such that, if the same increased amount were so credited to the Interest Account on the first business day of each succeeding month thereafter prior to the next date upon which an installment of interest falls due upon the said Completion Bonds or Additional Bonds, as the case may be, the aggregate of the increased amounts so credited to this sub-account will on such interest payment date be equal to the installment of interest falling due on such date on the said Completion Bonds or Additional Bonds as the case may be, so as to provide for the payment of the interest on such Completion Bonds or Additional Bonds. In making the credits to the Interest Account required by this paragraph, consideration shall be given to and allowance made for accrued interest received upon the sale of the 1965 Bonds, Completion Bonds or Additional Bonds, interest capitalized from the proceeds of such Bonds, earnings realized and received on the investment of moneys in this sub-account and any other credits otherwise made to said sub-account.

(B). For the purpose of retiring the 1965 Bonds maturing July 1 in each of the years 1968 to 1980, commencing with the first business day of the month of July, 1967, and on the first business day of each month thereafter, there shall be credited to the Serial Bond Principal Account an amount such that, if the same amount were so credited to this sub-account on the first business day of each succeeding month thereafter prior to the next date on which any of the aforesaid 1965 Bond matures, the aggregate of the amounts so credited to this sub-account will on such next maturity date be equal to the principal of such 1965 Bonds becoming due on such date. In the event of the issuance of any Completion Bonds or Additional Bonds as serial bonds or in serial form, the proceedings authorizing the issuance of such Completion Bonds or Additional Bonds shall provide for additional monthly credits to this sub-account commencing with the first business day of the month which is twelve months prior to the first maturity date of any such Completion Bonds or Additional Bonds issued in serial form, so that in like and similar manner the payment of the principal of any such Completion Bonds or Additional Bonds issued in serial form shall be provided for. In making any of the credits to the Serial Bond Principal Account required by this paragraph, consideration shall be given to and allowance made for any earnings realized and received on the investment of moneys in this sub-account or for any other credits otherwise made to said sub-account.

(C). For the purpose of retiring the 1965 Bonds maturing July 1, 1963, commencing with the first business day of the month of July, 1980, and on the first business day of each month thereafter, there shall be credited to the Sinking Fund Account an amount such that, if the same amount were so credited to this sub-account on the first business day of each succeeding month thereafter prior to the next ensuing July 1, the aggregate of the amounts so credited to this sub-account would on such next ensuing July 1 be equal to the respective amounts specified opposite such next ensuing July 1, as follows:

Date	Amount	Date	Amount
July 1, 1981	$140,000	July 1, 1988	$185,000
July 1, 1982	145,000	July 1, 1989	190,000
July 1, 1983	150,000	July 1, 1990	200,000
July 1, 1984	160,000	July 1, 1991	205,000
July 1, 1985	165,000	July 1, 1992	210,000
July 1, 1986	170,000	July 1, 1993	220,000
July 1, 1987	175,000

In the event of issuance of any Completion Bonds or Additional Bonds in the form of term bonds, the proceedings authorizing the issuance of such Bonds shall provide for additional monthly credits to this sub-account so that in like and similar manner the retirement of any such Completion Bonds or Additional Bonds issued in the form of term bonds will be provided for. In making the credits to this sub-account required by this paragraph, consideration shall be given to and allowance made for earnings realized and received on the investment of moneys in this sub-account or any credits otherwise made to this sub-account. The moneys credited to this Sinking Fund Account for the purpose of providing for the retirement of the 1965 Bonds maturing July 1, 1993 shall, without further authorization or direction of the Council of the City, be applied by the Director of Finance on each July 1 set forth above in this paragraph, to the redemption of said 1965 Bonds in the respective principal amount specified opposite each such date, and in like and similar fashion the moneys credited to this sub-account to provide for the retirement of any Completion Bonds or Additional Bonds issued in the form of term bonds, shall also be applied by said Director, without further authorization or direction of said Council, on each date on which a Sinking Fund Account installment for said Bonds is due, to the redemption of said Completion Bonds or Additional Bonds, in the respective principal amounts required to be credited to this sub-account on such dates. The Director of Finance shall give notice of all such redemptions, in the name and on behalf of the City, in accordance with the provisions of Section 4 hereof. The Director of Finance may also, without further authorization or direction of the Council, apply the moneys credited to this sub-account for the retirement of the aforesaid 1965 Bonds to the purchase of said Bonds, and in like and similar fashion may apply the moneys credited hereto for the retirement of Completion Bonds or Additional Bonds issued in term form to the purchase of such Bonds, in which events the principal amount of said Bonds required to be redeemed on the next respective ensuing Sinking Fund Account installment date shall be reduced by the principal amount of said Bonds so purchased; provided, however, that no 1965 Bonds or Additional Bonds or Completion Bonds, as the case may be, shall be purchased during the interval between the date on which notice of redemption of said Bonds from Sinking Fund Account installments is given and the date of redemption set forth in such notice, unless the Bonds so purchased are Bonds called for redemption in such notice or are purchased from moneys other than those credited to this sub-account, and provided further, that no purchases of Bonds shall be made if such purchase would require the sale at a loss of securities credited to the Sinking Fund Account unless the difference between the actual purchase price (including accrued interest and any brokerage or other charge) paid for such Bonds and the then maximum purchase price (plus accrued interest) permitted to be paid therefor, is greater than the loss upon the sale of any such securities. Any purchase of Bonds pursuant to this paragraph may be made with or without tenders of Bonds and at either public or private sale, but in any event at a purchase price (including accrued interest and any brokerage or other charge) not to exceed the principal amount thereof and the then applicable redemption premium, if any, plus accrued interest. All Bonds purchased or redeemed pursuant to this paragraph shall be cancelled and not reissued.

Moneys credited to the Bond and Interest Account shall be used and applied solely to the payment of the interest on and the retirement of the principal of the 1965 Bonds, Completion Bonds and Additional Bonds and shall be so used and applied in accordance with this part FIRST. The moneys credited to said account shall be transferred to the respective paying agents for said Bonds and the coupons pertaining thereto in such amounts and at such times as shall be necessary to pay the principal, premium, if any, and interest on said Bonds as the same become due and payable, whether upon the maturity, the redemption or the purchase thereof.

SECOND: Commencing with the first day of the month following the month in which the 1965 Bonds are delivered, and on the first business day of each month thereafter, after making the credits required by part FIRST of this section, there shall next be credited to the Reserve Account an amount such that, if the same amount were so credited to said Account on the first day of each succeeding month thereafter prior to July 1, 1967, the aggregate of the amounts so paid and credited to the Reserve Account will on July 1, 1967, be equal to twice the maximum aggregate debt service requirement in any future fiscal year for the 1965 Bonds. In the event of issuance of Completion Bonds or Additional Bonds, the proceedings authorizing the issuance of such Bonds shall provide for additional monthly credits to the Reserve Account, such additional credits to commence by not later than the then estimated termination of the Period of Construction (as defined in Section 13 hereof) of the facilities to be financed from the Bonds being issued, and to be in such amounts so that the aggregate of such additional amounts so credited will, by no later than the earlier of (i) the day which is five years from the date of such Completion Bonds or Additional Bonds, as the case may be, and (ii) the first day on which credits are required to be made to the Serial Bond Principal Account or the Sinking Fund Account to provide for the retirement of any such Completion Bonds or Additional Bonds, be equal to twice the aggregate debt service requirement to accrue in any fiscal year with respect to such Completion Bonds or Additional Bonds, as the case may be; provided, however, that the City may in the proceedings authorizing the issuance of Completion Bonds or Additional Bonds provide for payments into the Reserve Account from the proceeds of such Completion Bonds or Additional Bonds or from moneys in the Surplus Account or from any other moneys lawfully available therefor, in which event, in providing for the additional credits into the Reserve Account required by the foregoing provisions of this paragraph, allowance shall be made for any such amounts so paid into this Account. Subject to all the foregoing, the amount to the credit of the Reserve Account shall at all times be maintained at twice the maximum aggregate debt service requirement for any future fiscal year for all 1965 Bonds, Completion Bonds and Additional Bonds outstanding, and any moneys to the credit of the Reserve Account over and above twice such maximum amount shall be deemed to be surplus moneys and shall be transferred to the Surplus Account, to be used and applied as are other moneys in that Account. Whenever any money is paid out of the Reserve Account or whenever there shall be a deficiency in said account, the monthly credits required by this part SECOND shall immediately be increased or resumed, as the case may be, from the first moneys available therefor, and continued until the amount withdrawn is replaced or the amount of the deficiency satisfied. The moneys to the credit of the Reserve Account shall be used and applied solely for the purpose of paying principal, redemption premium or interest on the 1965 Bonds, Completion Bonds and Additional Bonds when due, and shall be so applied whenever there are insufficient moneys credited to the Bond and Interest Account to meet such payments. Before, however, applying any of the moneys to the credit of the Reserve Account to said purpose, there shall first be applied to said purpose all moneys then held in the Hospital Fund to the credit of the Surplus Account and the Extraordinary Repairs and Replacement Account.

THIRD: Commencing with the first business day of the month following the month in which the 1965 Bonds are delivered and on the first business day of each month thereafter, after the credits required by parts FIRST and SECOND of this section have been made, there shall then be credited to the Operation and Maintenance Account an amount sufficient, together with any other moneys that may be an are lawfully applied thereto, to pay the reasonable costs of operation and maintenance of the Lincoln General Hospital, including, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, salaries, wages, costs of materials and supplies, routine repairs, renewals, replacements and alterations occurring in the usual course of business, insurance, and audits, which amount shall be applied to the payment of such costs.

FOURTH: Commencing with the first business day of the month following the month in which the 1965 Bonds are delivered and on the first business day of each month thereafter, after the credits required by parts FIRST, SECOND and THIRD of this section have been made, there shall then be credited to the Extraordinary Repairs and Replacement Account such substantially equal monthly amounts so that by July 1, 1971, there shall be on credit to this account the sum of $200,000. In the event of the issuance of any Additional Bonds, the proceedings authorizing the issuance of such Bonds shall provide for additional monthly credits to this account, such additional credits to commence by no later than the then estimated termination of the Period of Construction (as defined in Section 16 hereof) of the facilities to be financed from the Bonds being issued, and to be in such amounts so that by the sixth anniversary of the date of such Additional Bonds the aggregate of such further additional amounts then on credit to this account shall equal five per cent of the total principal amount of issuance of such Additional Bonds. PROVIDED, HOWEVER, that the City shall not be deemed to be in default or in violation of the provisions of this part FOURTH so long as by July 1, 1971, there shall be on credit to this account the sum of $200,000, and so long as in the event of the issuance of Additional Bonds there shall be on credit to this account by the sixth anniversary of the date of such Additional Bonds a further additional amount equal to five per cent of the total principal amount of issuance of such Additional Bonds, but nothing in this proviso shall be construed to relieve the City from its obligation to make the required monthly credits to this account to the extent that moneys are available therefor in the Hospital Fund or in the Surplus Fund. Subject to the foregoing, the amount to the credit of the Extraordinary Repairs and Replacement Account shall at all times be maintained at the greater of $200,000 or five per cent of the total issuance of 1965 Bonds, Completion Bonds and Additional Bonds, and any moneys to the credit of this account over and above such greater amount shall be deemed to be surplus moneys and shall be transferred to the Surplus Account, to be used and applied as are other moneys in said account. Whenever any money is paid out of the Extraordinary Repairs and Replacement Account, or whenever there shall be a deficiency in said account the monthly credits required by this part FOURTH shall be immediately increased or resumed, as the case may be, from the first moneys available therefor and continued until the amount withdrawn is replaced or the amount of the deficiency satisfied. Moneys credited to the Extraordinary Repairs and Replacement Account shall be used and applied to the payment of the principal and interest of the 1965 Bonds, Completion Bonds and Additional Bonds when due, in the event that the moneys then credited to the Bond and Interest Account and the Surplus Account are insufficient for such purpose. Moneys credited to the Extraordinary Repairs and Replacement Account shall also be used and applied in such manner as shall be directed by the Council to the restoration and repair of any damage (other than routine wear-and-tear) not covered by insurance and to the making of such extraordinary renewals, replacements, renovations, alterations, furnishings and equippings not occurring in the usual and routine course as are deemed necessary by the Council in order to maintain the Lincoln General Hospital as a revenue-producing enterprise or to maintain or increase the revenues derived from the operation thereof, and shall be applied to such purposes.

FIFTH: Commencing with the first business day of the month following the month in which the 1965 Bonds are delivered and on the first business day of each month thereafter, after the credits required by parts FIRST through FOURTH of this section have been made (including the crediting to the foregoing accounts of such amounts as are necessary to make up any insufficiencies, in the event that the moneys on hand in the Hospital Fund at any time were insufficient to make the monthly credits thereto required by such parts), all moneys then remaining in the Hospital Fund shall be credited to the Surplus Account. Moneys credited to the Surplus Account shall be used only for the following purposes:

(a) If the moneys then credited to the Bond and Interest Account are insufficient therefor, the payment of the principal of and interest and redemption premium on the 1965 Bonds, Completion Bonds and Additional Bonds when due;

(b) In the event that any deficiencies exist in the Bond and Interest Account, the Reserve Account, the Operation and Maintenance Account or the Extraordinary Repairs and Replacement Account, the making up of such deficiencies; and

(c) All sums remaining in said Surplus Account after making up any deficiencies necessary to credit the accounts FIRST through FOURTH, as hereinabove provided, shall be held in said Surplus Account and shall be used as directed by the Council for paying the cost of improvements, enlargements, extensions or betterments to the Lincoln General Hospital; or for the making of any repairs to or replacements thereof; or for the purchase and acquisition of any furnishings or equipment necessary therefor; or for calling and redeeming or purchasing Bonds; or for accelerating the payments required to be made into the Reserve Account or the Extraordinary Repairs and Replacement Account, so long as the amounts transferred from the Surplus Account to said accounts would not cause the amounts then credited to said accounts to exceed the maximum amounts required to be maintained therein; or for the carrying out of any other provisions of this Ordinance; or for any other lawful purpose in connection with said hospital; provided, however, that any purchases or redemptions of Bonds made pursuant to this subsection (c) shall not relieve the City of its obligation to make the purchases or redemptions of Bonds required by paragraph (C) of part FIRST of this section; and provided further, nothing in this subsection (c) shall be construed to prohibit the City Council from ordering and directing at any time or from time to time that all or a portion of the moneys credited to the Surplus Account be used to pay principal of or interest on any outstanding bonds or notes of said City which by their terms are payable from the revenues derived from the operation of the Lincoln General Hospital as the same matures, or in calling and redeeming said bonds or notes prior to maturity in accordance with their terms.

In the event that the moneys in the Surplus Account are applied to the purchase or redemption of Bonds, and if more than one series of Bonds shall then be outstanding hereunder, the City shall determine from which series such purchases or redemptions shall be made and may elect that all such purchases or redemptions shall be made from only one series or from more than one series. Any purchases of Bonds may be made with or without tenders of Bonds and at either public or private sale, but in any event at a purchase price (including accrued interest and any brokerage or other charge) not to exceed the principal amount thereof, the then applicable redemption premium if the Bonds to be purchased are then subject to redemption, or the applicable redemption premium payable on their next ensuing redemption date if the Bonds being purchased are not then subject to redemption, plus accrued interest. All Bonds so purchased or redeemed shall be cancelled and not reissued.

It is the intent of this section that if at any time the gross revenues are insufficient to make the monthly credits to be made pursuant to parts FIRST through FOURTH above, the deficiencies shall immediately be made up from the moneys in the Surplus Account in order of priority of claims upon the gross revenues as hereinbefore set forth. If the moneys in the Surplus Account are insufficient to make up all such deficiencies, they shall be made up the following month or months from the gross revenues in the order of such priority.

Subject at all times to the provisions of applicable law, all moneys resulting from grants, gifts, contributions, donations, bequests and devises received by the City for hospital purposes or resulting from appropriations made or received by the City for such purposes, shall, if and to the extent compatible and consistent with the terms, conditions and provisions of such appropriations, grants, gifts, contributions, donations, bequests and devises, be deposited in the Hospital Fund for credit to the proper and relevant account therein and applied in accordance with the provisions of parts FIRST through FIFTH of this Section 6; PROVIDED, HOWEVER, that this paragraph shall not be construed to require in any way the application of such moneys contrary to such terms, conditions and provisions or applicable law.

All moneys deposited in the Hospital Fund shall be withdrawn therefrom only in accordance with the procedures provided by applicable law.

SECTION 7. INVESTMENT OF MONEYS IN FUNDS AND ACCOUNTS; MONEYS HELD IN TRUST. Moneys on deposit in the Hospital Fund which shall not have yet been credited to an account therein in accordance with Section 6 hereof and moneys credited to a sub-account in the Bond and Interest Account and to the Operation and Maintenance Account may, to the extent practicable and reasonable, be invested in direct obligations of, or obligations the payment of the principal and interest of which is unconditionally guaranteed by, the United States of America, maturing in the case of moneys invested from the Hospital Fund by not later than the first business day of the month next following such investment, and maturing in the case of moneys invested from the sub-accounts in the Bond and Interest Account and from the Operation and Maintenance Account, at such times and in such amounts as shall be required to provide moneys to make the payments required to be made from said sub-accounts and said account. Moneys on deposit in the Construction Fund hereinafter created and moneys credited to the Reserve Account, the Extraordinary Repairs and Replacement Account, and the Surplus Account shall, to the extent reasonable and practicable, be invested in direct obligations of, or obligations the payment of the principal and interest of which is unconditionally guaranteed by the United States of America, maturing or redeemable at stated fixed prices at the option of the holder, (a) in the case of moneys invested from the Construction Fund, at such times and in such amounts as the Director of Finance and the architects, if any, appointed or employed with respect to the additions, extensions, expansions and improvements to be financed from the Construction Fund, shall deem necessary to provide moneys to make the payments required to be made from such Fund; (b) in the case of moneys invested from the Reserve Account, by not later than eight years from the date of such investment; (c) in the case of moneys invested from the Extraordinary Repairs and Replacement Account, by not later than five years from the date of such investment; and (d) in the case of moneys invested from the Surplus Account, at such times and in such amounts as shall be required in accordance with the plans of the City for the use of the moneys credited to said Account. All interest and income from investments made pursuant to this section shall, when realized and collected, be credited to the respective fund or account or sub-account from which such investments were made. Unless invested as provided in this section, all moneys in the foregoing funds, accounts and sub-accounts shall be secured in the manner provided by law for the securing of public funds of cities of the class of which Lincoln is one.

Until used and applied in accordance with this Ordinance, all moneys held in the Hospital Fund, including in any of the accounts or sub-accounts therein, and all moneys held in the Construction Fund hereinafter established, and the securities in which such moneys may from time to time be invested, shall, subject to applicable law, be held in trust for the equal and ratable benefit and security of the holders of the 1965 Bonds, Completion Bonds and Additional Bonds then outstanding. All moneys held by any paying agent for the payment of principal, interest and premium of said Bonds, including any moneys held by the County Treasurer of Lancaster County for such purpose, shall be held by such agent or treasurer in trust for the equal and ratable benefit and security of the Bonds for which moneys have been so set aside.

SECTION 8. COVENANT AS TO RATES AND CHARGES FOR LINCOLN GENERAL HOSPITAL. The City shall establish, maintain, revise and collect charges and rates for the use and services of the Lincoln General Hospital so that the gross revenues of said hospital shall at all times be at least sufficient, together with all other moneys which may be and are lawfully applied to any or all of the following, to provide for all costs associated with the ownership, operation, maintenance, renewal and replacement of said hospital, the payment of the principal and interest on all 1965 Bonds, Completion Bonds and Additional Bonds, and all other indebtedness incurred with respect to said hospital, to provide the Reserve Account and Extraordinary Repairs and Replacement Account, and to otherwise carry out the provisions of this Ordinance, including, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the maintenance of the accounts created in Section 6 hereof; provided, however, that such charges and rates shall always be such so that the net revenues of the Lincoln General Hospital in any fiscal year shall be at least equal to 110% of the aggregate debt service requirement for such fiscal year for all 1965 Bonds, Completion Bonds and Additional Bonds then outstanding.

SECTION 9. INSURANCE. The City shall carry insurance on the Lincoln General Hospital of the kinds and in at least the amounts which are usually carried upon similar properties, including without limiting the generality of the foregoing, extended coverage, fire, operational and professional liability and, unless covered by such operational and professional liability insurance, public liability and malpractice insurance, and also all additional insurance covering such risks as shall be deemed necessary or desirable by the City or recommended by a competent hospital-management consultant or competent insurance counsellor employed for the purpose of making such recommendations. The City shall also carry use and occupancy and business interruption insurance on the Lincoln General Hospital in an amount sufficient to enable the City during the time the gross revenues of the Lincoln General Hospital are reduced as a result of the damage thereto, to deposit in the Bond and Interest Account and the Operation and Maintenance Account out of the proceeds of such insurance and the remaining gross revenues, the amount that would normally have been deposited in such accounts from gross revenues had such damage to the hospital not occurred, and the proceeds of such insurance shall be so applied. PROVIDED, HOWEVER, that this section shall not require the City to carry insurance against any risks or losses to the extent that such risks or losses are covered by or insured under any policies of insurance then in force required by Section 13 hereof. The proceeds of any and all policies for public liability and malpractice shall be paid into the Operation and Maintenance Account and used in paying the claims on account of which they were received. All moneys received for other losses under such insurance policies required by this section shall be credited to the Surplus Account and used only for making good the loss or damage in respect to which they were paid, either by repairing the property damaged or replacing the property destroyed, and provision for making good such loss or damage shall be made within ninety days from the date of the loss. Surplus insurance proceeds remaining after the loss and damage covered thereby have been satisfied or restored shall, unless already credited thereto, be deposited in the Surplus Account and applied as are other moneys credited to said account. The payment of premiums for all insurance policies required under the provisions of this section shall be considered an operation and maintenance expense.

SECTION 10. BOOKS AND ACCOUNTS; INDEPENDENT AUDIT. The City shall keep or cause to be kept, separate and apart from all other records and accounts, proper books and accounts showing correct and complete entries of all financial transactions pertaining to the Lincoln General Hospital. The holders of any of the 1965 Bonds or of any of the Completion Bonds or Additional Bonds or any duly authorized agent or agents of such holders shall have the right at any and all reasonable times to inspect such books, records and accounts and, subject to any medical requirements to be determined by the City in its sole discretion, to inspect the Lincoln General Hospital. Within sixty days following the close of each fiscal year the City shall cause an audit of such books and accounts to be made by an independent firm of certified public accountants, showing the receipts and disbursements for and on account of the Lincoln General Hospital. Each such audit, in addition to whatever matters may be thought proper by the accountant to be included therein shall, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, include the following:

(1) A statement in detail of the receipts and disbursements of the Lincoln General Hospital for such fiscal year, including therein (a) a breakdown of such receipts into categories or classifications of a general nature, such as income routinely derived from the operation of the hospital, grants, appropriations, gifts or contributions, bequests or devises, etc.; (b) the total costs of operation and maintenance of the hospital, whether such costs be paid from the gross revenues thereof or other moneys; and (c) if any expenditures are paid from moneys other than gross revenues as herein defined, showing separately the amount and source of such other moneys and the amount of the expenditures paid therefrom;

(2) A balance sheet as of the end of such fiscal year, showing separately the cash and investments credited to the Funds, Accounts and sub-accounts created by this Ordinance;

(3) Information as to patient days, average daily occupancy and average term of occupancy and percent of occupancy;

(4) The accountant's comments regarding the method in which the City has carried out the requirements of this Ordinance, and the accountant's recommendations for any changes or improvements in the operation of the accounting system pertaining to the hospital; and

(5) A list of all the insurance policies and performance bonds in force at the end of the fiscal year, setting out as to each policy and bond the amount of the policy or bond, the risks covered, the name of the insurer or sureties and the expiration date of the policy or bond.

All expenses incurred in the making of the aforesaid audit shall be regarded and paid as an operation and maintenance expense. A copy of each such audit shall be available for inspection at any time by the holders of any 1965 Bond, Completion Bond or Additional Bond, or his agent, and a summary thereof shall be furnished to the holder of any of said Bonds at his request, and any of said holders shall have the right to discuss with the accountant making the audit the contents of the audit and to ask for any additional information he may reasonably require. When requested in writing monthly statements of receipts and disbursements shall be mailed each month to the original purchasers of the 1965 Bonds, Completion Bonds and Additional Bonds, or to investment banking firms and statistical reporting services.

SECTION 11. CITY TO COMPLETE CONSTRUCTION; TO OPERATE AND MAINTAIN LINCOLN GENERAL HOSPITAL AND NOT TO ALIENATE SAME. The City shall proceed with all reasonable dispatch with the constructing, furnishing and equipping of all additions, extensions, expansions and improvements to the Lincoln General Hospital to be financed from the proceeds of the 1965 Bonds, Completion Bonds or Additional Bonds; shall maintain said hospital in good repair and working order and condition, including the making of all necessary repairs, renewals, equippings, furnishings and replacements thereto; shall continuously operate the same as a revenue-producing facility; and shall not sell, lease, mortgage or otherwise encumber, or in any manner dispose of, the same; provided, however, the provisions of this section shall not prevent the City from disposing of any property which in the judgment of the City is no longer useful or profitable in the operation of said hospital or necessary to produce or maintain the revenues thereof, if the proceeds, if any, from the sale or other disposition of any such property are paid into the Surplus Account and applied as are other moneys credited to said account. The City further agrees that, in the event or to the extent that Hill-Burton Funds are not received by it for the payment of the costs of the extensions and improvements to be financed in part from the proceeds of the 1965 Bonds and Completion Bonds, it will, but only as and to the extent permitted by applicable law and subject at all times to the provisions thereof, provide for the completion of such extensions and improvements to the satisfaction of the Nebraska Advisory Hospital Council and the Nebraska Department of Health.

SECTION 12. PROVISIONS PERTAINING TO LINCOLN HOSPITAL ASSOCIATION. The enactment of this Ordinance shall constitute the acceptance by the City of the proposal of the Lincoln Hospital Association referred to in Section 1 hereof, and if deemed necessary or desirable by the City Attorney, the Mayor and Clerk may execute an instrument evidencing such acceptance. The City shall not agree to any revocation or termination of said proposal or to any modification or amendment thereof which would impair the rights and security, if any, of the holders of the 1965 Bonds, Completion Bonds or Additional Bonds thereunder. In the event that at any time the gross revenues of the Lincoln General Hospital, together with any other moneys that are applied thereto, shall be insufficient to pay the principal and interest of said Bonds and the costs of operation and maintenance of said hospital, the City shall promptly notify the Lincoln Hospital Association as to the amount of such insufficiency and shall collect the amount of such insufficiency from said Association to the extent the Association then possesses, or is entitled to, moneys which may lawfully be applied to such payments; provided, however, that nothing in this section shall be construed to obligate the Lincoln Hospital Association to make any payment for such principal and interest or such costs of operation and maintenance in excess of that amount of moneys which the Association then possesses or to which it may then be entitled and which may then lawfully be applied to such purposes, nor to require said Association to apply any moneys in violation of, or inconsistent with, the terms, conditions and provisions of any appropriations, grants, contributions, donations, bequests or devises; and provided further that this section shall not be construed to prohibit the liquidation or dissolution of the Lincoln Hospital Association so long as all assets of such Association upon such liquidation or dissolution which are not otherwise required to be distributed by law, shall be distributed, transferred and conveyed to the City of Lincoln, to be used and applied for hospital purposes.

SECTION 13. DISPOSITION OF ACCRUED INTEREST AND BOND PROCEEDS; CONSTRUCTION FUND; CONTRACTOR'S PERFORMANCE BOND AND INSURANCE. The proceeds derived from the sale of the 1965 Bonds and of any Completion Bonds (exclusive of accrued interest thereon), and, except as may be provided in the proceedings authorizing the issuance of Additional Bonds, the proceeds derived from the sale of such Additional Bonds, shall be a construction fund, to be used only in carrying out the purposes for which such Bonds shall have been issued. Interest accruing on such Bonds during the Period of Construction may be deemed an item of construction cost and to the extent such interest is not paid from gross revenues, it shall be paid from the proceeds derived from the sale of said Bonds. All accrued interest which may be received from the sale of 1965 Bonds, Completion Bonds and Additional Bonds, together with such portion (if any) of the proceeds of the sale thereof that the City Council shall determine to be set aside representing interest during construction, as aforesaid, shall be deposited in the Hospital Fund and credited to the Interest Account in the Bond and Interest Account, and the balance of the proceeds of said Bonds shall be deposited in the Construction Fund hereinafter created in this section, to be used and applied solely to the purposes of issuance of such Bonds in the manner hereinafter provided. For all purposes of this Ordinance, the "Period of Construction" with respect to any building, facility, extension or addition, the costs of construction of which are to be financed from the proceeds of the 1965 Bonds, Completion Bonds or Additional Bonds, shall mean the period from the date of delivery of such 1965 Bonds, Completion Bonds or Additional Bonds to the date six months from the day on which such building, facility, extension or addition is ready for use and occupancy, or to such earlier date that the City may determine.

There is hereby created and established with the City Treasurer a separate fund within the Hospital Fund, such separate Fund to be known as the "Hospital Construction Fund" (herein called the "Construction Fund"), into which there shall be deposited the amounts required by the preceding paragraph of this section. There shall also be deposited in said Construction Fund and applied in accordance with the provisions of this section (i) on the day of delivery of and payment for the 1965 Bonds all moneys then held by the City of Lincoln and the Lincoln Hospital Association for the purposes of paying the costs of the additions, extensions and improvements to be financed in part from the proceeds of the 1965 Bonds, and (ii) as and when received, all other appropriations, grants, donations, gifts, bequests and devises or other moneys received either by the City or the Lincoln Hospital Association for the purpose of paying such costs; provided, however, that neither the City nor the Lincoln Hospital Association shall be required to so deposit or apply such appropriations, grants, donations, gifts, bequests and devises if and to the extent that such deposit or application would be inconsistent with the terms, provisions and conditions thereof or of applicable law. Moneys on deposit in the Construction Fund shall be used and applied solely to pay all or part of the cost of those extensions and improvements and furnishings and equippings to be made from such fund. Withdrawals from said fund shall be made only on duly authorized and executed claims and in accordance with the procedures required by applicable law, and, if for payment of construction costs, shall be accompanied by a certificate executed by the architect, if any, appointed or employed with respect to such construction, that such payment is being made for a purpose within the scope of this Ordinance and that the amount of such payment represents only the contract price or reasonable value of property, labor, materials, services or obligations being paid for.

The cost of engineering, legal and financial service, including such costs incurred upon the issuance of the 1965 Bonds, Completion Bonds and Additional Bonds, the cost of services, publications, surveys, design, soundings, borings, rights-of-way, inspection charges, costs to the City for insurance relating to any such construction, and all other necessary and incidental costs related to such construction, furnishings and equippings, shall be deemed and considered to be items of construction cost and be paid, together with all other costs of construction, from the Construction Fund.

The City shall, with respect to any construction, the costs of which are to be paid from the proceeds of the 1965 Bonds, Completion Bonds or Additional Bonds or from moneys credited to the Extraordinary Repairs and Replacement Account or the Surplus Account, require the contractor with respect thereto to provide, for the protection of the City and the holders of the Bonds, a performance and payment bond in the amount of one hundred per cent (100%), with such sureties as may be determined by the City and containing such terms and conditions as the City and the architect, if any, employed with respect to such construction, may deem necessary and advisable, and shall further require such contractor to carry, or itself shall carry, during such construction, "Builders Risk Insurance," under policies with standard extended coverage endorsements, all such policies to be issued by responsible insurers in amounts not less than the full insurable value of the building or facility being constructed, as determined from time to time by the insurer, less $500 deductible for any claim. BE IT ORDAINED BY THE CITY COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF LINCOLN, NEBRASKA:

SECTION 1. FINDINGS AND DETERMINATIONS. The Council of the City of Lincoln, Nebraska hereby finds and determines:

The Lincoln General Hospital is a city hospital, the governing board of which is appointed by the Council of the City of Lincoln, Nebraska, which city is a city of the primary class. It is necessary and desirable for the general welfare and the promotion and protection of the health of the inhabitants of the City of Lincoln that additional hospital facilities be provided by the improvement and extension of the Lincoln General Hospital, the cost of which improvements and extensions and the furnishing and equipping thereof is presently estimated at $6,725,000, and in any event will be not less than $4,425,000. In order to pay part of such cost the City of Lincoln has levied for several years past an annual mill tax to provide a building fund therefor, and application for Hill-Burton funds has been made under appropriate federal and state laws. The Lincoln Hospital Association, a non-profit corporation, the governing board of which is appointed by the Council of the City of Lincoln and the general nature of the business of which is, in substance, to provide hospital facilities for said City, has available certain moneys to pay part of such cost, and has proposed verbally to the City through its governing board that, if said City shall authorize by an ordinance substantially in the form of this Ordinance, the issuance of not less than $3,600,000 principal amount of revenue bonds of said City for the purpose of paying the cost of the aforesaid improvements, extensions, furnishings and equippings and shall sell such bonds, said Association (a) would agree, assuming such consent by it were required therefor, to the application by said City of all revenues derived from the operation of the Lincoln General Hospital, both as now existing and as so improved and extended, to the payment of the principal and interest of said bonds and of any completion bonds and additional bonds issued under said ordinance, the establishment and maintenance of reserves therefor, the payment of the costs of operation and maintenance of said hospital and the carrying out of the provisions of such ordinance; (b) would assign to the City all the right, title and interest, if any, of the Lincoln Hospital Association in and to the revenues of the Lincoln General Hospital; (c) would pay over to the City all moneys held by the Lincoln Hospital Association for the development of said hospital available for the payment of the cost of the aforesaid improvements, extensions, furnishings and equippings; (d) would covenant that, in the event the revenues derived from the Lincoln General Hospital as improved and extended shall be insufficient, together with any other moneys of the City lawfully applied thereto, to pay the principal and interest of such revenue bonds and the costs of operation and maintenance of the hospital, said Association will pay over to the City for the purposes of such payment all moneys and funds, if any, then held or possessed by the Lincoln Hospital Association, or to which it may then be entitled, to the extent of such insufficiency and to the extent that such moneys and funds may lawfully be so paid over for such purposes; and (e) would execute such contracts, agreements, assignments, leases and other instruments that may be deemed necessary by the City Attorney in order to evidence, confirm, effectuate or carry out said proposal. Said Association has further verbally provided through its governing board that the foregoing proposal shall be deemed to have been accepted by said City when the City shall have authorized the issuance of the aforesaid bonds in an amount not less than $3,600,000 for the aforesaid purposes and that said proposal shall be for the benefit of said Association, the City of Lincoln and the holders of all Bonds (including Completion Bonds and Additional Bonds) issued under the aforesaid ordinance, as their interests made appear.

The Council of the City of Lincoln hereby further finds and determines that in order to pay the costs of the aforesaid improvements, extensions, furnishings and equippings, it is necessary that the City of Lincoln authorize the issuance and sale of its revenue bonds in the principal amount of $3,600,000.

SECTION 6. PAYMENT OF 1965 BONDS, COMPLETION BONDS AND ADDITIONAL BONDS; HOSPITAL FUND AND ACCOUNTS THEREIN; FLOW OF MONEYS. The 1965 Bonds, any Completion Bonds and any Additional Bonds, together with the interest thereon, shall be payable in such coin or currency of the United States of America which at the time of such payment is legal tender for the payment of public and private debts solely from the gross revenues of the Lincoln General Hospital, which revenues shall be and hereby are pledged to the punctual payment of the principal of and interest on said Bonds and to the security thereof in accordance with the provisions of this Ordinance. Said Bonds shall not in any event be a debt of said City within the meaning of any constitutional, statutory, or charter limitation upon the creation of general obligation indebtedness of the City, nor shall they impose any general liability upon the City, and the City shall not be liable for the payment thereof out of any funds of the City other than the gross revenues of the Lincoln General Hospital and the Lincoln General Hospital Fund hereinafter in this section created, into which fund such revenues shall be deposited.

The foregoing pledge shall be valid and binding from the time of the enactment of this Ordinance, and the moneys representing the aforesaid gross revenues shall be immediately subject to said pledge upon receipt thereof by the City (including by the Lincoln General Hospital) without any physical delivery or further act. The holders of the 1965 Bonds, any Completion Bonds and any Additional Bonds shall have a lien on said gross revenues subject to the provisions and conditions of this Ordinance.

The Lincoln General Hospital shall be operated on a fiscal year basis, which fiscal year shall be the same as the fiscal year established from time to time for the government of the City. From and after the delivery of the 1965 Bonds, all the gross revenues of the Lincoln General Hospital shall be collected daily and shall be set aside as collected and deposited in a separate fund of the City hereby created, to be designated as the "Lincon General Hospital Fund" (herein called the "Hospital Fund"), which fund shall be maintained hereafter and shall be held by the Treasurer of the City, who shall not commingle any of the moneys in said fund with any other moneys under his control. The Hospital Fund and the moneys deposited therein shall be used and applied only in the manner and for the purposes hereinafter provided in this section, and said moneys shall be withdrawn from said fund for such purposes only in accordance with such procedures as is provided by law.

There are hereby created five separate special accounts in the Hospital Fund, such separate special accounts to be designated severally as the "Bond and Interest Account," "Reserve Account," "Operation and Maintenance Account," "Extraordinary Repairs and Replacement Account," and "Surplus Account," into which there shall be credited on the first business day of each month from the moneys then held in the Hospital Fund, the following amounts in accordance with the following provisions and in the following order:

FIRST: There are hereby created three sub-accounts in the Bond and Interest Account, to be designated the "Interest Account" (the "Serial Bond Principal Account" and the "Term Bond Sinking Fund Account" (the latter being herein referred to as the "Sinking Fund Account"), into which sub-accounts credits shall be made as follows:

(A). For the purpose of paying the interest on the 1965 Bonds, commencing with the first business day of the month following the month in which the 1965 Bonds have been delivered, and on the first business day of each month thereafter, there shell be credited to the Interest Account an amount such that, if the same amount were so credited to this sub-account on the first business day of each succeeding month thereafter prior to the next date upon which an installment of interest falls due on the 1965 Bonds, the aggregate of the amounts so credited to this sub-account will on such interest payment date be equal to the installment of intrest falling due on such date on the 1965 Bonds. In the event of the issuance of Completion Bonds and Additional Bonds, commencing with the first business day of the month following the month in which such Cmpletion Bonds or Additional Bonds, as the case may be, are delivered, and on the first business day of each month thereafter, the monthly credits required by the preceding sentence shall be increased by that amount such that, if the same increased amount were so credited to the Interest Account on the first business day of each succeeding month thereafter prior to the next date upon which an installment of interest falls due upon the said Completion Bonds or Additional Bonds, as the case may be, the aggregate of the increased amounts so credited to this sub-account will on such interest payment date be equal to the installment of interest falling due on such date on the said Completion Bonds or Additional Bonds as the case may be, so as to provide for the payment of the interest on such Completion Bonds or Additional Bonds. In making the credits to the Interest Account required by this paragraph, consideration shall be given to and allowance made for accrued interest received upon the sale of the 1965 Bonds, Completion Bonds or Additional Bonds, interest capitalized from the proceeds of such Bonds, earnings realized and received on the investment of moneys in this sub-account and any other credits otherwise made to said sub-account.

(B). For the purpose of retiring the 1965 Bonds maturing July 1 in each of the years 1968 to 1980, commencing with the first business day of the month of July, 1967, and on the first business day of each month thereafter, there shall be credited to the Serial Bond Principal Account an amount such that, if the same amount were so credited to this sub-account on the first business day of each succeeding month thereafter prior to the next date on which any of the aforesaid 1965 Bond matures, the aggregate of the amounts so credited to this sub-account will on such next maturity date be equal to the principal of such 1965 Bonds becoming due on such date. In the event of the issuance of any Completion Bonds or Additional Bonds as serial bonds or in serial form, the proceedings authorizing the issuance of such Completion Bonds or Additional Bonds shall provide for additional monthly credits to this sub-account commencing with the first business day of the month which is twelve-months prior to the first maturity date of any such Completion Bonds or Additional Bonds issued in serial form, so that in like and similar manner the payment of the principal of any such Completion Bonds or Additional Bonds issued in serial form shall be provided for. In making any of the credits to the Serial Bond Principal Account required by this paragraph, consideration shall be given to and allowance made for any earnings realized and received on the investment of moneys in this sub-account or for any other credits otherwise made to said sub-account.

(C). For the purpose of retiring the 1965 Bonds maturing July 1, 1963, commencing with the first business day of the month of July, 1980, and on the first business day of each monht thereafter, there shall be credited to the Sinking Fund Account an amount such that, if the same amount were so credited to this sub-accont on the first business day of each succeeding month thereafter prior to the next ensuing July 1, the aggregate of the amounts so credited to this sub-account would on such next ensuing July 1 be equal to the respective amounts specified opposite such next ensuing July 1, as follows:

Date	Amount	Date	Amount
July 1, 1981	$140,000	July 1, 1988	$185,000
July 1, 1982	145,000	July 1, 1989	190,000
July 1, 1983	150,000	July 1, 1990	200,000
July 1, 1984	160,000	July 1, 1991	205,000
July 1, 1985	165,000	July 1, 1992	210,000
July 1, 1986	170,000	July 1, 1993	220,000
July 1, 1987	175,000

In the event of issuance of any Completion Bonds or Additional Bonds in the form of term bonds, the proceedings authorizing the issuance of such Bonds shall provide for additional monthly credits to this sub-account so that in like and similar manner the retirement of any such Completion Bonds or Additional Bonds issued in the form of term bonds will be provided for. In making the credits to this sub-account required by this paragraph, consideration shall be given to and allowance made for earnings realized and received on the investment of moneys in this sub-account or any credits otherwise made to this sub-account. The moneys credited to this Sinking Fund Account for the purpose of providing for the retirement of the 1965 Bonds maturing July 1, 1993 shall, without further authorization or direction of the Council of the City, be applied by the Director of Finance on each July 1 set forth above in this paragraph, to the redemption of said 1965 Bonds in the respective principal amount specified opposite each such date, and in like and similar fashion the moneys credited to this sub-account to provide for the retirement of any Completion Bonds or Additional Bonds issued in the form of term bonds, shall also be applied by said Director, without further authorization or direction of said Council, on each date on which a Sinking Fund Account installment for said Bonds is due, to the redemption of said Completion Bonds or Additional Bonds, in the respective principal amounts required to be credited to this sub-account on such dates. The Director of Finance shall give notice of all such redemptions, in the name and on behalf of the City, in accordance with the provisions of Section 4 hereof. The Director of Finance may also, without further authorization or direction of the Council, apply the moneys credited to this sub-account for the retirement of the aforesaid 1965 Bonds to the purchase of said Bonds, and in like and similar fashion may apply the moneys credited hereto for the retirement of Completion Bonds or Additional Bonds issued in term form to the purchase of such Bonds, in which events the principal amount of said Bonds required to be redeemed on the next respective ensuing Sinking Fund Account installment date shall be reduced by the principal amount of said Bonds so purchased; provided, however, that no 1965 Bonds or Additional Bonds or Completion Bonds, as the case may be, shall be purchased during the interval between the date on which notice of redemption of said Bonds from Sinking Fund Account installments is given and the date of redemption set forth in such notice, unless the Bonds so purchased are Bonds called for redemption in such notice or are purchased from moneys other than those credited to this sub-account, and provided further, that no purchases of Bonds shall be made if such purchase would require the sale at a loss of securities credited to the Sinking Fund Account unless the difference between the actual purchase price (including accrued interest and any brokerage or other charge) paid for such Bonds and the then maximum purchase price (plus accrued interest) permitted to be paid therefor, is greater than the loss upon the sale of any such securities. Any purchase of Bonds pursuant to this paragraph may be made with or without tenders of Bonds and at either public or private sale, but in any event at a purchase price (including accrued interest and any brokerage or other charge) not to exceed the principal amount thereof and the then applicable redemption premium, if any, plus accrued interest. All Bonds purchased or redeemed pursuant to this paragraph shall be cancelled and not reissued.

Moneys credited to the Bond and Interest Account shall be used and applied solely to the payment of the interest on and the retirement of the principal of the 1965 Bonds, Completion Bonds and Additional Bonds and shall be so used and applied in accordance with this part FIRST. The moneys credited to said account shall be transferred to the respective paying agents for said Bonds and the coupons pertaining thereto in such amounts and at such times as shall be necessary to pay the principal, premium, if any, and interest on said Bonds as the same become due and payable, whether upon the maturity, the redemption or the purchase thereof.

SECOND: Commencing with the first day of the month following the month in which the 1965 Bonds are delivered, and on the first business day of each month thereafter, after making the credits required by part FIRST of this section, there shall next be credited to the Reserve Account an amount such that, if the same amount were so credited to said Account on the first day of each succeeding month thereafter prior to July 1, 1967, the aggregate of the amounts so paid and credited to the Reserve Account will on July 1, 1967, be equal to twice the maximum aggregate debt service requirement in any future fiscal year for the 1965 Bonds. In the event of issuance of Completion Bonds or Additional Bonds, the proceedings authorizing the issuance of such Bonds shall provide for additional monthly credits to the Reserve Account, such additional credits to commence by not later than the then estimated termination of the Period of Construction (as defined in Section 13 hereof) of the facilities to be financed from the Bonds being issued, and to be in such amounts so that the aggregate of such additional amounts so credited will, by no later than the earlier of (i) the day which is five years from the date of such Completion Bonds or Additional Bonds, as the case may be, and (ii) the first day on which credits are required to be made to the Serial Bond Principal Account or the Sinking Fund Account to provide for the retirement of any such Completion Bonds or Additional Bonds, be equal to twice the aggregate debt service requirement to accrue in any fiscal year with respect to such Completion Bonds or Additional Bonds, as the case may be; provided, however, that the City may in the proceedings authorizing the issuance of Completion Bonds or Additional Bonds provide for payments into the Reserve Account from the proceeds of such Completion Bonds or Additional Bonds or from moneys in the Surplus Account or from any other moneys lawfully available therefor, in which event, in providing for the additional credits into the Reserve Account required by the foregoing provisions of this paragraph, allowance shall be made for any such amounts so paid into this Account. Subject to all the foregoing, the amount to the credit of the Reserve Account shall at all times be maintained at twice the maximum aggregate debt service requirement for any future fiscal year for all 1965 Bonds, Completion Bonds and Additional Bonds outstanding, and any moneys to the credit of the Reserve Account over and above twice such maximum amount shall be deemed to be surplus moneys and shall be transferred to the Surplus Account, to be used and applied as are other moneys in that Account. Whenever any money is paid out of the Reserve Account or whenever there shall be a deficiency in said account, the monthly credits required by this part SECOND shall immediately be increased or resumed, as the case may be, from the first moneys available therefor, and continued until the amount withdrawn is replaced or the amount of the deficiency satisfied. The moneys to the credit of the Reserve Account shall be used and applied solely for the purpose of paying principal, redemption premium or interest on the 1965 Bonds, Completion Bonds and Additional Bonds when due, and shall be so applied whenever there are insufficient moneys credited to the Bond and Interest Account to meet such payments. Before, however, applying any of the moneys to the credit of the Reserve Account to said purpose, there shall first be applied to said purpose all moneys then held in the Hospital Fund to the credit of the Surplus Account and the Extraordinary Repairs and Replacement Account.

THIRD: Commencing with the first business day of the month following the month in which the 1965 Bonds are delivered and on the first business day of each month thereafter, after the credits required by parts FIRST and SECOND of this section have been made, there shall then be credited to the Operation and Maintenance Account an amount sufficient, together with any other moneys that may be an are lawfully applied thereto, to pay the reasonable costs of operation and maintenance of the Lincoln General Hospital, including, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, salaries, wages, costs of materials and supplies, routine repairs, renewals, replacements and alterations occurring in the usual course of business, insurance, and audits, which amount shall be applied to the payment of such costs.

FOURTH: Commencing with the first business day of the month following the month in which the 1965 Bonds are delivered and on the first business day of each month thereafter, after the credits required by parts FIRST, SECOND and THIRD of this section have been made, there shall then be credited to the Extraordinary Repairs and Replacement Account such substantially equal monthly amounts so that by July 1, 1971, there shall be on credit to this account the sum of $200,000. In the event of the issuance of any Additional Bonds, the proceedings authorizing the issuance of such Bonds shall provide for additional monthly credits to this account, such additional credits to commence by no later than the then estimated termination of the Period of Construction (as defined in Section 16 hereof) of the facilities to be financed from the Bonds being issued, and to be in such amounts so that by the sixth anniversary of the date of such Additional Bonds the aggregate of such further additional amounts then on credit to this account shall equal five per cent of the total principal amount of issuance of such Additional Bonds. PROVIDED, HOWEVER, that the City shall not be deemed to be in default or in violation of the provisions of this part FOURTH so long as by July 1, 1971, there shall be on credit to this account the sum of $200,000, and so long as in the event of the issuance of Additional Bonds there shall be on credit to this account by the sixth anniversary of the date of such Additional Bonds a further additional amount equal to five per cent of the total principal amount of issuance of such Additional Bonds, but nothing in this proviso shall be construed to relieve the City from its obligation to make the required monthly credits to this account to the extent that moneys are available therefor in the Hospital Fund or in the Surplus Fund. Subject to the foregoing, the amount to the credit of the Extraordinary Repairs and Replacement Account shall at all times be maintained at the greater of $200,000 or five per cent of the total issuance of 1965 Bonds, Completion Bonds and Additional Bonds, and any moneys to the credit of this account over and above such greater amount shall be deemed to be surplus moneys and shall be transferred to the Surplus Account, to be used and applied as are other moneys in said account. Whenever any money is paid out of the Extraordinary Repairs and Replacement Account, or whenever there shall be a deficiency in said account the monthly credits required by this part FOURTH shall be immediately increased or resumed, as the case may be, from the first moneys available therefor and continued until the amount withdrawn is replaced or the amount of the deficiency satisfied. Moneys credited to the Extraordinary Repairs and Replacement Account shall be used and applied to the payment of the principal and interest of the 1965 Bonds, Completion Bonds and Additional Bonds when due, in the event that the moneys then credited to the Bond and Interest Account and the Surplus Account are insufficient for such purpose. Moneys credited to the Extraordinary Repairs and Replacement Account shall also be used and applied in such manner as shall be directed by the Council to the restoration and repair of any damage (other than routine wear-and-tear) not covered by insurance and to the making of such extraordinary renewals, replacements, renovations, alterations, furnishings and equippings not occurring in the usual and routine course as are deemed necessary by the Council in order to maintain the Lincoln General Hospital as a revenue-producing enterprise or to maintain or increase the revenues derived from the operation thereof, and shall be applied to such purposes.

FIFTH: Commencing with the first business day of the month following the month in which the 1965 Bonds are delivered and on the first business day of each month thereafter, after the credits required by parts FIRST through FOURTH of this section have been made (including the crediting to the foregoing accounts of such amounts as are necessary to make up any insufficiencies, in the event that the moneys on hand in the Hospital Fund at any time were insufficient to make the monthly credits thereto required by such parts), all moneys then remaining in the Hospital Fund shall be credited to the Surplus Account. Moneys credited to the Surplus Account shall be used only for the following purposes:

(a) If the moneys then credited to the Bond and Interest Account are insufficient therefor, the payment of the principal of and interest and redemption premium on the 1965 Bonds, Completion Bonds and Additional Bonds when due;

(b) In the event that any deficiencies exist in the Bond and Interest Account, the Reserve Account, the Operation and Maintenance Account or the Extraordinary Repairs and Replacement Account, the making up of such deficiencies; and

(c) All sums remaining in said Surplus Account after making up any deficiencies necessary to credit the accounts FIRST through FOURTH, as hereinabove provided, shall be held in said Surplus Account and shall be used as directed by the Council for paying the cost of improvements, enlargements, extensions or betterments to the Lincoln General Hospital; or for the making of any repairs to or replacements thereof; or for the purchase and acquisition of any furnishings or equipment necessary therefor; or for calling and redeeming or purchasing Bonds; or for accelerating the payments required to be made into the Reserve Account or the Extraordinary Repairs and Replacement Account, so long as the amounts transferred from the Surplus Account to said accounts would not cause the amounts then credited to said accounts to exceed the maximum amounts required to be maintained therein; or for the carrying out of any other provisions of this Ordinance; or for any other lawful purpose in connection with said hospital; provided, however, that any purchases or redemptions of Bonds made pursuant to this subsection (c) shall not relieve the City of its obligation to make the purchases or redemptions of Bonds required by paragraph (C) of part FIRST of this section; and provided further, nothing in this subsection (c) shall be construed to prohibit the City Council from ordering and directing at any time or from time to time that all or a portion of the moneys credited to the Surplus Account be used to pay principal of or interest on any outstanding bonds or notes of said City which by their terms are payable from the revenues derived from the operation of the Lincoln General Hospital as the same matures, or in calling and redeeming said bonds or notes prior to maturity in accordance with their terms.

In the event that the moneys in the Surplus Account are applied to the purchase or redemption of Bonds, and if more than one series of Bonds shall then be outstanding hereunder, the City shall determine from which series such purchases or redemptions shall be made and may elect that all such purchases or redemptions shall be made from only one series or from more than one series. Any purchases of Bonds may be made with or without tenders of Bonds and at either public or private sale, but in any event at a purchase price (including accrued interest and any brokerage or other charge) not to exceed the principal amount thereof, the then applicable redemption premium if the Bonds to be purchased are then subject to redemption, or the applicable redemption premium payable on their next ensuing redemption date if the Bonds being purchased are not then subject to redemption, plus accrued interest. All Bonds so purchased or redeemed shall be cancelled and not reissued.

It is the intent of this section that if at any time the gross revenues are insufficient to make the monthly credits to be made pursuant to parts FIRST through FOURTH above, the deficiencies shall immediately be made up from the moneys in the Surplus Account in order of priority of claims upon the gross revenues as hereinbefore set forth. If the moneys in the Surplus Account are insufficient to make up all such deficiencies, they shall be made up the following month or months from the gross revenues in the order of such priority.

Subject at all times to the provisions of applicable law, all moneys resulting from grants, gifts, contributions, donations, bequests and devises received by the City for hospital purposes or resulting from appropriations made or received by the City for such purposes, shall, if and to the extent compatible and consistent with the terms, conditions and provisions of such appropriations, grants, gifts, contributions, donations, bequests and devises, be deposited in the Hospital Fund for credit to the proper and relevant account therein and applied in accordance with the provisions of parts FIRST through FIFTH of this Section 6; PROVIDED, HOWEVER, that this paragraph shall not be construed to require in any way the application of such moneys contrary to such terms, conditions and provisions or applicable law.

All moneys deposited in the Hospital Fund shall be withdrawn therefrom only in accordance with the procedures provided by applicable law.

SECTION 7. INVESTMENT OF MONEYS IN FUNDS AND ACCOUNTS; MONEYS HELD IN TRUST. Moneys on deposit in the Hospital Fund which shall not have yet been credited to an account therein in accordance with Section 6 hereof and moneys credited to a sub-account in the Bond and Interest Account and to the Operation and Maintenance Account may, to the extent practicable and reasonable, be invested in direct obligations of, or obligations the payment of the principal and interest of which is unconditionally guaranteed by, the United States of America, maturing in the case of moneys invested from the Hospital Fund by not later than the first business day of the month next following such investment, and maturing in the case of moneys invested from the sub-accounts in the Bond and Interest Account and from the Operation and Maintenance Account, at such times and in such amounts as shall be required to provide moneys to make the payments required to be made from said sub-accounts and said account. Moneys on deposit in the Construction Fund hereinafter created and moneys credited to the Reserve Account, the Extraordinary Repairs and Replacement Account, and the Surplus Account shall, to the extent reasonable and practicable, be invested in direct obligations of, or obligations the payment of the principal and interest of which is unconditionally guaranteed by the United States of America, maturing or redeemable at stated fixed prices at the option of the holder, (a) in the case of moneys invested from the Construction Fund, at such times and in such amounts as the Director of Finance and the architects, of any, appointed or employed with respect to the additions, extensions, expansions and improvements to be financed from the Construction Fund, shall deem necessary to provide moneys to make the payments required to be made from such Fund; (b) in the case of moneys invested from the Reserve Account, by not later than eight years from the date of such investment; (c) in the case of moneys invested from the Extraordinary Repairs and Replacement Account, by not later than five years from the date of such investment; and (d) in the case of moneys invested from the Surplus Account, at such times and in such amounts as shall be required in accordance with the plans of the City for the use of the moneys credited to said Account. All interest and income from investments made pursuant to this section shall, when realized and collected, be credited to the respective fund or account or sub-account from which such investments were made. Unless invested as provided in this section, all moneys in the foregoing funds, accounts and sub-accounts shall be secured in the manner provided by law for the securing of public funds of cities of the class of which Lincoln is one.

Until used and applied in accordance with this Ordinance, all moneys held in the Hospital Fund, including in any of the accounts or sub-accounts therein, and all moneys held in the Construction Fund hereinafter established, and the securities in which such moneys may from time to time be invested, shall, subject to applicable law, be held in trust for the equal and ratable benefit and security of the holders of the 1965 Bonds, Completion Bonds and Additional Bonds then outstanding. All moneys held by any paying agent for the payment of principal, interest and premium of said Bonds, including any moneys held by the County Treasurer of Lancaster County for such purpose, shall be held by such agent or treasurer in trust for the equal and ratable benefit and security of the Bonds for which moneys have been so set aside.

SECTION 8. COVENANT AS TO RATES AND CHARGES FOR LINCOLN GENERAL HOSPITAL. The City shall establish, maintain, revise and collect charges and rates for the use and services of the Lincoln General Hospital so that the gross revenues of said hospital shall at all times be at least sufficient, together with all other moneys which may be and are lawfully applied to any or all of the following, to provide for all costs associated with the ownership, operation, maintenance, renewal and replacement of said hospital, the payment of the principal and interest on all 1965 Bonds, Completion Bonds and Additional Bonds and all other indebtedness incurred with respect to said hospital, to provide the Reserve Account and Extraordinary Repairs and Replacement Account, and to otherwise carry out the provisions of this Ordinance, including, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the maintenance of the accounts created in Section 6 hereof; provided, however, that such charges and rates shall always be such so that the net revenues of the Lincoln General Hospital in any fiscal year shall be at least equal to 110% of the aggregate debt service requirement for such fiscal year for all 1965 Bonds, Completion Bonds and Additional Bonds then outstanding.

SECTION 9. INSURANCE. The City shall carry insurance on the Lincoln General Hospital of the kinds and in at least the amounts which are usually carried upon similar properties, including without limiting the generality of the foregoing, extended coverage, fire, operational and professional liability and, unless covered by such operational and professional liability insurance, public liability and malpractice insurance, and also all additional insurance covering such risks as shall be deemed necessary or desirable by the City or recommended by a competent hospital-management consultant or competent insurance counsellor employed for the purpose of making such recommendations. The City shall also carry use and occupancy and business interruption insurance on the Lincoln General Hospital in an amount sufficient to enable the City during the time the gross revenues of the Lincoln General Hospital are reduced as a result of the damage thereto, to deposit in the Bond and Interest Account and the Operation and Maintenance Account out of the proceeds of such insurance and the remaining gross revenues, the amount that would normally have been deposited in such accounts from gross revenues had such damage to the hospital not occurred, and the proceeds of such insurance shall be so applied. PROVIDED, HOWEVER, that this section shall not require the City to carry insurance against any risks or losses to the extent that such risks or losses are covered by or insured under any policies of insurance then in force required by Section 13 hereof. The proceeds of any and all policies for public liability and malpractice shall be paid into the Operation and Maintenance Account and used in paying the claims on account of which they were received. All moneys received for other losses under such insurance policies required by this section shall be credited to the Surplus Account and used only for making good the loss or damage in respect to which they were paid, either by repairing the property damaged or replacing the property destroyed, and provision for making good such loss or damage shall be made within ninety days from the date of the loss. Surplus insurance proceeds remaining after the loss and damage covered thereby have been satisfied or restored shall, unless already credited thereto, be deposited in the Surplus Account and applied as are other moneys credited to said account. The payment of premiums for all insurance policies required under the provisions of this section shall be considered an operation and maintenance expense.

SECTION 10. BOOKS AND ACCOUNTS; INDEPENDENT AUDIT. The City shall keep or cause to be kept, separate and apart from all other records and accounts, proper books and accounts showing correct and complete entries of all financial transactions pertaining to the Lincoln General Hospital. The holders of any of the 1965 Bonds or of any of the Completion Bonds or Additional Bonds or any duly authorized agent or agents of such holders shall have the right at any and all reasonable times to inspect such books, records and accounts and, subject to any medical requirements to be determined by the City in its sole discretion, to inspect the Lincoln General Hospital. Within sixty days following the close of each fiscal year the City shall cause an audit of such books and accounts to be made by an independent firm of certified public accountants, showing the receipts and disbursements for and on account of the Lincoln General Hospital. Each such audit, in addition to whatever matters may be thought proper by the accountant to be included therein shall, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, include the following:

(1) A statement in detail of the receipts and disbursements of the Lincoln General Hospital for such fiscal year, including therein (a) a breakdown of such receipts into categories or classifications of a general nature, such as income routinely derived from the operation of the hospital, grants, appropriations, gifts or contributions, bequests or devises, etc.; (b) the total costs of operation and maintenance of the hospital, whether such costs be paid from the gross revenues thereof or other moneys; and (c) if any expenditures are paid from moneys other than gross revenues as herein defined, showing separately the amount and source of such other moneys and the amount of the expenditures paid therefrom;

(2) A balance sheet as of the end of such fiscal year, showing separately the cash and investments credited to the Funds, Accounts and sub-accounts created by this Ordinance;

(3) Information as to patient days, average daily occupancy and average term of occupancy and percent of occupancy;

(4) The accountant's comments regarding the method in which the City has carried out the requirements of this Ordinance, and the accountant's recommendations for any changes or improvements in the operation of the accounting system pertaining to the hospital; and

(5) A list of all the insurance policies and performance bonds in force at the end of the fiscal year, setting out as to each policy and bond the amount of the policy or bond, the risks covered, the name of the insurer or sureties and the expiration date of the policy or bond.

All expenses incurred in the making of the aforesaid audit shall be regarded and paid as an operation and maintenance expense. A copy of each such audit shall be available for inspection at any time by the holders of any 1965 Bond, Completion Bond or Additional Bond, or his agent, and a summary thereof shall be furnished to the holder of any of said Bonds at his request, and any of said holders shall have the right to discuss with the accountant making the audit the contents of the audit and to ask for any additional information he may reasonably require. When requested in writing monthly statements of receipts and disbursements shall be mailed each month to the original purchasers of the 1965 Bonds, Completion Bonds and Additional Bonds, or to investment banking firms and statistical reporting services.

SECTION 11. CITY TO COMPLETE CONSTRUCTION; TO OPERATE AND MAINTAIN LINCOLN GENERAL HOSPITAL AND NOT TO ALIENATE SAME. The City shall proceed with all reasonable dispatch with the constructing, furnishing and equipping of all additions, extensions, expansions and improvements to the Lincoln General Hospital to be financed from the proceeds of the 1965 Bonds, Completion Bonds or Additional Bonds; shall maintain said hospital in good repair and working order and condition, including the making of all necessary repairs, renewals, equippings, furnishings and replacements thereto; shall continuously operate the same as a revenue-producing facility; and shall not sell, lease, mortgage or otherwise encumber, or in any manner dispose of, the same; provided, however, the provisions of this section shall not prevent the City from disposing of any property which in the judgment of the City is no longer useful or profitable in the operation of said hospital or necessary to produce or maintain the revenues thereof, if the proceeds, if any, from the sale or other disposition of any such property are paid into the Surplus Account and applied as are other moneys credited to said account. The City further agrees that, in the event or to the extent that Hill-Burton Funds are not received by it for the payment of the costs of the extensions and improvements to be financed in part from the proceeds of the 1965 Bonds and Completion Bonds, it will, but only as and to the extent permitted by applicable law and subject at all times to the provisions thereof, provide for the completion of such extensions and improvements to the satisfaction of the Nebraska Advisory Hospital Council and the Nebraska Department of Health.

SECTION 12. PROVISIONS PERTAINING TO LINCOLN HOSPITAL ASSOCIATION. The enactment of this Ordinance shall constitute the acceptance by the City of the proposal of the Lincoln Hospital Association referred to in Section 1 hereof, and if deemed necessary or desirable by the City Attorney, the Mayor and Clerk may execute an instrument evidencing such acceptance. The City shall not agree to any revocation or termination of said proposal or to any modification or amendment thereof which would impair the rights and security, if any, of the holders of the 1965 Bonds, Completion Bonds or Additional Bonds thereunder. In the event that at any time the gross revenues of the Lincoln General Hospital, together with any other moneys that are applied thereto, shall be insufficient to pay the principal and interest of said Bonds and the costs of operation and maintenance of said hospital, the City shall promptly notify the Lincoln Hospital Association as to the amount of such insufficiency and shall collect the amount of such insufficiency from said Association to the extent the Association then possesses, or is entitled to, moneys which may lawfully be applied to such payments; provided, however, that nothing in this section shall be construed to obligate the Lincoln Hospital Association to make any payment for such principal and interest or such costs of operation and maintenance in excess of that amount of moneys which the Association then possesses or to which it may then be entitled and which may then lawfully be applied to such purposes, nor to require said Association to apply any moneys in violation of, or inconsistent with, the terms, conditions and provisions of any appropriations, grants, contributions, donations, bequests or devises; and provided further that this section shall not be construed to prohibit the liquidation or dissolution of the Lincoln Hospital Association so long as all assets of such Association upon such liquidation or dissolution which are not otherwise required to be distributed by law, shall be distributed, transferred and conveyed to the City of Lincoln, to be used and applied for hospital purposes.

SECTION 13. DISPOSITION OF ACCRUED INTEREST AND BOND PROCEEDS; CONSTRUCTION FUND; CONTRACTOR'S PERFORMANCE BOND AND INSURANCE. The proceeds derived from the sale of the 1965 Bonds and of any Completion Bonds (exclusive of accrued interest thereon), and, except as may be provided in the proceedings authorizing the issuance of Additional Bonds, the proceeds derived from the sale of such Additional Bonds, shall be a construction fund, to be used only in carrying out the purposes for which such Bonds shall have been issued. Interest accruing on such Bonds during the Period of Construction may be deemed an item of construction cost and to the extent such interest is not paid from gross revenues, it shall be paid from the proceeds derived from the sale of said Bonds. All accrued interest which may be received from the sale of 1965 Bonds, Completion Bonds and Additional Bonds, together with such portion (if any) of the proceeds of the sale thereof that the City Council shall determine to be set aside representing interest during construction, as aforesaid, shall be deposited in the Hospital Fund and credited to the Interest Account in the Bond and Interest Account, and the balance of the proceeds of said Bonds shall be deposited in the Construction Fund hereinafter created in this section, to be used and applied solely to the purposes of issuance of such Bonds in the manner hereinafter provided. For all purposes of this Ordinance, the "Period of Construction" with respect to any building, facility, extension or addition, the costs of construction of which are to be financed from the proceeds of the 1965 Bonds, Completion Bonds or Additional Bonds, shall mean the period from the date of delivery of such 1965 Bonds, Completion Bonds or Additional Bonds to the date six months from the day on which such building, facility, extension or addition is ready for use and occupancy, or to such earlier date that the City may determine.

There is hereby created and established with the City Treasurer a separate fund within the Hospital Fund, such separate Fund to be known as the "Hospital Construction Fund" (herein called the "Construction Fund"), into which there shall be deposited the amounts required by the preceding paragraph of this section. There shall also be deposited in said Construction Fund and applied in accordance with the provisions of this section (i) on the day of delivery of and payment for the 1965 Bonds all moneys then held by the City of Lincoln and the Lincoln Hospital Association for the purposes of paying the costs of the additions, extensions and improvements to be financed in part from the proceeds of the 1965 Bonds, and (ii) as and when received, all other appropriations, grants, donations, gifts, bequests and devises or other moneys received either by the City or the Lincoln Hospital Association for the purpose of paying such costs; provided, however, that neither the City nor the Lincoln Hospital Association shsall be required to so deposit or apply such appropriations, grants, donations, gifts, bequests and devises if and to the extent that such deposit or application would be inconsistent with the terms, provisions and conditions thereof or of applicable law. Moneys on deposit in the Construction Fund shall be used and applied solely to pay all or part of the cost of those extensions and improvements and furnishings and equippings to be made from such fund. Withdrawals from said fund shall be made only on duly authorized and executed claims and in accordance with the procedures required by applicable law, and, if for payment of construction costs, shall be accompanied by a certificate executed by the architect, if any, appointed or employed with respect to such construction, that such payment is being made for a purpose within the scope of this Ordinance and that the amount of such payment represents only the contract price or reasonable value of property, labor, materials, services or obligations being paid for.

The cost of engineering, legal and financial service, including such costs incurred upon the issuance of the 1965 Bonds, Completion Bonds and Additional Bonds, the cost of services, publications, surveys, design, soundings, borings, rights-of-way, inspection charges, costs to the City for insurance relating to any such construction, and all other necessary and incidental costs related to such construction, furnishings and equippings, shall be deemed and considered to be items of construction cost and be paid, together with all other costs of construction, from the Construction Fund.

The City shall, with respect to any construction, the costs of which are to be paid from the proceeds of the 1965 Bonds, Completion Bonds or Additional Bonds or from moneys credited to the Extraordinary Repairs and Replacement Account or the Surplus Account, require the contractor with respect thereto to provide, for the protection of the City and the holders of the Bonds, a performance and payment bond in the amount of one hundred per cent (100%), with such sureties as may be determined by the City and containing such terms and conditions as the City and the architect, if any, employed with respect to such construction, may deem necessary and advisable, and shall further require such contractor to carry, or itself shall carry, during such construction, "Builders Risk Insurance", under policies with standard extended coverage endorsements, all such policies to be issued by responsible insurers in amounts not less than the full insurable value of the building or facility being constructed, as determined from time to time by the insurer, less $500 deductible for any claim. All proceeds of any such bonds or insurance policies shall be held in trust for the equal and ratable benefit of the holders of the 1965 Bonds, Completion Bonds and Additional Bonds then outstanding and shall be used and applied to make good the loss or restore or repair the damage with respect to which such proceeds are received.

If upon the completion, as certified by the City's architect or engineer or other architect, if any, appointed or employed for such construction, of the extensions and improvements to and equippings and furnishings of the Lincoln General Hospital to be made from the Construction Fund, any moneys shall remain in said fund, said moneys shall, to the extent not required to complete the payment of all such costs of construction, be credited to and deposited in, first, the Reserve Account, unless and until there shall then be credited thereto an amount equal to twice the maximum aggregate debt service requirement for any future fiscal year for all 1965 Bonds, Completion Bonds and Additional Bonds then outstanding; second, the Extraordinary Repairs and Replacement Account, unless and until there shall then be credited thereto five per cent of the total authorized issue of such 1965 Bonds, Completion Bonds and Additional Bonds, or $200,000, whichever is greater; and finally, any further excess over and above the amount necessary to be credited to said Reserve Account and Extraordinary Repairs and Replacement Account shall be transferred and credited to the Surplus Account, to be used and applied as are other moneys to the credit of said account.

SECTION 14. ISSUANCE OF ADDITIONAL BONDS AND COMPLETION BONDS. From and after the effectiveness of this Ordinance the City shall not issue bonds, notes, certificates of indebtedness or other evidences of indebtedness which will in any way be superior to or rank on a parity with the 1965 Bonds and any Completion Bonds or Additional Bonds hereafter authorized in accordance with this section, or which will in any way have a lien and charge on the gross revenues and other moneys and funds pledged herein to the payment of said Bonds, equal or prior to the lien or charge created herein for such payment, except to the extent and as hereinafter provided in this section.

The City may, upon compliance with the provisions of (a), (b), (c) and (d) of this section, authorize at any time prior to December 31, 1967, not exceeding $400,000 principal amount of completion bonds (herein in this Ordinance referred to as "Completion Bonds"), payable on a parity with the 1965 Bonds and any Additional Bonds hereafter issued and equally and ratably secured therewith, and may, upon compliance with the provisions of (b), (c), (d) and (e) of this section, authorize at any time and from time to time the issuance of additional bonds (herein in this Ordinance referred to as "Additional Bonds"), payable on a parity with the 1965 Bonds, any Completion Bonds and any other then outstanding Additional Bonds and equally and ratably secured therewith, as follows:

(a) The total amount of Completion Bonds shall not exceed that amount, as certified by the Director of Finance and the architect, if any, employed or appointed with respect to the additions, expansions, improvements and equippings to be made from the proceeds of the 1965 Bonds, as being necessary to complete the payment of the costs of such additions, expansions, improvements and equippings, and such Bonds shall be issued only for the purpose of completing such payment;

(b) The amounts required to be credited to the respective accounts created in Section 6 of this Ordinance must have been credited in full from the date of issuance of the 1965 Bonds to the date of delivery of such Completion Bonds or Additional Bonds;

(c) The proceedings authorizing the issuance of such Bonds shall contain the provisions required by paragraphs (b) and (c) of part FIRST of Section 6 hereof and by parts SECOND, THIRD and FOURTH of said section;

(d) The first date of maturity of the Completion Bonds or Additional Bonds proposed to be issued must not be earlier than the first date of maturity (July 1, 1968) of the 1965 Bonds, and the last date of maturity of the Completion Bonds or Additional Bonds proposed to be issued must not be earlier than the last date of maturity of the 1965 Bonds, Completion Bonds or Additional Bonds then outstanding; the first credit to be made to either the Serial Bond Principal Account or the Term Bond Sinking Fund Account to provide for the retirement of such Completion Bonds or Additional Bonds shall not commence earlier than the date the first credit is to be made to the Serial Bond Principal Account to provide for the payment of 1965 Bonds and shall not commence later than four years from the date of such Completion Bonds or Additional Bonds; subject to the foregoing limitations on the making of the first credit to said accounts, the credits required to be made to either the Serial Bond Principal Account or the Term Bond Sinking Fund Account in order to provide for the retirement of the Completion Bonds or Additional Bonds proposed to be issued, must be spread over a period not shorter than the remaining life of the 1965 Bonds, Completion Bonds or Additional Bonds then outstanding, in such manner so that the aggregate debt service requirement for all Bonds outstanding after the issuance of such proposed Completion Bonds or Additional Bonds, will be reasonably equal for any fiscal year in which any of the 1965 Bonds, Completion Bonds and Additional Bonds outstanding at the time of issuance of the proposed Completion Bonds or Additional Bonds, shall remain outstanding, it being the intent of this condition that (subject to the foregoing limitations on the first credits to be made to either the Serial Bond Principal Account or the Term Bond Sinking Fund Account), the charge upon the gross revenues of the Lincoln General Hospital for the payment of principal and interest of all Bonds to be outstanding after the issuance of the proposed Completion Bonds or Additional Bonds, will be reasonably equal in each fiscal year in which any 1965 Bonds, Completion Bonds and Additional Bonds outstanding at the time of issuance of the proposed Completion Bonds or Additional Bonds, shall remain outstanding;

(e) The Additional Bonds shall be issued only for the purpose of reconstructing, improving and extending the Lincoln General Hospital and the furnishing and equipping of the same, and the net earnings of the Lincoln General Hospital for the five fiscal years immediately prior to the issuance of such Additional Bonds, as shown by the audit of the books and accounts of such hospital made for each of such years, shall have averaged not less than 125% of the maximum aggregate debt service requirement for any future fiscal year for all Bonds (including the 1965 Bonds, Completion Bonds or other Additional Bonds) then outstanding and the Additional Bonds proposed to be issued.

In addition to the foregoing, if prior to the payment of all the 1965 Bonds, Completion Bonds and Additional Bonds then outstanding, it shall be found desirable to refund all or any part of said Bonds, said Bonds may be refunded notwithstanding the restrictions as to the issuance of Completion Bonds and Additional Bonds set forth above in this section. In the event of refunding of part only of the outstanding Bonds, any refunding bonds so issued shall be payable from the gross revenues of the Lincoln General Hospital on a parity and be equally and ratably secured with the portion of said Bonds then outstanding which are not refunded, and shall be deemed to be "Additional Bonds" issued hereunder for all purposes of this Ordinance (except that paragraphs (a), (d) and (e) of this section need not be complied with upon their issuance but paragraphs (b) and (c) above shall be complied with), and said refunding bonds shall be entitled to the security and benefits hereof; provided, however, that if part only of said outstanding Bonds is to be refunded at any time, such refunding obligations shall not bear interest at an average rate greater than the average interest rate of the Bonds refunded; the aggregate principal amount of the refunding bonds shall not exceed the total of the aggregate principal amount of the Bonds to be refunded and the aggregate of the premiums, if any, payable upon such refunding; and the aggregate debt service requirement after such refunding, for any fiscal year in which the Bonds not refunded shall be outstanding, shall not be greater than the aggregate debt service requirement for such year were such refunding not to occur.

SECTION 15. AMENDMENT OF THIS ORDINANCE. From time to time the holders of seventy-five per cent (75%) in principal amount of the 1965 Bonds, Completion Bonds and Additional Bonds then outstanding hereunder (not including any of said Bonds owned or controlled directly or indirectly by the City), by an instrument or instruments in writing signed by such holders and filed with the City, shall have power to assent to and authorize any modification or amendment that shall be proposed by the City of the provisions of this Ordinance or of the rights and obligations of the City and of the holders of the Bonds and interest coupons issued hereunder, and any action herein authorized to be taken with the assent and authority given as aforesaid of the holders of seventy-five per cent (75%) in principal amount of said Bonds at the time outstanding hereunder shall be binding upon the holders of all of said Bonds outstanding hereunder and upon the City, as fully as though such action were specifically and expressly authorized by the terms of this Ordinance; provided always, that without the consent of the holder of each Bond affected thereby, no such modification shall be made which will (a) extend the time of payment of the principal of or the interest on any Bond or reduce the principal amount thereof or the rate of interest thereon or the premium payable upon the redemption thereof, or (b) give to any of said Bond or Bonds any preference over any other Bond or Bonds secured equally and ratably therewith, or (c) authorize the creation of any pledge prior to or, except as provided in Section 14 hereof for the issuance of Completion Bonds and Additional Bonds, on a parity with the pledge afforded by this Ordinance, or (d) deprive any holder of said Bonds of the security afforded by the pledge of this Ordinance, or (e) reduce the percentage in principal amount of the said Bonds required to assent to or authorize any such modification; provided further, however, that without the consent of any holder of the 1965 Bonds, Completion Bonds or Additional Bonds, the City may make any modification or amendment of this Ordinance required for the correction of language or to cure any ambiguity or defective or inconsistent provision, omission, mistake or manifest error herein contained, and may, in accordance and upon compliance with the provisions of Section 14 hereof, adopt ordinances supplemental hereto authorizing the issuance of Completion Bonds and Additional Bonds. Any modification or amendment of the provisions of this Ordinance or of any ordinance supplemental hereto made as aforesaid shall be set forth in a supplemental ordinance to be adopted by the City Council of the City.

SECTION 16. ORDINANCE TO CONSTITUTE A CONTRACT WITH BONDHOLDERS; ENFORCEMENT OF SAME. So long as any of the 1965 Bonds, Completion Bonds or any Additional Bonds are outstanding, each of the obligations, duties, limitations and restraints imposed upon the City by this Ordinance shall be deemed to be a covenant between the City and every holder of said Bonds, and this Ordinance and every provision and covenant hereof and Section 44 of Article IX of the Charter of said City shall constitute a contract of the City with every holder from time to time of said Bonds and the coupons pertaining thereto. Any holder of a 1965 Bond or of a Completion Bond or of an Additional Bond or Bonds or of any of the coupons of any of said Bonds may be mandamus or other appropriate action or proceeding at law or in equity in any court of competent jurisdiction enforce and compel performance of this Ordinance and every provision and covenant hereof, including, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the enforcement of the performance of all duties required of the City by this Ordinance, the Charter of the City of Lincoln, and the applicable laws of the State of Nebraska, including in such duties the making and collecting of sufficient rates and charges for the use and services of the facilities of the Lincoln General Hospital and the segregation of the gross revenues of said hospital and the application thereof as provided in Section 6 of this Ordinance.

SECTION 17. DISCHARGE OF CITY'S OBLIGATIONS UNDER ORDINANCE. POSTCARD

Just to see if they'd work, I set off a couple of firecrackers the other evening. ("Look out! Bang!")

Around our suburban Shady Acres, a few premature sparklers were showering the night with instant stars. However, there were only a few scattered firecracker pops.

Speaking of Independence Day, John Adams wrote to Mrs. Adams on July 3, 1776.

If there had been firecrackers, he would have got them on the list.

John was speaking of July 2. Not July 4. He figured July 2 would be celebrated as Independence Day. But somehow in the final showdown, it got switched to July 4.

Something to do with Thomas Jefferson, as I recall. But it's a long time since I studied history and am not about to start now.

I think the county has some laws against firecrackers. The city has, I know.

The idea of a "safe and sane Fourth of July" was being sawed off on me, even in my insane and unsafe youth.

But there were men of great independence then. Men and youth were encouraged to go out and blow themselves up. It was known as "the grand and glorious Fourth." And believe me, it was.

Fizzzzzzzzzz! Bang! Bang! Bang! Fizzzz!

The other boy said: "No, you look. I double dare you!"

So you picked the cracker up carefully — BAM!

But in the independent days of short pants, Fourth of July was celebrated gloriously in sleepy midwest towns. Where a bronze-green Union soldier leaned on a bronze-green rifle in a courthouse square.

He stood on a stone monument that listed names — the same names that were in the shady cemetery with a black GAR iron star stuck in the clipped green grass.

Around the corner, we had arranged an enormous cannon cracker. Under an empty tin can. (Which gave twice the bang for the buck.)

The fuse went fizzzzzz. Wham!

I think bonfires are illegal, too. In the summer anyway. And if you shoot a gun around here, they put you in the moan-and-wail until you are good and sorry.

Motion To Vacate Edgar Langley's Conviction Sought

Grand Island (AP) — Edgar Troy Langley, sentenced Feb. 6, 1964, to life imprisonment for the murder of his wife Estelle on Dec. 7, 1963, filed a motion in District Court Thursday asking that his conviction be vacated and annulled.

The motion to vacate the conviction was filed under a newly enacted Nebraska law, LB836, which provides for a post conviction review in the court from which the applicant was sentenced.

Carstens Merger Bill Revived In Legislature

The Legislature Thursday by a vote of 26-15 voted to revive a bill which would allow surrounding school districts to merge with Class III districts for joint operation of schools.

LB688, sponsored by Sen. Fred Carstens of Beatrice, had been deadlocked in the education committee, and was killed Wednesday by a motion killing all bills still in commitee by that date.

Carstens said the bill was permissive legislation only and would be applicable to the entire state.

He said the bill would allow the Beatrice city school district to form a new type of district with surrounding school districts.

Elections

Carstens said there would be elections held before any merger took place, and that the rural area would have a different levy than the city.

The Beatrice senator said 18 or 19 rural school districts would be eliminated by the proposed school merger in his district. He said the proposal has the "full approval of the city district and the rural districts."

Carstens said he has new amendments which will correct the constitutional objections the attorney general had raised about the bill.

Sen. Arnold Ruhnke of Plymouth opposed the bill revival saying that serious constitutional questions have been raised about the bill.

Should Not Limit

He said the alternative, afforded by the bill should not be limited to Class III districts.

Carstens said he had no objection to extending the bill's alternative to other types of districts. Class II districts are districts with 1,000 to 50,000 population in the district.

Sen. H. C. Crandall of Curtis said the bill was needed to help solve re-districting problems throughout the state.

SECTION 14. ISSUANCE OF ADDITIONAL BONDS AND COMPLETION BONDS. From and after the effectiveness of this Ordinance the City shall not issue bonds, notes, certificates of indebtedness or other evidences of indebtedness which will in any way be superior to or rank on a parity with the 1965 Bonds and any Completion Bonds or Additional Bonds hereafter authorized in accordance with this section, or which will in any way have a lien and charge on the gross revenues and other moneys and funds pledged herein to the payment of said Bonds, equal or prior to the lien or charge created herein for such payment, except to the extent and as hereinafter provided in this section.

The City may, upon compliance with the provisions of (a), (b), (c) and (d) of this section, authorize at any time prior to December 31, 1967, not exceeding $400,000 principal amount of completion bonds (herein in this Ordinance referred to as "Completion Bonds"), payable on a parity with the 1965 Bonds and any Additional Bonds hereafter issued and equally and ratably secured therewith, and may, upon compliance with the provisions of (b), (c), (d) and (e) of this section, authorize at any time and from time to time the issuance of additional bonds (herein in this Ordinance referred to as "Additional Bonds"), payable on a parity with the 1965 Bonds, any Completion Bonds and any other then outstanding Additional Bonds and equally and ratably secured therewith, as follows:

(a) The total amount of Completion Bonds shall not exceed that amount, as certified by the Director of Finance and the architect, if any, employed or appointed with respect to the additions, expansions, improvements and equippings to be made from the proceeds of the 1965 Bonds, as being necessary to complete the payment of the costs of such additions, expansions, improvements and equippings, and such Bonds shall be issued only for the purpose of completing such payment;

(b) The amounts required to be credited to the respective accounts created in Section 6 of this Ordinance must have been credited in full from the date of issuance of the 1965 Bonds to the date of delivery of such Completion Bonds or Additional Bonds;

(c) The proceedings authorizing the issuance of such Bonds shall contain the provisions required by paragraphs (b) and (c) of part FIRST of Section 6 hereof and by parts SECOND, THIRD and FOURTH of said section;

(d) The first date of maturity of the Completion Bonds or Additional Bonds proposed to be issued must not be earlier than the first date of maturity (July 1, 1968) of the 1965 Bonds, and the last date of maturity of the Completion Bonds or Additional Bonds proposed to be issued must not be earlier than the last date of maturity of the 1965 Bonds, Completion Bonds or Additional Bonds then outstanding; the first credit to be made to either the Serial Bond Principal Account or the Term Bond Sinking Fund Account to provide for the retirement of such Completion Bonds or Additional Bonds shall not commence earlier than the date the first credit is to be made to the Serial Bond Principal Account to provide for the payment of 1965 Bonds and shall not commence later than four years from the date of such Completion Bonds or Additional Bonds; subject to the foregoing limitations on the making of the first credit to said accounts, the credits required to be made to either the Serial Bond Principal Account or the Term Bond Sinking Fund Account in order to provide for the retirement of the Completion Bonds or Additional Bonds proposed to be issued, must be spread over a period not shorter than the remaining life of the 1965 Bonds, Completion Bonds or Additional Bonds then outstanding, in such manner so that the aggregate debt service requirement for all Bonds outstanding after the issuance of such proposed Completion Bonds or Additional Bonds, will be reasonably equal for any fiscal year in which any of the 1965 Bonds, Completion Bonds and Additional Bonds outstanding at the time of issuance of the proposed Completion Bonds or Additional Bonds, shall remain outstanding, it being the intent of this condition that (subject to the foregoing limitations on the first credits to be made to either the Serial Bond Principal Account or the Term Bond Sinking Fund Account), the charge upon the gross revenues of the Lincoln General Hospital for the payment of principal and interest of all Bonds to be outstanding after the issuance of the proposed Completion Bonds or Additional Bonds, will be reasonably equal in each fiscal year in which any 1965 Bonds, Completion Bonds and Additional Bonds outstanding at the time of issuance of the proposed Completion Bonds or Additional Bonds, shall remain outstanding;

(e) The Additional Bonds shall be issued only for the purpose of reconstructing, improving and extending the Lincoln General Hospital and the furnishing and equipping of the same, and the net earnings of the Lincoln General Hospital for the five fiscal years immediately prior to the issuance of such Additional Bonds, as shown by the audit of the books and accounts of such hospital made for each of such years, shall have averaged not less than 125% of the maximum aggregate debt service requirement for any future fiscal year for all Bonds (including the 1965 Bonds, Completion Bonds or other Additional Bonds) then outstanding and the Additional Bonds proposed to be issued.

In addition to the foregoing, if prior to the payment of all the 1965 Bonds, Completion Bonds and Additional Bonds then outstanding, it shall be found desirable to refund all or any part of said Bonds, said Bonds may be refunded notwithstanding the restrictions as to the issuance of Completion Bonds and Additional Bonds set forth above in this section. In the event of refunding of part only of the outstanding Bonds, any refunding bonds so issued shall be payable from the gross revenues of the Lincoln General Hospital on a parity and be equally and ratably secured with the portion of said Bonds then outstanding which are not refunded, and shall be deemed to be "Additional Bonds" issued hereunder for all purposes of this Ordinance (except that paragraphs (a), (d) and (e) of this section need not be complied with upon their issuance but paragraphs (b) and (c) above shall be complied with), and said refunding bonds shall be entitled to the security and benefits hereof; provided, however, that if part only of said outstanding Bonds is to be refunded at any time, such refunding obligations shall not bear interest at an average rate greater than the average interest rate of the Bonds refunded; the aggregate principal amount of the refunding bonds shall not exceed the total of the aggregate principal amount of the Bonds to be refunded and the aggregate of the premiums, if any, payable upon such refunding; and the aggregate debt service requirement after such refunding, for any fiscal year in which the Bonds not refunded shall be outstanding, shall not be greater than the aggregate debt service requirement for such year were such refunding not to occur.

SECTION 15. AMENDMENT OF THIS ORDINANCE. From time to time the holders of seventy-five per cent (75%) in principal amount of the 1965 Bonds, Completion Bonds and Additional Bonds then outstanding hereunder (not including any of said Bonds owned or controlled directly or indirectly by the City), by an instrument or instruments in writing signed by such holders and filed with the City, shall have power to assent to and authorize any modification or amendment that shall be proposed by the City of the provisions of this Ordinance or of the rights and obligations of the City and of the holders of the Bonds and interest coupons issued hereunder, and any action herein authorized to be taken with the assent and authority given as aforesaid of the holders of seventy-five per cent (75%) in principal amount of said Bonds at the time outstanding hereunder shall be binding upon the holders of all of said Bonds outstanding hereunder and upon the City, as fully as though such action were specifically and expressly authorized by the terms of this Ordinance: provided always, that without the consent of the holder of each Bond affected thereby, no such modification shall be made which will (a) extend the time of payment of the principal of or the interest on any Bond or reduce the principal amount thereof or the rate of interest thereon or the premium payable upon the redemption thereof, or (b) give to any of said Bond or Bonds any preference over any other Bond or Bonds secured equally and ratably therewith, or (c) authorize the creation of any pledge prior to or, except as provided in Section 14 hereof for the issuance of Completion Bonds and Additional Bonds, on a parity with the pledge afforded by this Ordinance, or (d) deprive any holder of said Bonds of the security afforded by the pledge of this Ordinance, or (e) reduce the percentage in principal amount of the said Bonds required to assent to or authorize any such modification; provided further, however, that without the consent of any holder of the 1965 Bonds, Completion Bonds or Additional Bonds, the City may make any modification or amendment of this Ordinance required for the correction of language or to cure any ambiguity or defective or inconsistent provision, omission, mistake or manifest error herein contained, and may, in accordance and upon compliance with the provisions of Section 14 hereof, adopt ordinances supplemental hereto authorizing the issuance of Completion Bonds and Additional Bonds. POSTCARD by
Stan Delaplane

Just to see if they'd work, I set off a couple of firecrackers the other evening. ("Look out! Bang!")

Around our suburban Shady Acres, a few premature sparklers were showering the night with instant stars. However, there were only a few scattered firecracker pops.

Just a few of us unreconstructed rebels in the hills. The guerrillas of the safe and sane Fourth of July.

Speaking of Independence Day, John Adams wrote to Mrs. Adams on July 3, 1776.

John did not mention firecrackers. Because there were no firecrackers at that time.

If there had been firecrackers, he would have got them on the list.

John was speaking of July 2. Not July 4. He figured July 2 would be celebrated as Independence Day. But somehow in the final showdown, it got switched to July 4.

Something to do with Thomas Jefferson, as I recall. But it's a long time since I studied history and am not about to start now.

I think the county has some laws against firecrackers. The city has, I know.

The idea of a "safe and sane Fourth of July" was being sawed off on me, even in my insane and unsafe youth.

But there were men of great independence then. Men and youth were encouraged to go out and blow themselves up. It was known as "the grand and glorious Fourth." And believe me, it was.

Fizzzzzzzzzz! Bang! Bang! Bang! Fizzzz!

We looked at the string of smoking Chinese red crackers and said: "Hey, I think one of them didn't go off. You look."

The other boy said: "No, you look. I double dare you!"

You cannot take a double dare. Anyone knows that.

So you picked the cracker up carefully — BAM!

Such derring-do seems to have passed from the American scene, more's the pity. My own offspring are denied such banging pleasures. (Except for what bootleg their old man brings home, bless his independent heart.)

The big bang these days is reserved for world statesmen. Eyeball-to-eyeball.

A thumb on the nuclear button. "I double dare you!"

But in the independent days of short pants, Fourth of July was celebrated gloriously in sleepy midwest towns. Where a bronze-green Union soldier leaned on a bronze-green rifle in a courthouse square.

He stood on a stone monument that listed names — the same names that were in the shady cemetery with a black GAR iron star stuck in the clipped green grass.

☆ ☆ ☆

The politician stood on the courthouse steps and his voice carried without benefit of loudspeakers:

"We pause to remember our comrades-in-arms . . ."

Around the corner, we had arranged an enormous cannon cracker. Under an empty tin can. (Which gave twice the bang for the buck.)

The fuse went fizzzzzz. Wham!

Horses jumped at the hitching posts. The GAR veterans in Union blue looked around—one of them said later that "dummed if it didn't sound like the Wilderness!"

". . . with guns, bells, bonfires and illuminations," John Adams wrote to Mrs. A.

"What would John have said about sparklers? Mighty small illumination.

I think bonfires are illegal, too. In the summer anyway. And if you shoot a gun around here, they put you in the moan-and-wail until you are good and sorry.

Motion To Vacate Edgar Langley's Conviction Sought

Grand Island (AP) — Edgar Troy Langley, sentenced Feb. 6, 1964, to life imprisonment for the murder of his wife Estelle on Dec. 7, 1963, filed a motion in District Court Thursday asking that his conviction be vacated and annulled.

The motion to vacate the conviction was filed under a newly enacted Nebraska law, LB836, which provides for a post conviction review in the court from which the applicant was sentenced.

Carstens Merger Bill Revived In Legislature

The Legislature Thursday by a vote of 26-15 voted to revive a bill which would allow surrounding school districts to merge with Class III districts for joint operation of schools.

LB688, sponsored by Sen. Fred Carstens of Beatrice, had been deadlocked in the education committee, and was killed Wednesday by a motion killing all bills still in commitee by that date.

Carstens said the bill was permissive legislation only and would be applicable to the entire state.

He said the bill would allow the Beatrice city school district to form a new type of district with surrounding school districts.

Elections

Carstens said there would be elections held before any merger took place, and that the rural area would have a different levy than the city.

The Beatrice senator said 18 or 19 rural school districts would be eliminated by the proposed school merger in his district. He said the proposal has the "full approval of the city district and the rural districts."

Carstens said he has new amendments which will correct the constitutional objections the attorney general had raised about the bill.

Sen. Arnold Ruhnke of Plymouth opposed the bill revival saying that serious constitutional questions have been raised about the bill.

Should Not Limit

He said the alternative afforded by the bill should not be limited to Class III districts.

Carstens said he had no objection to extending the bill's alternative to other types of districts. Class II districts are districts with 1,000 to 50,000 population in the district.

Sen. H. C. Crandall of Curtis said the bill was needed to help solve re-districting problems throughout the state.

Market Extends Leisurely Rally

New York (AP) — The stock market, moving at a leisurely pace, extended its rally through the third straight session Thursday.

The sluggish performance was in marked contrast to the hectic trading and huge moves of the three previous sessions.

After a severe loss Monday, the market rallied Tuesday and Wednesday, regaining about 25 per cent of the loss suffered in its six-week slide since reaching an all-time peak May 14.

Although the momentum of the two previous sessions was lost, Wall Street found satisfaction in the way the market acted Thursday, showing it had the strength to pull out of a decline.

Changes of most key issues were fractional but a few gains exceeded a point.

Volume slowed to 4.52 million shares from 6.93 million Wednesday.

Among the 15 most active stocks 10 advanced, 4 declined and Ford Motor was unchanged.

The Big Three motors topped the most active list as they had done on the two previous days.

General Motors, up 1 at 96⅝ on 74,200 shares, was most active. Chrysler, up ¼ at 46½ on 69,100 shares, was second, and Ford, unchanged at 52⅝ on 64,400 shares, was third.

Soybeans Are Firm To Weak

Chicago (AP)—Trade in the grain futures market Thursday consisted largely of rapid in-and-out speculative transactions in old crop soybeans as prices ranged from firm to weak.

Although wheat came under selling pressure and finished with its first losses of the week, brokers said the trade actually was rather light there and in most other commodities on the Board of Trade.

Setbacks in both wheat and rye ranged to major fractions with July and September rye again at their season lows.

At the close, soybeans were ½ cent a bushel lower to ⅛ higher, July $2.96-95½; new standard grade wheat ¼-⅜ lower, July $1.41¾; corn ½ lower to ⅛ higher, July $1.31¾-⅞; oats ⅛-½ lower, July 67⅞ cents; rye ⅜-¾ lower, July $1.11½.

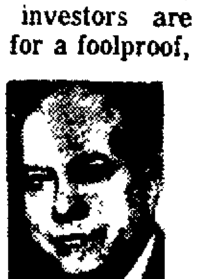
EVERYBODY'S MONEY:

Naive People Still Search For Riskless Investments

By Merryle S. Rukeyser



Rukeyser

Despite the object lesson in the recent corrective decline in the structure of stock prices, naive investors are still searching for a foolproof, riskless investment adventure.

This quest is illusory. A sensible goal is to select and diversify business risks in such a way as to achieve reasonable security in an uncertain world. The technique requires "dollar averaging," diversification not only as to industry, but also as to an ownership vs. a debt position and expert knowledge based on professional counsel.

In this general climate, an Iowa reader, the wife of a retired man aged 74, with an estate of half a million dollars, consisting of diversified common stocks, $70,000 in savings and a non-refund annuity paying $6,000 a year asks for guidance. The couple has children, characterized as "very improvident," and grandchildren.

She writes: "Like so many of our age, we are, at long last faced with ultimatums of a critical nature. In seeking help we run into people with an axe to grind. Brokers urge us to have a managed account, life insurance people ask us to buy annuities.

"If we sell our stocks, the capital gain tax cuts our capital down by a big chunk and the government later takes a colossal bite in inheritance taxes. We feel we would like to settle down with our minds free. We worked hard all our lives. We want adequately to prepare for our welfare and that of our children.

"To whom in Chicago could we go for advice in estate planning — someone familiar with the changing tax structure? Could this be handled best by a bank as executor or as lawyer? What is your choice?

"The economic situation is such that we worry from having the bulk of our holdings in common stock, although our portfolio is gove over regularly. A stock exchange firm handles our account and holds all our shares, keeping records for tax purposes. Is this wise? Should we hold them ourselves?

"We have an auditor to take care of our affairs; we consult our lawyer frequently. This lawyer is our age and while we have every confidence in his integrity, he is no expert on investments.

"I realize this letter shows my frustrations."

A practical answer needs to be blunt and specific. This couple requires a team of advisers. The estate is large enough to employ on an annual fee basis either a firm of investment counsellors or a trust company (or bank).

A lawyer is needed to set up either a living trust or a testamentary trust. A single document, coordinated with wills of both spouses, can make the transition easy. It should be borne in mind that professional advisers, including investment counsellors and corporate trustees, act for the account and risk of the principal.

While annuities are excellent for older people who want to invade their principal to supplement income, it is not prudent to put a large fund, especially under existing financial conditions and prospects, solely in a fixed dollar fund such as an annuity contract. As a matter of fact, this man already has a substantial annuity commitment.

Q. — A reader in Bluffton, Iowa writes: "You refer to 'no load' mutual funds. Is there anything wrong with Investors Mutual of Minneapolis? No one is going to give service for nothing and Investors Mutual has a fairly good record."

A. — There is nothing wrong with any of the "load" funds successfully operated by competent people. The only difference in setup between the "load" funds, with an entry fee running up to 8½% and the "no load" fund, usually operated as a sideline by an investment counsel firm, is that the latter are available at current pro rata net asset value, with no addition for sales and promotional expenses.

Once you are in a good fund with a load, there is no point in shifting to a "no load" fund. The salesman is worthy of his hire and is entitled to be paid. He brings financial know-how to those who otherwise might be neglected.

On the other hand, if the knowledgable elite want to obviate the entry fee, that is also legitimate. The reader is somewhat confused. The supervisory management of both "load" and "no load" mutual funds charge annual management fees.

(Mr. Rukeyser will be pleased to receive inquiries from readers concerning their financial problems. Letters with self-addressed, stamped envelopes should be sent in care of The Lincoln Star. Questions of egneral interest will be answered in the column.)

Market Extends Leisurely Rally

New York (AP) — The stock market, moving at a leisurely pace, extended its rally through the third straight session Thursday.

The sluggish performance was in marked contrast to the hectic trading and huge moves of the three previous sessions.

After a severe loss Monday, the market rallied Tuesday and Wednesday, regaining about 25 per cent of the loss suffered in its six-week slide since reaching an all-time peak May 14.

Although the momentum of the two previous sessions was lost, Wall Street found satisfaction in the way the market acted Thursday, showing it had the strength to pull out of a decline.

Changes of most key issues were fractional but a few gains exceeded a point.

The Dow Jones average of 30 industrials rose 3.56 to 871.59.

The Associated Press 60-stock average advanced 1.3 to 319.7 with industrials up 1.8, rails up 1.0 and utilities up .4.

Of 1,362 issues traded, 779 rose and 356 fell. New 1965 lows topped new highs 28 to 5.

Volume slowed to 4.52 million shares from 6.93 million Wednesday.

Among the 15 most active stocks 10 advanced, 4 declined and Ford Motor was unchanged.

The Big Three motors topped the most active list as they had done on the two previous days.

General Motors, up 1 at 96⅝ on 74,200 shares, was most active. Chrysler, up ¼ at 46½ on 69,100 shares, was second, and Ford, unchanged at 52⅝ on 64,400 shares, was third.

Prices advanced on the American Stock Exchange. Volume fell to 1.01 million shares from 1.76 million Wednesday.

Soybeans Are Firm To Weak

Chicago (AP)—Trade in the grain futures market Thursday consisted largely of rapid in-and-out speculative transactions in old crop soybeans as prices ranged from firm to weak.

Although wheat came under selling pressure and finished with its first losses of the week, brokers said the trade actually was rather light there and in most other commodities on the Board of Trade.

Setbacks in both wheat and rye ranged to major fractions with July and September rye again at their season lows.

At the close, soybeans were ½ cent a bushel lower to ⅛ higher, July $2.96-95½; new standard grade wheat ¼-⅜ lower, July $1.41¾; corn ½ lower to ⅛ higher, July $1.31¾-⅞; oats ⅛-½ lower, July 67⅝ cents; rye ⅜-¾ lower, July $1.11½.

EVERYBODY'S MONEY:

Naive People Still Search For Riskless Investments

By Merryle S. Rukeyser

Rukeyser

This quest is illusory. A sensible goal is to select and diversify business risks in such a way as to achieve reasonable security in an uncertain world. The technique requires "dollar averaging," diversification not only as to industry, but also as to an ownership vs. a debt position and expert knowledge based on professional counsel.

In this general climate, an Iowa reader, the wife of a retired man aged 74, with an estate of half a million dollars, consisting of diversified common stocks, $70,000 in savings and a non-refund annuity paying $6,000 a year asks for guidance. The couple has children, characterized as "very improvident," and grandchildren.

She writes: "Like so many of our age, we are, at long last faced with ultimatums of a critical nature. In seeking help we run into people with an axe to grind. Brokers urge us to have a managed account, life insurance people ask us to buy annuities.

"If we sell our stocks, the capital gain tax cuts our capital down by a big chunk and the government later takes a colossal bite in inheritance taxes. We feel we would like to settle down with our minds free. We worked hard all our lives. We want adequately to prepare for our welfare and that of our children.

"To whom in Chicago could we go for advice in estate planning — someone familiar with the changing tax structure? Could this be handled best by a bank as executor or as lawyer? What is your choice?

"The economic situation is such that we worry from having the bulk of our holdings in common stock, although our portfolio is gove over regularly. A stock exchange firm handles our account and holds all our shares, keeping records for tax purposes. Is this wise? Should we hold them ourselves?

"We have an auditor to take care of our affairs; we consult our lawyer frequently. This lawyer is our age and while we have every confidence in his integrity, he is no expert on investments.

"I realize this letter shows my frustrations."

A practical answer needs to be blunt and specific. This couple requires a team of advisers. The estate is large enough to employ on an annual fee basis either a firm of investment counsellors or a trust company (or bank).

A lawyer is needed to set up either a living trust or a testamentary trust. A single document, coordinated with wills of both spouses, can make the transition easy. It should be borne in mind that professional advisers, including investment counsellors and corporate trustees, act for the account and risk of the principal.

While annuities are excellent for older people who want to invade their principal to supplement income, it is not prudent to put a large fund, especially under existing financial conditions and prospects, solely in a fixed dollar fund such as an annuity contract. As a matter of fact, this man already has a substantial annuity commitment.

Q. — A reader in Bluffton, Iowa writes: "You refer to 'no load' mutual funds. Is there anything wrong with Investors Mutual of Minneapolis? No one is going to give service for nothing and Investors Mutual has a fairly good record."

A. — There is nothing wrong with any of the "load" funds successfully operated by competent people. The only difference in setup between the "load" funds, with an entry fee running up to 8½% and the "no load" fund, usually operated as a sideline by an investment counsel firm, is that the latter are available at current pro rata net asset value, with no addition for sales and promotional expenses.

Once you are in a good fund with a load, there is no point in shifting to a "no load" fund. The salesman is worthy of his hire and is entitled to be paid. He brings financial know-how to those who otherwise might be neglected.

On the other hand, if the knowledgable elite want to obviate the entry fee, that is also legitimate. The reader is somewhat confused. The supervisory management of both "load" and "no load" mutual funds charge annual management fees.

(Mr. Rukeyser will be pleased to receive inquiries from readers concerning their financial problems. Letters with self-addressed, stamped envelopes should be sent in care of The Lincoln Star. Questions of egneral interest will be answered in the column.)

Uneasiness Spreading Over Algerian Regime

Foreign Minister Subandrio of Indonesia flew in for talks. Diplomatic sources said he was believed to have orders from President ,Sukarno to find out whether Boumedienne intends to follow the generally anti-Western foreign policy of his predecessor, deposed President Ahmed Ben Bella.

The Algiers office of the Cuban news agency Prensa Latina was ordered closed, for distributing the text of a Havana speech by Prime Minister Fidel Castro describing the new regime as a "reactionary and Fascist military dictatorship."

A government statement insisted the crackdown on Prensa Latin would not affect Algeria's traditional friendship for the Cuban people, "brothers in arms in the struggle against oppression and imperialism."

However Cuban Ambassador Jorge Serguera flew to Havana last week "for consultations," and Havanna Radio said Cuba now has no ambassador in Algiers. Serguera has been named ambassador to the Congo Republic, in Brazzaville.

President Gamal Abdel Nasser of the United Arab Republic refused to give the Boumedienne regime formal recognition, presumably out of loyalty to his old friend Ben Bella. Ben Bella is imprisoned and faces possible trial for "high treason."

Subandrio told newsmen he came for "bilateral discussions" with the Boumedienne regime, which Indonesia was among the first to recognize. Anti-Boumedienne demonstrations appeared to have fizzled out after several days of rioting and there were no reports of open opposition to the regime anywhere in Algeria.

Well-Dressed Bandits Strip Jewelry Shop

New York (AP)—Three well-dressed, well-mannered bandits leisurely held up a Madison Avenue jewelry shop Thursday, and stripped it of from $250,000 to $300,000 in gems. They even looted the store's front window display.

Two customers who entered while the holdup was in progress were relieved at gunpoint of personal jewelry and cash. One of the victims, Jack Epstein, remarked, "They were very decent about it. They took my $50 but let me keep the wallet and papers."

Epstein and the two owners of the shop were forced into a back room and handcuffed. A woman customer, Mrs. Lillian Farrell, who entered later also was herded to the rear with the men. In each case, the bandits directed the victims to "close your eyes."

DROPOUT MAKES GOOD

He sought the excitement of the big city in St. Louis where he went to work at a hamburger stand. The excitement didn't materialize.

Comes To Senses

"After one year," he said, "I finally came to my senses."

He returned to his home at Ellsinore, a town of 300, and completed high school. In the 12th grade he was tapped as a substitute teacher for an 8th grade class for two weeks.

"I don't know why they picked me," he recalled Thursday, "but I found the experience to be so exciting, so provocative that I really then decided to become a teacher."

To College

After World War II service with an infantry company in Europe, Alcorn attended college part-time while working at various jobs.

Now, Alcorn, 39, has taken over as superintendent of schools in Chesterfield County, adjacent to Richmond, succeeding the retiring superintendent, Fred D. Thompson.

Dangerous Curbs Stay; Removal Costs Too Much

The curbs along many of Nebraska's older highways are hazardous, State Engineer John Hossack said Thursday.

But the high cost of removing them will probably mean they will be on the state scene for some time to come.

"Our problem is that the curbs can't be removed for less than $30,000 to $40,000 a mile," Hossack said. And then the rough areas must be resurfaced and widened and the shoulder area and drainage ditches improved.

He said the curbs were standard procedure in highway construction some 25 years ago.

Negro Is Elected Moderator Of United Church Of Christ

Chicago (AP) — Hollis F. Price was elected moderator of the United Church of Christ Thursday — the first Negro elevated to that position.

Price

He was chosen, without opposition, by the convention of representatives of the denomination of 2,067,224 members.

It was the second time this week that a major Protestant organization has chosen a Negro for a top office. The Rev. Dr. William R. Tolbert Jr., 52, vice president of Liberia, was selected president of the 25-million member World Baptist Alliance Tuesday in Miami Beach, Fla.

"I am cognizant of the responsibility I bear," Price told the 723 voting delegates and as many visitors. "I hope I can live up to that responsibility."

Dr. Price, 61, presidnet of LeMoyne College in Memphis, Tenn., stepped immediately into the highest honorary office of his church. He will visit congregations around the country and will preside over the next General Synod in 1967.

LeMoyne College has 650 students, 6 of them white. Price has been president for 20 years. He was born in Virginia in a place named by the Indians, Capahosic, and went to Amherst College and Columbia University.

He played a part in the steps toward integration in Memphis. The American Newspaper Guild there gave him its 1963 Citizenship Award.

Roosevelt said he had discussed his decision not to run for mayor with President Johnson, Sen. Robert F. Kennedy, D-N.Y., and present Mayor Robert F. Wagner, all of whom "tactily accepted" his decision.

Asked about a possible race for governor next year, Roosevelt replied, "That's a year and four or five months off. I don't think I have to worry about that now."

DROPOUT MAKES GOOD

He sought the excitement of the big city in St. Louis where he went to work at a hamburger stand. The excitement didn't materialize.

Comes To Senses

"After one year," he said, "I finally came to my senses."

He returned to his home at Ellsinore, a town of 300, and completed high school. In the 12th grade he was tapped as a substitute teacher for an 8th grade class for two weeks.

"I don't know why they picked me," he recalled Thursday, "but I found the experience to be so exciting, so provocative that I really then decided to become a teacher."

To College

After World War II service with an infantry company in Europe, Alcorn attended college part-time while working at various jobs.

Now, Alcorn, 39, has taken over as superintendent of schools in Chesterfield County, adjacent to Richmond, succeeding the retiring superintendent, Fred D. Thompson.

Dangerous Curbs Stay; Removal Costs Too Much

The curbs along many of Nebraska's older highways are hazardous, State Engineer John Hossack said Thursday.

But the high cost of removing them will probably mean they will be on the state scene for some time to come.

"Our problem is that the curbs can't be removed for less than $30,000 to $40,000 a mile," Hossack said. And then the rough areas must be resurfaced and widened and the shoulder area and drainage ditches improved.

He said the curbs were standard procedure in highway construction some 25 years ago.

He was chosen, without opposition, by the convention of representatives of the denomination of 2,067,224 members.

"I am cognizant of the responsibility I bear," Price told the 723 voting delegates and as many visitors. "I hope I can live up to that responsibility."

Dr. Price, 61, presidnet of LeMoyne College in Memphis, Tenn., stepped immediately into the highest honorary office of his church. He will visit congregations around the country and will preside over the next General Synod in 1967.

LeMoyne College has 650 students, 6 of them white. Price has been president for 20 years. He was born in Virginia in a place named by the Indians, Capahosic, and went to Amherst College and Columbia University.

He is a layman and a deacon in his church in Memphis.

Roosevelt said he had discussed his decision not to run for mayor with President Johnson, Sen. Robert F. Kennedy, D-N.Y., and present Mayor Robert F. Wagner, all of whom "tactily accepted" his decision.

Comptroller General Said Resigning

Washington (AP) — The Evening Star said Thursday it has learned that Joseph Campbell, U.S. comptroller general, is resigning as head of the General Accounting Office.

It said Campbell submitted his resignation to the White House because of ill health, asking that it be effective July 31.

Campbell, a former member of the Atomic Energy Commission, was appointed to a 15-year term as comptroller general by President Eisenhower in 1955. He supervises the watchdog agency, an arm of Congress, which keeps an eye on government spending practices.

The Star said Frank H. Weitzel, assistant comptroller general, is expected to serve as acting comptroller general until a new appointment is made.

Stephen G. Strand, 22, 2701 So. 31st, was fined $100, his license suspended for six months and sentenced to five days in jail in Municipal Court Thursday after leading police in a high speed chase Wednesday.

Police officers said they first saw Strand racing with another car and when they went to stop the drag race, Strand took off at high speeds.

The police pursued him and saw him run several stop signs and electric signals, but were unable to catch up with him. Later they found Strand at his home.

Band Leader Thornhill Dies

Caldwell, N.J. (UPI)—Band leader Claude Thornhill, whose syncopated rhythms set toes tapping across the country at the height of the big band era in the late '30s and early '40s, died Thursday at his home here. He was 55.

The famed pianist, who played with Artie Shaw, Paul Whitman, Glen Miller and Benny Goodman, was stricken by two heart attacks within an hour.

Caldwell police and a doctor rushed to the home of the stricken band leader and revived him after the first heart attack but he suffered a second attack about an hour later.

Thornhill was born in Terre Haute, Ind., and entered the Cincinnati Conservatory of Music at the age of 16. That same year he and clarinetist Artie Shaw started their careers at the Golden Pheasant in Cleveland

Comptroller General Said Resigning

Washington (AP) — The Evening Star said Thursday it has learned that Joseph Campbell, U.S. comptroller general, is resigning as head of the General Accounting Office.

It said Campbell submitted his resignation to the White House because of ill health, asking that it be effective July 31.

Campbell, a former member of the Atomic Energy Commission, was appointed to a 15-year term as comptroller general by President Eisenhower in 1955. He supervises the watchdog agency, an arm of Congress, which keeps an eye on government spending practices.

The Star said Frank H. Weitzel, assistant comptroller general, is expected to serve as acting comptroller general until a new appointment is made.

Man Appeals City Court Decision For Speed Chase

Stephen G. Strand, 22, 2701 So. 31st, was fined $100, his license suspended for six months and sentenced to five days in jail in Municipal Court Thursday after leading police in a high speed chase Wednesday.

Strand appealed the court's decision and paid a $500 bond.

Police officers said they first saw Strand racing with another car and when they went to stop the drag race, Strand took off at high speeds.

The police pursued him and saw him run several stop signs and electric signals, but were unable to catch up with him. Later they found Strand at his home.

Washington (AP)—Rep. John S. Monagan, D-Conn., told the House he joins former President Dwight D. Eisenhower in criticism of the way national political conventions are run.

Band Leader Thornhill Dies

Caldwell, N.J. (UPI)—Band leader Claude Thornhill, whose syncopated rhythms set toes tapping across the country at the height of the big band era in the late '30s and early '40s, died Thursday at his home here. He was 55.

The famed pianist, who played with Artie Shaw, Paul Whitman, Glen Miller and Benny Goodman, was stricken by two heart attacks within an hour.

Caldwell police and a doctor rushed to the home of the stricken band leader and revived him after the first heart attack but he suffered a second attack about an hour later.

Thornhill was born in Terre Haute, Ind., and entered the Cincinnati Conservatory of Music at the age of 16. That same year he and clarinetist Artie Shaw started their careers at the Golden Pheasant in Cleveland

Platte Valley Manager Protests 'Costly' Power Line

One of the partners in the Nebraska Public Power System complained Thursday that a 230-kilovolt power line from Sidney to North Platte will be considerably more costly if built by Consumers Public Power District than if built by NPPS.

The Platte Valley Public Power and Irrigation District of North Platte said the CPPD contract involves an average cost of $21,281 per mile for bare construction cost of the 120-mile line.

NPPS is building such a line between Columbus and Grand Island at cost of $14,474 per mile, Platte Valley said.

Platte Valley general manager Homer C. Loutzenheiser set out the information in a letter to William H. Norton, chairman of the Nebraska Power Review Board, which recently authorized CPPD to build the Sidney-North Platte line.

Loutzenheiser said it becomes apparent "that in fairly comparing Consumers construction costs with NPPS construction costs for the 230-kilovolt line, the rate payers of Nebraska, under the guise of so-called expediency, will have to pick up the tab for an approximate difference of $700,000—almost three-fourths of a million dollars on just one construction project.

"This additional construction cost must be absorbed by the rate payers in the form of increased fixed charges."

Copies of the letter were distributed to legislators Thursday by Sen. Cecil Craft of North Platte.

Consolidation Opposed

Platte Valley has resisted LB764, a pending bill which would create a state wholesale grid system by consolidating CPPD, Platte Valley and its NPPS partner, Loup River Public Power District, under a single board of directors.

"Many hours of debate have been spent in an effort to prove that such a merger will result in 'substantial savings to the rate payers'," Loutzenheiser wrote. "We wonder where the 'substantial savings to the rate payers' occur, and how such out-of-proportion construction costs can be justified . . .

"We wonder, also, under the proposed merger, what happens to the 'yardstick' (NPPS) by which such inequalities as indicated above, can be measured by the Power Review Board, the Legislature or the rate payers."

'Political Letter'

In a rebuttal statement, general manager D. W. Hill of CPPD said the Platte Valley letter "is designed to try to embarrass and cast aspersions on the judgment of the Power Review Board."

"Frankly, it is a political letter designed to cloud the issues regarding LB764, the power merger bill," Hill said.
